

ISLAND BLIND PEOPLE ENTERTAINED

Some 43 blind people were guests of the Summerside and St. Eleanor's Lions Clubs at a social evening Tuesday in St. Eleanor's. The guests, who were from Charlottetown, Summerside and surrounding areas, were entertained musically and played bingo for prizes. Above, Peter McGarry of Charlottetown (left) and Alphonse Doucette (right) of Summerside, two of the blind guests, tune their fiddles for an old time piece while Herb Schurman (center), president of the Summerside Lions Club, looks on.

DELIBERATES TWO HOURS

Man Guilty Of Robbery Says Supreme Court Jury

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN—A petit jury brought in a verdict of guilty in supreme court yesterday in the case of the Queen vs. Wendell Sherman Francis Grady, Summerside, charged with the robbery of approximately $150 from the person of Gerald Dalton of Bloomfield on the morning of Sept. 23. The jury, with Lawrence Vye of Central Lot 16 as foreman, deliberated approximately two hours before bringing in the guilty verdict. After the verdict had been rendered Mr. Justice G.J. Tweedy thanked the jury "for the conscientious care you gave this case". He then dismissed them until 11 a.m. Monday morning. The judge then remanded the accused in custody until Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 24, at 1:45 for sentencing. After retiring for the first time the jury asked for and received further instructions on two occasions from Judge Tweedy before they rendered their decision.

SUMMATIONS GIVEN—Both the Crown prosecutor, George R. McMahon and defence counsel for J. Maxwell Campbell presented their summations to the jury yesterday morning and Judge Tweedy also addressed the jury members before they retired to the jury room to decide on a verdict. A short while later the jury returned to the court to seek further instructions whereupon the foreman told Mr. Justice GAVE SECOND READING—The jury retired for the second time and following further deliberation, returned on a again for additional instruction at which time the judge was asked "what is the legal interpretation of active participation in such a crime?". Judge Tweedy told the jury that no further interpretation could be given than what was given in section 21 of the criminal code, of which they asked another reading.

The jury then retired for a brief period before returning the verdict. Members of the jury along with Foreman Lawrence Vye were: Vernon McCarville, Kirkcaldy; Sidney Zeman, Northam; Clark Baker, Summerside; RR; Boyd Bearlto, Kennington; J. Leroy Gallant, Summerside; Erwin Dennis, Ellerslie; Victor Innan, St. Eleanor's; Roy H. Johnson, Summerside; Leslie Badole, Summerside; RR; George Jay, Borden.

NORTH—(Continued from Page 1) that a vote on the declaration of religious liberty be called before the end of this session of the council, lest the confidence of the world, both Christian and non-Christian, be lost.

NO DETAILS OF VISIT—There were no details on the visit to the Pope's apartment by the three cardinals. Presumably they saw the Pope and gave him the petition. However, it was possible they simply left the cardinals' panel. By midnight it was not known whether or how the Pope would act.

The 1964 session of the council ends Saturday, The 2148 votes at the day's session were to have cast votes of approval, with suggested changes or rejection on the religious liberty declaration. It asserts freedom of conscience for everyone in following the religion he believes in.

HALIFAX (CP)—The weather office says cloud covered all of the district late Thursday and snow was falling over New Brunswick. An intensifying disturbance was located near Lake Erie and it will move into the Maritimes tonight. This precipitation will bring frosty as snow, but should change to rain in all sections, with short periods of freezing rain in some places. The disturbance will have moved through by tonight, but considerable cloud will remain Saturday.

Regional forecasts: Eastern Shore, Cape Breton, Prince Edward Island: overcast with rain, milder, southeast winds 25, shifting about noon to southwest. Low-high at Goshen 25 and 45. Sydney and Charlottetown 25 and 43. Summerside 25 and 43.

High tide today at Charlottetown 11:25 a.m. and 10:56 p.m. At Ruston at 7:14 a.m. and 3:58 p.m. Summerside tide eighteen minutes later than Charlottetown. Sun rises today at 7:04 a.m. and sets at 4:34 p.m.

also says a state should not interfere with practice of religion so long as the religion doesn't harm the public. North American prelates were the stoutest defenders of the declaration in the Roman Catholic Church, which views itself as the one true religion.

Miscouche Girl Is Injured While Skating

SUMMERSIDE—An eight-year-old Miscouche girl is in Prince County Hospital with a head injury following an accident in Miscouche at approximately 7 o'clock last evening. The child, Marie Rita Caisie, daughter of Ephraim Caisie is believed to have been skating alone in the pond and fell against a moving vehicle. The name of the driver of the vehicle was not available late last night. The accident was investigated by the local RCMP detachment.
