Don't Shoot That Hunter

Last year 55 persons were killed in hunting accidents in Canada. The death toll fluctuates from year to year, but there are always tragedies. In 1953, in co-operation with gun clubs, Nova Scotia set up clinics to demonstrate some common and often fatal errors committed by sportsmen in the woods. If you enjoy hunting and want to come back alive, see this picture-story in The Standard this week. Get The Standard — on sale now, complete with Magazine, 12-page novel and 20 pages of comics. ## Chicago And Montreal Win; Bruins, Leafs Tied

DETROIT (CP)—Jack McIntyre scored twice and assisted on another goal as Chicago Black Hawks gained their first victory of the National Hockey League season by upsetting Detroit Red Wings 4-2 Saturday night.

The Red Wings carried a wide edge in play throughout the game, outshooting the Hawks 42 to 13. But goalie Al Rollins played a brilliant game in goal for Chicago and the Hawks made the most of their relatively few scoring chances.

McIntyre opened the scoring at 5:59 of the first period and rookie defenceman Bucky Hollingworth made it 2-0 early in the second period when he fooled goalie Terry Sawchuk with a 55-foot shot.

Mary Pavlich got Detroit's first goal at 13:31 of the second period and Tony Leswick tied the score after 57 seconds of the third. But McIntyre sent the Hawks into a 3-2 lead less than a minute later, and Sullivan, with McIntyre assisting, got the last Chicago goal at 15:39.

MONTREAL, (CP)— Montreal Canadiens went on a scoring spree Saturday night to smother New York Rangers 7-1 in the first meeting of the two teams in the 1954-55 National Hockey League season.

Canadiens win, before a crowd of 14,214, lifted Montreal back to first place over Detroit Red Wings in the league standings. New York remained in third spot.

Canadiens and Rangers meet again Sunday night in New York.

Bernie Boom-Boom Geoffrion led the Montreal romp with two goals. Calum Baldy MacKay, Floyd Curry, Ken Mosdell, Jean Beliveau and rookie Eddie Litzenberger scored one each in the goal harvest.

The lone New York tally went to little Camille Henry, the first goal of the game. It followed a penalty to Paul Meger of Montreal after only three seconds of play, believed possibly an NHL record for the earliest penalty in a game.

The Rangers lost defenceman Allan Stanley late in the first period when he collided on the boards with Curry and suffered a skate cut in his right leg. He went to hospital for treatment.

The game had its rough spots. Canadiens drawing eight of the 15 penalties called, including majors to Maurice Richard of Montreal and Ivan Irwin of New York for fighting.
