

Budding Roses Show Summer's Magic Touch

"And not long ago this place was full of snow!" one of the children remembered...

"It was high above the pickets" another said. "And now the vegetables are in rows" we nodded.

"Fidly marked by green leafings it now is. And amid the few currant bushes there, plants of Solomon's Seal, a hick - in - the - pulpit and more than a dozen pretty columbine have strayed

But now a seedling of corn catch a low breath of wind, pumpkin leaves a - speak a delightful Halloween. Radishes bear to be sampled, the green - gold of leaf lettuce is almost ready for the cutting...

"She was the thirty one!" someone remarked recently when the name of a farm wife long gone, appeared in the chatting. "She never gathered up the lettuce for the Sunday dinner, so as not to lose the church service, so as not to lose the hour's growth!"

"And not a thought of breaking the Sabbath!" another commented soberly. "And all the time this morning, buds on rose bushes that had rooted according to a fancy here and there about the lawn-border and yard, were opening at some strange magic touch."

"This is what we have been waiting for" we said, "the rose tint of the year!"

And Mack, pleased with his

MARY HAWORTH

Son And Young Wife Find Widow A Nuisance

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am at the end of my rope! My husband's mother, an attractive wage-earning widow, 60, with a good personality, is constantly interrupting plans I make.

Often we don't attend social functions because it would be either embarrassing or a bore to go with her alone. Other couples our age in the late twenties find her presence annoying or make jokes about it.

Instead of going to weddings, church events, etc., with friends her age (and she has many friends), she comes along with us.

Recently, just two days before we were to leave on a trip, we were planning for months, a second honeymoon, she announced that she'd obtained leave from work and could go with us. She hadn't been invited.

We were ready to cancel the whole trip but (fortunately for us) she got unexpected guests and stayed home. Things like this happen so frequently that I'm a nervous wreck and so is my husband.

days which, having tucked away textbooks, allow him freedom to join heartily in the fun when we came to the plot which is the near garden.

Social Items Are Requested

This is a wonderfully social time of year!

There are exceptions galore for visiting convention delegates, showers, luncheons and coffee parties for friends - to - be - friends and relatives vacationing here, the prospect of your own vacation to some point outside the province, and those envious summer get-togethers with friends.

Share your social news with readers in the women's page columns. Just call Audrey Jenkins at 4-5806 in Charlottetown. Gail Macree at 6-8331 or 6-5068 (evenings) in Summerside, or the news bureau of The Guardian and Patriot at Montague and Alberton.

There is no charge for publication of such items and our staff will be very happy to help you.

Committee Is Named

Mrs. Robert Howard hosted the July meeting of the Springfield WI when 11 members and three visitors answered roll call. "The Commons" committee reported that the grass had been cut, picnic tables painted and signs put up. It was decided to hire boys to cut the grass in the future. It was also decided to assist in renovating and wiring the school and installing a pump.

Mrs. Reginald Haslam, Mrs. John Hickox, Mrs. John Hagan and Mrs. Crawford Sinclair were appointed to make the arrangements for a Home-made Ice Cream Social which is to be held Tuesday evening July 14th in Springfield Hall.

A contest conducted by Mrs. Gerald Mayne was won by Mrs. Crawford Sinclair.

Next meeting is to be held in the afternoon at "The Commons" when each member is to bring a guest.

Lunch was served by the business and committee in charge.
