PREMIER

Black and White Sale.

For years we have been making new occasions of one kind or another, adding new interest to store life and shopping news right along. White Goods Sales are becoming common (twas not so when we began them here five or six years ago), and besides, we believe in new ideas, new attractions and new goods of all kinds. We will therefore commence our

Premier Black and White Sale

—ON—

Thursday, Feb. 1st.

We realize the necessity of unusual attractions in these wide-awake days, and have therefore been preparing for this sale for several months. It is not a rehash of old goods and remnants, but a smart stock of NEW GOODS purposely purchased for THE PREMIER SALE. All goods will be marked in plain figures.

Band at the Rink Saturday afternoon.

Brick Church.—Conductor McKay in the basement of the Methodist Church tonight.

A. O. H. — There will be a special meeting this evening. A full attendance is requested.

Ward 5 meeting to-night at 8 o'clock in the store of D. R. M. Hooper, Esq., to select candidates for councillors.

Meeting.—A gospel temperance meeting will be held by Conductor Joe McKay, in the Athenæum, Saturday night at eight o'clock.

The County Court.—The County Court will meet to-morrow at 12 o'clock for the delivery of judgments reserved from December term.

To-night.—A lecture will be given on electricity, with experiments, in St. James' Church Hall to-night at 8 o'clock, by Mr. A. E. Morrison.

I. O. O. F—Regular meeting of Wildey Lodge to-night. The initiatory degree will be conferred.

Victoria Hockey Club.- Special meeting to-night at 7.30 in the Y. M. C. A., to consider a challenge from the Charlottetown Hockey Club.

Dr. McLeod's lecture at Y. M. C. A. to-night at 8.30. Subject, Biology. Free admittance to all Association members with their friends.

Police Court. — This forenoon the charge against George Offer was dismissed. Offer was charged with selling liquor in a room not fitted according to law.

Meeting.—A gospel temperance meeting will be held in the Philharmonic Hall on Saturday evening, 27th inst. Conductor McKay will address the meeting. Everybody come. Meeting begins at 8 p. m.

At the Capes.—The boats with sixteen bags of mail matter left Cape Traverse at 9 o'clock and arrived at Cape Tormentine about 1.30. Boats with 32 bags left Cape Tormentine at 11.30. The mail is expected in this city about five o'clock.

Social.—A very successful entertainment and pie social was held in Mount Stewart hall last evening. The programme was made up of vocal and instrumental music, and the after-piece, "Cinderella," and was well rendered. The baskets and pies were auctioned at the close and brought good figures.

The Market.—There was a fair attendance at the market to-day, and there was no material change in prices. Mr. James Burke, of Southport, had a quantity of rhubarb and lettuce (this winter's growth) on sale which was quickly snapped up. The rhubarb sold at fifteen cents per lb. and the lettuce ot five cents a bunch.

Evangelist McKay.—Zion Church was well filled last evening. Quite a number of the city clergy were present. An after meeting was held and several persons stood up for prayer. To-night the meeting will be held in the basement of the Methodist Church at 7.30. Prayer meeting at 7. Don't forget, the brick church. Everybody made welcome.

Marriage Bells. — The marriage of Mr. W. W. Beer, of the firm of Beer Bros., and Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. Mr. Tweedy, was solemnized in the Methodist Church at Hampton, N. B., at noon yesterday. Rev. Mr. Howard performed the ceremony, assisted by the bride's father and Rev. Mr. Desbrisay. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary North, of Hantsport, N. S., and Miss Lillian Dienstadt, of Moncton. Mr. A. S. Johnson, of Charlottetown, acted as groomsman. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and was filled with people. After luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Beer took the train for Halifax, en route to Europe. The Examiner joins most heartily in the congratulations.

Secretary Carlisle has taken the financial bull by the horns and called for offers for fifty million dollars of 5 per cent. gold bonds. The issue will likely be quickly taken, the rate of interest at the price asked being a fair one, and the banks in New York especially having considerable amounts on deposit for which in the condition of trade at present there is no profitable employment. The relief to the treasury, though, is likely to be only temporary, a permanent settlement of the difficulties being only possible after experience has shown how the revised tariff and other revenue measures to be adopted will operate. In the meantime, however, Mr. Carlisle's action will have a beneficial effect on the financial situation.

LETTER FROM AN ELECTOR.

Sir,—The issues to be decided at the civic election to be held on the 14th February, will, to the taxpayer, be the most important since the incorporation of the city, also the most important for many years to come, and as, under the amended act of last session, the Mayor and Councillors will be elected for two years, instead of one, as hitherto, it behoves the electors to bear this new state of things in mind, and when asked to sign requisitions or to promise their vote, to do neither the one nor the other, without first ascertaining the proposed candidate's views on the sewerage question and on election day poll their vote against any and every man who advocates sewerage, or is in any way tainted in that direction, failing to do so they may wake up by-and bye to find themselves carrying a burden ruinous to many and injurious to all.

Why not have a public meeting in the Market Hall to discuss the whole subject and solict candidates openly instead of those private hole and corner ones where requisitations are manufactured and secretly handed round for signature.

Elector.

THE SCOTCH CONCERT.

"Observer" Has a few General Remarks to Make About the Scotch Concert.

Sir,—It has been the custom in the past to speak of each and every performer at our entertainments with local talent, but other matters which add much to the pleasure of spending a couple of hours of our winter evenings need some attention. While we enjoyed a very successful and creditable parformance last evening, I have no doubt the committee could and would again make some improvements in the details. Without feeling I am a fault-finder, there were some things I did not like, and I only write this in order that others may compare notes and if their tastes are similar in these matters to mine, we may have an improvement; but if everybody else was satisfied, then I am content.

The programme executed was too long, and had the three pieces left out been given, it would have been decidedly worse. While the orchestra was very good and much better on the platform than on the floor, there were too many numbers assigned to it. This is only voicing the audience, for as soon as they began playing their fourth number—one of the best—owing to the late hour, I presume—the people began dispersing, and after playing "Auld Lang Syne" there were very few remaining for "God Save the Queen." Two or three of the songs could have been omitted very well. In the singing there were to me one or two voices almost new, only having heard them once or twice before, and which I shall be glad to hear again. With Mrs. J. M. McLeod's singing, this was the first time I heard her, and shall anticipate with pleasure her number on the next programme. Mr. McKay's last selection did not do him justice, his singing "Robert Thompsou's Smithy," even though we heard it before, would have pleased me much better. While the singing in the quartette and trio was good, the latter was much over-acted. Have the Highlanders no songs, as such a piece was conspicuous for its absence? The centre lights should not have been turned out at all, as during the darkness in the early part of the play one could not devour the elegantly-gotten-up programme. However, this was remedied. The broad exit from the Hall is fine, but why were the four doors not open to avoid the crowding? Are the two centre ones for ornament only? On one matter besides the success of the concert I heartily congratulate the chairman, and that is his firmness in allowing no encores. I hope the management of al entertainments in our fine Hall will carefully scan my objections, and take them in the same friendly way that they are intended by
