MCKINLEY'S VICTORY.

It is remarkable that President McKinley's recent victory was gained without resort to twisting the lion's tail. In past campaigns this device has been employed, with more or less success, by both parties. But Mr. McKinley will not only refrain from making the customary appeals to the Anglophobists of his country,--he actually ventured to speak--in friendly and complimentary terms of the British people and to pointing out that in the last analysis Great Britain must always prove the natural ally and best friend of the United States. Yet he was elected by a handsome majority; and his opponent, who was the Anglophobists' champion, was elected.

MR. WILSON'S MANIFESTO

The statement made the night following the election by Mr. Lawrence A. Wilson, president of the Licensed Victualler's Association, has not been allowed a place in the government organs of this Province. Here is Mr. Wilson's statement:

"Two hundred thousand liquor ballots were registered for the Laurier government today throughout Canada. For indisputable proof of our work look at the result in St. Lawrence division of this city, where a strong Tory candidate was defeated, although a popular brewer, and, in fact, one who was recently elected by the same people to represent them in the city council; and then again, look at Manitoba, where Hugh John has been also defeated, owing to his prohibitory law.

"Letters and telegrams received during the last three weeks from every section of the country assured me of the silent brotherly understanding on this question--silent, because we feared awakening the fanatical prohibitionists; brotherly, because we all felt we owed a debt of gratitude to a government that was fearful enough to treat the plebiscite vote as ephemeral.

"Most people ignore the importance of the power of the liquor trade and its dependencies, such as the landlords, the furniture dealer, the plumber, the grocer, the butcher, the cigarmaker, all of whom voted with us. I venture to say that whenever our ranks are cemented, as they were during the campaign, we can return or defeat any government. The trade now looks forward to a re-adjustment and a more equitable legislation of the excise and customs laws pertaining to wines and spirits. The law as it stands in the statutes, is inconsistent and unjust, and I have no doubt that we will receive fair play at the hands of the present government; if not, we will be compelled to hand our case over to the opposition for redress. Our politics are bread and butter, first, last and all the time."

MR. FOSTER'S VIEW.

The following statement has been issued by Mr. Foster:

"We have been defeated in New Brunswick--too much Blairism and Tartarism--but we shall send five good men to Parliament to keep alive the honorable traditions of the Liberal-Conservative party in this Province. No better fights were waged than Weldon's in Albert, and McLeod's in York--both on the simple merits of men and questions. Both came near winning, and should have won under anything like fair conditions.

"Don't imagine we are discouraged. Not a bit of it. Laurierism is a skin disease, and like the measles must have its run, but the body politic will surely return to sane conditions. Ontario's condemnation is the grim spectre which haunts the feast even now--a ghostly reminder of what is ultimately in store for the pledge-breakers and the sham purists.

"Many good men have fallen for the moment and public life will lose greatly by the substitution made. Most excellent men, however, have been added to the ranks of our militant parliamentary band which will be ready to meet the victors at Ottawa. Let us draw our ranks close and begin this very day to contest for correct principles, consistent action and prudent administration at Ottawa."

This message to the defeated party, like that of Sir Charles Tupper, breathes the true British spirit. The present abnormal conditions cannot last. A solid Quebec will not forever hold sway over all Canada, nor will a false prejudice, however sedulously installed, prevail long over honor and patriotism.

TORONTO GLOBE: The Government has made a splendid record for itself in the last four years, but we may be sure that it will not sit down with folded hands contemplating its achievements. The next parliamentary term ought to be a period of reforming energy, and of progress in liberalism in the broadest sense.

Now that complete returns are to hand from all sections of Ontario, the overwhelming defeat of the Laurier Government in that province is apparent. These figures tell the tale:

Conservatives elected.....	54
Liberals elected.....	34
Conservative majority.....	20
Independents.....	2
Elections to be held.....	2

At dissolution the Liberal majority was 12.

At Shanghai a few days ago the Union Jack was pulled down and trampled on by a Russian officer. The Russians subsequently apologized.

NEVER TOO LATE

To Try a Good Thing.

I am fifty-two years old and for forty years of that time I have been a chronic catarrh sufferer says Mr. James G. Shing of Allegheny City; with every change of weather my head and throat would be stuffed up with catarrhal mucus.

I could not breathe naturally through the nostrils for months together and much of the time I suffered from catarrh of the stomach. Finally my hearing began to fail and I realized something must be done.

I tried inhalers and sprays and salves which gave me temporary relief and my physician advised me to spray or douche with Peroxide of Hydrogen. But the catarrh would speedily return in a few days and I became thoroughly discouraged.

I had always been prejudiced against patent medicines, but as everything else had failed I felt justified in at least making a trial. Our good old family physician, Dr. Ramsdell, laughed at me a little, but said if I was determined to try patent medicines, he would advise me to begin with Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because he knew what they contained and he had heard of several remarkable cures resulting from their use, and furthermore that they were perfectly safe containing no cocaine or opiates.

The next day I bought a fifty cent box at a drug store, carried it in my pocket and four or five times a day I would take a tablet; in less than a week I felt a marked improvement which continued until at this time I am entirely free from any trace of catarrh.

My head is clear, my throat free from irritation, my hearing is as good as it ever was, and I feel I cannot say enough in praise of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets contain extract of Eucalyptus bark, Guaiacol, blood root and other valuable antiseptics combined in pleasant tablet form, and it is safe to say that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are far superior in convenience, safety and effectiveness to the antiquated treatment by inhalers, sprays and douches.

They are sold by druggists everywhere in the United States and Canada.

J. S. Huggard a rancher, residing at Norse Creek, about two miles north of Baltimore, Md., was shot dead on Wednesday night. No cause can be assigned for the murder.

Liberal Opinion at Sydney.

SYDNEY, Nov. 9.--At a reception given Hon. William Ross at Sydney last night Hon. J. M. Armstrong pronounced President McKinley one of the greatest statesmen of the age. Dr. Kendall also spoke briefly and closed with proposing three cheers for the great republic, after which the party joined in singing the Star Spangled Banner. Not a cheer is reported to have been made for the British empire, or even that God Save the Queen was sung.

---A Moncton despatch says: The little three-year-old child of J. H. Hanington, of Caledonia Road, which strayed away from the house on Tuesday afternoon, was found dead in a field three-quarters of a mile from its home on Thursday. It was first thought that the child had been stolen or carried off by a bear, but the mystery was cleared up when the dead body was found in its father's stump field. From appearance the little one had wandered off and got lost and becoming fatigued had laid down and falling asleep died from exposure during the night.

A combine of trans-Atlantic steamship companies is on the tapis. Details of the deal are carefully guarded.
