entirely caught their fancies are the only ones and that is another. Yet with even fair luck most boys and girls trying their first, or even their second or third or fourth love for it.

As a matter of fact, and it is a fortunate thing for great lovers are as rare as great opera singers. Most of capable of experiencing the grand passion than we are Caruso. The best that we can do is to pipe along a trifle make of our little loves comedies and novelettes instead.

CAN LOVE MORE THAN ONCE

Thus it becomes possible for us to love many times sincerely, and there are many reasons for this. One is different people for different reasons. When we are young are ensnared by beauty and gaiety. A boy falls in love with a girl because he is tall, dark, handsome and young. Boys and girls are sure they are meant for each other steps match in the dance. Rarely, if ever, do young people because of each other's intelligence or characters.

But let these first loves come to grief and the boy becomes older. When they fall in love again it is with a different set of characteristics. Then what attracts them is woman's golden locks, what's behind the boy's keen leadership, the liking to do the same things, having the ability to keep each other entertained and amused that in love with each other.

Another reason why we can fall in love more than we change ourselves. As we grow and develop and learn our tastes alter so that those who once appealed to us longer. But we know what we want, and when we find hearts upon it with a fervor that no boy or girl can feel, so often makes a man's and woman's last love the best!
