THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 7, 1889.

Notes and Comments.

—The weather in the Western States has been awful. Frost, snow, cold rains and hurricanes have materially damaged the crops.

—The first consignment of fresh fish over tde Short Line Railway to Montreal was sent from St, John on the 4th inst. It is hoped that this fresh fish business may now be developed into large proportions.

—The following is from Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper:—

"The recent agitation in Canada in favor of commercial union, closer reciprocal relations, and even annexation with the United States, is significant. It is predicted that the triumph of the Liberals in Canada at the pending election would be the triumph of those who favor separation from the mother country, and separation would inevitably lead to secession, and, next, to annexation. So critical is the situation, it is said that Sir John Macdonald shortly expects to visit London and consult with Her Majesty's Ministers upon the subject of Canadian relations with the United States."

How the people of the States are being "stuffed"! It is too bad that we have among us liars and croakers who give vent to ideas such as the above,—too bad that people—even intelligent people—in the States give a ready credence to these ridiculous stories. Time alone will tell what harm the Unrestricted Reciprocity agitators in Canada have done their country. The people of the United States will never be persuaded that the conclusions which they have drawn from the Unrestricted Reciprocity discussion are altogether wrong until we have had another election, and the Liberal-Conservative Party has again been returned by an overwhelming majority.

—The more Queen Square Garden is improved the more hideous does the fence around it appear. Shattered and weather beaten as it is, this old fence contrasts strongly with the neatly trimmed grass plots and well ordered flower beds, and reflects disgracefully upon the Governments owning the public buildings which it encloses, as well as upon the city at large. How is it that the new fence, so greatly needed and so long promised, has not been provided? A committee of citizens communicated, some weeks ago, with the Public Works Department at Ottawa, and telegraphic advices concerning it passed to the Department from the architect here. It was hoped, then, that the work would go on at once. But nothing has yet (apparently) been done. What has happened? Why this prolonged delay?

—We cannot say that the readiness with which many persons in Charlottetown listen to the flippant discourses of ignorant men upon sacred topics and the carelesss indifference which which they hear the name of the Deity bandied about on our streets and in our public halls, is creditable to them as Christian men and women. Such conduct betrays utter thoughtlessness concerning the third commandment, and will certainly be followed by—it may be fearful—punishment upon this or the rising generation. The loss of reverence for the Deity is, rightly considered, the most terrible loss which a community can sustain; and reverence cannot but be seriously impaired when sacred names and things are used as the common stock-in-trade of babblers to whom the people give a ready ear.

—We hear a good deal of complaint on account of the midsummer holidays for our City Schools. Last year the school trustees were generous. Then they were willing to give nine weeks holidays; now they have announced that they will give but seven. We suggest that they split the difference and make the term of holidays extend to eight weeks. It is not probable that the hot weather will be past until August is ended; and the additional week will be greatly appreciated by both teachers and pupils. If the extension be granted, little can be lost to education, while the physical health of the children and their hard working instructors will certainly be improved. The trustees will gain the credit of having done an exceedingly popular act, if they adopt this suggestion, and nine persons out of every ten will say that that they have done right.

— We sympathize fully with the feelings of our correspondent as to the delays in the transport of our mails. But we must be reasonable. If the freight awaiting the steamers at Summerside and Point du Chene, were not promptly moved the Province would lose more and be put to much greater inconvenience than it is by the occasional late arrivals of the mails. It is all very well to talk about getting a steamer like the Stanley. But when the British Government are expending $50,000,000 in the construction of war vessels, when the Anderson's are making contracts for ocean racers, when every ship-builder in Great Britain is fully employed—it isn't easy for the Prince Edward Island Steam Navigation Company to obtain such a steamer. We believe that the Company are doing the best they can do under the circumstances, and therefore, while as anxious as any of our correspondents that the mails shall come early and regularly we cannot join in the slashing condemnation which some persons would visit upon them. At the same time we hope that they will supply an additional steamer of the class required as soon as they can.

A few days ago a mare owned by a gentleman in this city, dropped a handsome foal, which was a phenomenon in its way. Shortly after taking its place on this maundane sphere it sat down on its haunches like a dog and began imitating the barking of that animal in a remarkable way. A veterinary surgeon was called in and administered a drug to the animal, which had the effect of quieting it for a while, but with returning consciousness the foal again began barking and acting like a dog. In this condition it remained for a day or two, when it died. The curiosity is almost inexplainable, but some account for it by saying that previous to the time the mare had foaled, a dog which barked almost continually was kept in the barn with her.—St. John Telegraph.

"MY DAUGHTER was greatly troubled with Scrofula, and, at one time, it was feared she would lose her sight. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has completely restored her health and her eyes are as well as ever, with not a trace of scrofula in her system—G. King, Killingly, Conn.

Farewell Meeting.

