CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK

When teeth are so far decayed that they cannot be filled they can be restored to usefulness, beauty and durability by our crown system. Crown and Bridge Work is one of the most beautiful operations in dentistry. Crowns are so useful and so comfortable to the wearer, that he or she soon forgets they are different than his or her own teeth. It is astonishing to see how many roots and teeth that are considered worthless can thus be made good comfortable teeth. Crown and Bridge work with its improve ments, when rightly performed, is scientific dentistry and covers a large number of cases.

We claim to be thoroughly

UP-TO-DATE

in our different branches and our Crown and Bridge Work is made and fitted by ourselves, thereby ensuring perfect results and warranting satisfaction. Call and see specimens of work. Our artificial teeth are guaranteed to give satisfaction in every respect.

"Shabby Old Coat."

West Point was for the last ten years of his life the summer home of General Scott, of whom Mrs. Sherwood, in her "Reminiscences," pleasantly gossips:

The hero of the Mexican war always, on the Fourth of July, wore his old military coat, the one in which he rode into the Mexican capital "on top of a picnic," as he used to say. "Very shabby old coat, madam, very shabby old coat!" the gratified old man would exclaim as he felt a lady's hand laid gently on his army as she asked to touch the sacred cloth. He wore the coat on many historic days and was pleased to shoulder his cane and fight his battles over again.

Once, while telling the story of Arnold's treason and pointing out from the hotel piazza the spots associated with the traitor, he said, referring to Mrs. Arnold's devotion to her husband, "She clung like ivy to a worthless thing."

Dr. Chase Cures Catarrh after Operations Fail.

Toronto, March 16th, 1897.

My boy, aged fourteen, has been a sufferer from Catarrh, and lately submitted him to an operation at the Hospital. Since then we have resorted to Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, and one box of this medicine has made a prompt and complete cure.

Green—I suspect that Gray is making lots of money. He is promoting that concern for the manufacture of left handed wheelbarrows.

Black—Pshaw! A man never gets back the money he puts into such things as that.

Green—Just so. Gray doesn't own any of the stock himself.—Boston Transcript.

Comedy Off the Stage.

It was only a byplay at the theater the other evening, but it was entertaining to a limited portion of the audience.

Behind the little lady with a diminutive hat that had its chief beauty in its amazonian proportions and voluble tongue. In a brief intermission of chattering to those about her she happened to look down and spy the pretty head-gear which was a clear foot below her range of vision with the stage. But it was a tempting opportunity.

"Will you kindly remove your hat?" asked the one in the rear as she leaned forward and spoke in a noisy whisper.

"Certainly," answered the one in front as she made rather a vicious plunge for the anchoring pin. "I will 'kindly' take off my hat. Will you kindly stop your talking and permit us to hear this play?"

For full five minutes there was unbroken silence, but it was a greater self restraint than the large woman could endure, and her annoying whisperings again began. Suddenly the one in front stuck the little hat upon the very summit of her head and pinned it there. It seemed to have grown taller and of greater circumference and looked just like a defiant challenge worked into artistic millinery.

The large woman was too mad to talk, and there was suppressed tittering while those around beamed on the little woman and were sore tempted to give her a hand by way of applause.—Detroit Free Press.

A Plattsville Lady Rescued by Dodd's Kidney Pills, from terrible Danger

Plattsville, Ont., Aug. 29—The Echo, published here, reports the remarkable cure of a well-known lady, Mrs. J. Barnett, who had for years suffered from Nervousness, Rheumatism, Back-ache, Sleeplessness, pains in the head and eyes and general weakness.

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her.

To an Echo reporter, Mrs. Barnett said: "I had no appetite, I could not sleep, I was a physical wreck.

"I was treated by doctors, but their medicine gave me no relief.

"I started taking Dodd's Kidney Pills, and before I finished one box, I had improved noticeably. I have taken twelve boxes in all, and am now completely recovered. I ascribe my recovery to Dodd's Kidney Pills alone."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are a positive cure—the only cure,—for Kidney Diseases of all forms. They have never failed.

A Proper Answer.

"Why," he asked once when they were quite alone and the twilight was deepening into night, "do women always cry at weddings?"

The look of withering disdain she gave him gradually softened as pity took possession of her heart.

"Because," she finally answered, not unkindly.—Detroit Journal.

Chronic Eczema Cured.

One of the most chronic cases of Eczema ever cured is the case of Miss Gracie Ella Aiton, of Hartland, N. B. On a sworn statement Mr. Aiton says: I hereby certify that my daughter Gracie Ella was cured of Eczema of long standing by using four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment. William Thistle, druggist, of Hartland, also certifies that he sold four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment which cured Gracie Ella.
