CHARLOTTETOWN 'BIRTHPLACE OF CONFEDERATION'

on the occasion of its

Confederation Centennial

salutes the nation
and expresses sincere appreciation to all Canadians for our new

Fathers of Confederation Memorial Buildings

"Architects: Affleck/Desbarats, Dimakopoulos/, Lebensold, Sise. Town Planner: Norbert Schoenauer."

Do you not hear them, Charlottetown,
Strong voices echoing from the past,
Bidding you proudly stand erect
To accept your honoured place at last?

Do you not hear them, Charlottetown,
Urging you revive ideals set,
That forged the bonds of nationhood,
When the Fathers round your table met?

Do you not hear them, Charlottetown,
Asking you hold aloft the light
Which first dreams a century ago
That it may still, noble dreams ignite?

Do you not hear them, Charlottetown,
Young voices from throughout the land
Coming to join in anthem strong
And beside the nation's shrine to stand?

Charlottetown, open wide your gates!
Let joy resound in every street!
A nation comes to honour you
And to lay her tributes at your feet.

FLORENCE ROPER.
