many hundreds I receive each week, was unsigned. It's true that certain departments of a paper will not print anonymous letters but this rule does not apply to columns such as this. The very nature of some people's problems makes them wish to observe anonymity in writing to me, although, as I often state, real names are never used in this column.

DEAR MISS DIX: Please tell me who is wrong. I usually come home and ask my wife if she'd like to go to a show, or go to dinner and she always answers that it's up to me. She makes me feel that the only reason she goes with me is to please me.

ANSWER: Your wife certainly should show some enthusiasm over your projects. She doesn't know how lucky she is to be invited out so often. There is a possibility that she thinks you're only asking to please her, and would actually rather stay home yourself. Try to iron out these differences with her and find out why she is indifferent. Probably it's just that a display of enthusiasm is not natural to her.

Miss Nissen cannot reply personally to readers but will answer problems of general interest through this column.

the magic of greening slopes, of dimpling stream or sea. Beauty? For the farmwife, it yes, for every housewife it now — and ever-lies all about — and above and beyond if she will but "lift eyes," to see.

"A woman in a tenement today. Said, 'Do come and see my view' and led the way To her back door. I saw but dismay. Of backyard rubbish, cans and barrels of trash, And grimed outbuildings flanked by piles of ash.

Dismayed, I turned to her and found her eyes, Raised to a higher level of the skies, In them a look both innocent and wise. 'See how green the hills!' she pointed far, 'And just above you'll find the evening star.'

Before the glowing pleasure of her face Who found the beauty in that lowly place, I humbly prayed that God would give me grace To look above all sordidness and strife And only see the hills and stars of Life." Until Monday --- Diary --- Good-night. . . .

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear Mother, Mrs. Dicie Barrach, who passed away May 2nd, 1950.

Your name is mentioned in somebody's prayer Some one remembers, somebody cares. Morning and evening and all the day through, Someone is thinking dear Mother of you.

We think that the gateway to Heaven Will always be slightly ajar, And the road to that beautiful city Will never again seem so far.

Ever Remembered by "Her Family."

Card Of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the Doctors, Nurses, Staff of the P. E. I. Hospital. I also wish to thank those who sent flowers, letters and cards of sympathy to clergy, friends and neighbours who were so kind and helped in any way during the illness and recent sad bereavement of my husband.

Mrs. Eric C. Pendergast, Hazelbrook.
