NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market took a severe jolt Thursday amid unsettling news about corporations but the list cut its losses late in the day.

Trading was the most active of the week, volume totalling 8,330,000 shares compared with 7,970,000 Wednesday.

The Dow Jones industrial average was down as much as 12.47 at mid-session but ended with a decline of 7.13 at 937.41—still a thumping loss.

The decline was blamed on news of an anti-trust suit aginst General Motors, charging that it tried to ban the sale of Chevrolets through discount houses in the Los Angeles area; on a fraud charge against Georgia-Pacific; and on the continued effect of credit restrictions on small-time speculators and daylight traders.

The weakness was also ascribed to the penetration of the strategic 940 "support level" by the Dow Jones industrial average.

HITS LOWEST POINT

General Motors sank to a yearly low of 88½ before it recovered to close at 89⅝, a net loss of ⅝.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 3.3 to 344.4.

Standard and Poor's 500-stock index lost .63 at 91.13.

Among Canadian issues traded, Aluminium Ltd. fell 1⅛, Canadian Pacific ⅝ and Distillers Seagrams ⅝. Dome Mines rose ½ and Granby Mining ¼.

Prices on the American exchange declined generally. Preston gained ¾ and Scurry Rainbow Oil 1⅛. Fargo Oil dropped 3-16.
