SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

THE FIRE FIEND AGAIN

PART OF HULL DESTROYED,

And a Part of Ottawa Threatened.

LOSS $500,000 TO $800,000.

Many Families Homeless.

OTTAWA, June 5.

A fire broke out in Hull Court House this evening, while the Circuit Court was in session, and before it could be controlled between 350 and 450 houses were burned, and 2,500 people made homeless. The Catholic Church and the Presbyterian church, valued at $90,000, were completely destroyed. A high wind was blowing at the time, and the flying cinders caused fires to break out in new places, every few minutes. All that part of Hull known as Britannia Street, and the Ottawa River east of the market, was burned over. At one time it was feared that the houses and lumber piles on the Ottawa side of the river would be set on fire by flying cinders. To-night hundreds of families are camped in the open air without shelter of any kind. Prompt measures of relief have been taken and matters are likely to be in good shape to-morrow. Application has been made to the militia department for tents to shelter the homeless. The loss is hard to estimate. It may be $500,000 and possibly $800,000. The insurance will not reach one-fifth of this amount. The origin of the fire is uncertain.

Montreal News.

MONTREAL, June 5.

EX-CONSTABLE BUREAU, the last of the trio of the Grand Trunk robbers, was this morning sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. The Joint Committee appointed two years ago by the Methodist Conference, and Presbyterians, to consider the amalgamation of Church work in poor and sparsely settled parts, held its first meeting to-day at the Presbyterian College. The organization was completed, and a motion adopted that the commission was ready to commence work. The meeting was then adjourned at the call of the joint secretaries. The Montreal Law and Order League has decided to abandon its crusade against objectionable license holders, claiming that under the present commissioners it is impossible to get a License Act administered in a workable and reasonable manner.

News from Ottawa.

OTTAWA, June 5.

The Montreal bucket shop proprietors have taken legal opinion as to the operation of the bill against them, and a plan has been prepared by leading counsel which enables them to transact business without coming under the provisions of the Act. The Marine Department has received notice that the Imperial Board of Trade have cancelled the certificates of Jesse Jones, of Weymouth, and Clarence Cox, of Maitland, master and mate respectively of the Macedon, of St. John, owing to their conviction before the British Naval Court of cruelty and neglect, by which it was alleged several of their crew lost their lives while on a voyage from Philadelphia to Japan in 1887.

The Fisheries.

WASHINGTON, June 5.

Senator Chandler introduced a bill to amend the Fishery Retaliation Act by striking out the words "In his discretion," and also striking out reference to "other products of the Dominion than fish." This would absolutely deny Canadian vessels the right of entry, whenever the President is satisfied that the rights of American's in Dominion ports are abridged, or whenever they are subjected, and would also forbid importation of Canadian fish or salt fish.

I got my wealth by saving; I always worked my way; And I never cared a shoving For "luck" in trade or play. Never drank boys, Nor lived too high, boys, And that's why, boys, I'm a hearty old man to-day. There's the Rapid Ned, who sowed wild oats, (As most young fellows can), Now tramps a beggar on the street Where once he drove a span, Ha, ha, my boys, ho, ho!
