WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms ... ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of these ugly pests they must be killed in the intestines where they live and multiply. And that's exactly what JAYNE'S VERMIFUGE does ... kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily. Then they are expelled from the system in a normal manner and you are free of them.

For your own sake and the health of your children and loved ones, don't put off treatment. Get started with JAYNE'S at the very first sign of Pin-Worms. For once established these parasites are highly contagious and often spread through entire families.

So be sure to ask your druggist for JAYNE'S, famous for worm remedies for over one hundred years.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	3 ♠	Pass

Opening lead—ten of hearts.

Whenever declarer is faced with a situation where the success of a contract depends upon winning a crucial finesse, he should make it a point to seek some alternative method by which the finesse can be avoided.

The number of cases where a finesse can be eliminated in favor of a superior line of play occurs far more often than is generally realized.

Take, for example, this hand where the contract superficially appears to depend on the success of the club finesse. If declarer relies solely on the hope East was dealt the king of clubs, and puts his faith on only the club finesse, he suffers a one trick defeat.

Declarer has a 50 per cent chance that East was dealt the king of clubs, but this should not be interpreted to mean that he has only a 50 per cent chance to make the contract.

South's chance of carrying off the slam is considerably greater than 50 per cent, provided he takes the preparatory steps necessary to increase his chances. With correct play, South becomes about a 3 to 1 favorite to make the slam.

After winning the ace of hearts, declarer draws two rounds of trumps and ruffs a heart. The A - K of diamonds are cashed and a diamond is ruffed. Dummy's last heart is trumped, completing the first stage of the elimination of the red suits.

The eight of diamonds is led. When West produces the queen, the slam becomes a certainty. Declarer allows West to win the trick, discarding a club from dummy.

Whatever West now plays, the contract is made. If a club is led, it is right into South's A-Q If a heart is led, dummy discards another club as declarer ruffs in his own hand.

At no point during the play does declarer relinquish his chance of making the contract with the aid of a club finesse. But by eliminating the red suits first, he guarantees the contract if it turns out that West has the majority of the outstanding diamonds.

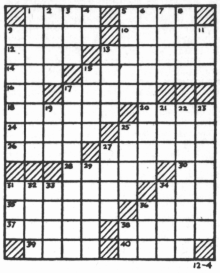
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

G Q K A M U H Q G X P H J L G X R H C I H U X

H O R C H G G Q L M L I G U L C M — G P W E.
