The Story of Henderson and Cudmore

Behind the Henderson and Cudmore firm lies a history that is rich in the tradition of earlier days in Prince Edward Island.

Fifty years have passed since our founders H. Seth Henderson and J. Cudmore first opened their doors in Charlottetown. From that day forward, Henderson and Cudmore has become a symbol of the style and utmost satisfaction wherever fine quality men's wear is concerned.

A firm whose pride is its reputation for integrity, superb quality, master craftsmanship and high sense of customer satisfaction.

Today, Henderson and Cudmore have one of the largest clothing businesses in Eastern Canada, operating a men's store in each of our major cities and a women's store in its own area. A symbol of all that our firm has stood for down through the years.

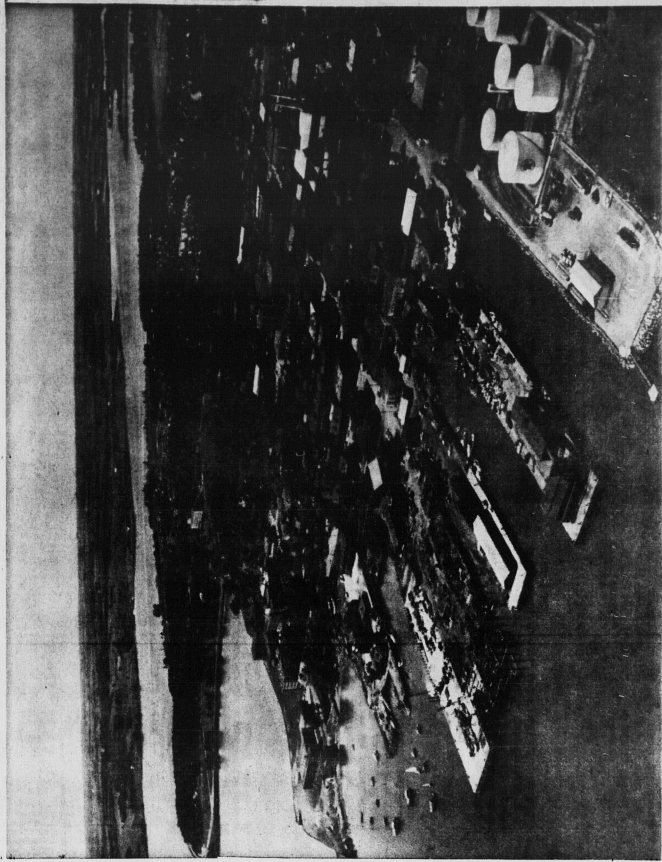

We wish to take the opportunity to thank all our valued customers of Charlottetown and district for making our fifty years in business possible.