THE FAREWELL MEETING TO REV. J. M. MACLEOD LARGELY ATTENDED—ADDRESSES AND PRESENTATION—REGRET AT PARTING.

THE farewell meeting to Rev. J. M. McLeod, held in Zion Church last evening, was largely attended. Rev. James Carruthers presided.

The first address presented was from Victoria Lodge, A. F., . A. & M., of which Rev. Mr. McLeod has been chaplain for the past thirteen years. This address was read by Mr. S. F. Hodgson, G. M., and was replied to in a suitable manner by Rev. Mr. McLeod.

Next came the address from the congregation, read by Hon. David Laird, and which was accompanied by a purse of $412 in gold. The address appears below:—

ADDRESS.

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR, On the 19th July, 1871, you were inducted into the pastoral charge of Zion Church congregation. Nearly eighteen years, therefore, have elapsed since you became related to us by one of the most solemn and responsible of ties. Now that this tie has been severed because you believe that the Master has called you to work in another part of His vineyard, we express our sorrow at the separation, as it is probable most of us will, in the flesh, see your face no more, nor hear again your faithful exhortations.

So far as man can judge, you have shown yourself approved of God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of life. Many, during your spiritual oversight of this congregation, have in this place become members of the church below, and, we trust, also of the general assembly and church of the first-born whose names are written in Heaven.

Under your ministry our congregation has prospered in all its interests. We have enjoyed a measure of peace and good-fellowship that falls to the lot of few societies of professing Christians. Under the blessing of Him who is the Prince of Peace, this happy result is doubtless largely attributable to the fact that you judiciously endeavored to give none offence, either to Jews or Gentiles, or to the Church of God. We, therefore, express gratitude to the Great Shepherd of the Sheep, that for so many years we have had a discreet pastor, who has gone in and out amongst us, setting before us the way of life, ministering at the marriage altar, the baptismal font, and the Communion table, visiting us in our homes, praying with the sick, speaking words of consolation to the dying, and performing the last sad rites at the graves of our dear departed ones. Our shortcomings have been many, and the fruits amongst us small in comparison with our privileges, yet we rejoice to know that your labor has not been in vain in the Lord.

In conclusion, we desire you to accept the accompanying gift as a small token of our regard. We also fervently pray that you and your family may enjoy temporal prosperity and every spiritual comfort; likewise that you may come to those among whom you shall hereafter labor, in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

In the name and on behalf of Zion Church congregation.

Committee.

Charlottetown, P. E. Island, June 6, 1889.

To this address Rev. Mr. McLeod made a lengthy and very touching reply.

Letters of regret at their inability to be present and take part in the proceedings, and expressive of their sorrow at parting with Rev. Mr McLeod, were then read from Rev. Archdeacon Jones, Rev. John Read, Rev. William Harrison and Rev. J. A. Gordon.

Revs. D. McNeill, W. Scott and James Carruthers and T. C. James, Esq., then made short addresses, in the course of which they referred to Rev. Mr. McLeod's long pastorate in this city, and to the esteem in which he was held by the presbytery and by the community at large. Rev. Mr. McLeod replied very feelingly.

This afternoon, at three o'clock, the Executive Committee of the Y. M. C. A presented their address, in the Parlor of the Association. It was read by his Lordship Judge Young and was appropriately replied to.

Rev. Mr. McLeod will leave for his new field of labor, Victoria, B. C., early next week.

Letter from Mr. Carney.

SIR,—How surprising it is that man's inhumanity to man should continue to prevail in a free country where civil and religious liberty abounds. Common fairness seems to be altogether wanting in many persons, especially anonymous newspaper scribblers. If they can stab a man's reputation they deem it unnecessary to resort to honorable means to affect his overthrow. I hope, however, God helping me, to outlive their fiendish malice, and surmount their questionable tactics. The latest charge against me, viz.—Plagiarism—is an unfounded statement. On the afternoon in question, I distinctly said at the beginning of my discourse (as many will attest) that I would not, as usual, base my remarks on a scriptural text, but would quote a recent article from the pen of Minot J. Savage, of Boston, as a foundation of what I had to say. I then quoted briefly from the article referred to, extending on the points raised. In giving a synopsis of my discourse to THE EXAMINER, as the gist of my remarks.

The accidental omission of Mr. Savage's name in the review, has given some evil disposed and venomous person the opportunity to impugn my honesty. I can produce many persons who were in the audience that will gladly corroborate my statement. But in closing I have only to say that the disposition inherent in many of my pretended friends appears to be in striking contrast to that enjoined by the Savior of the world.

Very respectfully,
J. F. CARNEY.

That Bible Puzzle.

SIR,—"Old Correspondent" answers the bible puzzle in a kind of a way and then he winds up by insinuating that some person else is the author of it. Does "Old Correspondent" think because he himself could not sit down and write it that a Falconwood boy could not do it.
