

IN MEMORIAM

MRS PARKER DELANEY

A deep gloom of sadness was cast over the homes of her loved ones and the community of North Tryon, where for her life time she had been a resident, when in the early part of September 20, 1954, God called home the soul of Mrs. Parker Delaney in her 63rd year. Although Mrs. Delaney had been in ill health for the past year, she bore her trials with a calm fortitude knowing that she would be united with the loved ones gone before and that she would see her Saviour face to face. After committing her loved ones to God's keeping with the words of the Shepherd's Psalm on her lips, she went home with a smile on her lips and a song of praise in her heart supported by the prayers of her large family who gathered about her bedside to bid farewell to their darling.

Unknown to a month before her passing she was able to help in the light activities about her home. Mrs. Delaney was the former Minnie Ethylene MacNeill, daughter of the late Thomas MacNeill and his wife Elvina Curtis. She was a member of the North Tryon Presbyterian Church where when as a young girl she professed her faith in Christ. Because of her motherly care at home she was unable to take an active part in the work of the Church for a number of years, but in recent years she renewed her trust in God and since that time took great interest in the activities of the Church she loved.

Mrs. Delaney was the mother of sixteen children, four of whom predeceased here in infancy. Besides her sorrowing husband there were left to mourn five daughters and seven sons, namely: Golding, Moncton; Novella; Mrs. Herman Clow, Myra; Mrs. Eric Trowade, Summerville; Elmer, Toronto; Velda; Mrs. Milton Carr, Summerville; Doris; Mrs. Elmer Slavin, Bedeque; Denzil, Summerville; Heath, Charlotte; Leroy, Summerville; Beverley, Summerville; Blair, at home. Several grandchildren and one great grandchild survive her. She also leaves to mourn the following sisters and brothers: Cora MacKenna, Breadalbane; Mrs. Earl MacDonald, Mount Tryon; Mrs. Guy Austin, Toronto, Ontario; Elmer, Summerville.

A private funeral service was held at the home on September 23, 1954, followed by service in the North Tryon Presbyterian Church. The service was conducted by Rev. J. H. Bishop assisted by Rev. Lawrence Blakie both of whom had visited her at home and hospital. Mrs. Clayton Thomas presided at the organ and accompanied Mrs. John MacQuarrie as she sang "Beyond the Sunset" which was requested by Mrs. Delaney before her passing. A full choir lead the singing of favorites of the deceased, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Abide With Me." The choir sang "Unto The Hills" as the remains were borne from the Church to the last resting place. Mr. Bishop took as his topic "Death has no sting for our Dear One has fallen asleep in Jesus," chosen by her son and based his discourse on words taken from 1st Corinthians Ch 15-55-57 who developed his thought on the joy to be shared for those who live a Christian life and are truly prepared to face death without fear for there is victory over the grave through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The many floral tributes were a fond token of esteem and love that was felt by those who knew and loved her. Eighteen relatives and friends provided an escort of honor from the Church to the Graveside as the remains were lovingly laid to rest by her six sons as pallbearers, namely: Golding, Denzil, Heath, Leroy, Beverley and Blair.

With a cherry smile and a silent prayer she entered into an unknown Land. But we think of her here as she was before. She only waits on the other shore.

Following are the floral tributes: Pillow, The Family. For Pillow, Joe Gates Ajar, Grandchildren, Crescent, Erma and Ralph Hogg, Wreaths, Novella, Herman and Family; Canada Packers Limited; Office Staff, Canada Packers Limited.

IN MEMORIAM

J. FRANK CULLEN

The death occurred in the Charlotte Hospital on September 21st of John Francis Cullen in his 50th year. Frank, as he was familiarly known was born in Hope River, a son of John Cullen and Mary Landrigan. He received his early education in Hope River School and later attended St. Dunstan's University. Singly gifted in a mechanical way he was a valued employee of Horne Motors for twenty years, being foreman of the Mechanical Department for ten years, a position which he held until ill health forced him to retire three years ago.

He developed a heart condition, as a result of having rheumatic fever in boyhood, and in spite of medical skill and loving care he gradually weakened and on the above mentioned date his gentle spirit passed into Eternity, fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which he was a devout member. He was consoled during his long and trying illness by frequent visits of hospital chaplains and Rev. Reginald Phalen. His Christian fortitude and resignation to the Divine Will was most edifying.

Of a jovial disposition his friends were always greeted with a smile and although he suffered greatly he was never heard to complain, even to the last. His death, in the very prime of life and leaving a young family, has caused widespread sorrow but it is in the home, where he was always to be found with his family, that he will be most sorely missed.

Besides his sorrowing widow, there remain Mille McKenna, he leaves to mourn his loss and cherish his memory five daughters and two sons; namely Elaine, Anne, Mary, John, Kathleen, Elmer and Carol, the youngest being only three years old. Also left to mourn is his mother, Mrs. John Cullen, Hope River and four sisters, and four brothers; May (Mrs. Walter Reid); Margaret, (Mrs. Tom Reid); Rita, (Mrs. James Reid) of Hope River and Agnes, (Mrs. Elmer Campbell) Ottawa, Ont., Leo, Boston, Mass., Leonard, Toronto, Ont., William, Dovercourt, England and Damian, Hope River.

His largely attended funeral was held on Thursday, September 23 to St. Dunstan's Basilica with Requiem High Mass celebrated by Rev. Reginald Phalen, who also performed the service at the grave.

The Pallbearers were: Messrs. Ivan Horne, Frank Haughey, Mac Nicholson, Elmer McKenna, Lloyd Simpson and Francis Reid.

A very pleasant social evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MacKenzie, Little Pond, Sept. 3rd, when friends and neighbours gathered in honor of Mr. MacKenzie's sister, Christelle who was to take her departure shortly to enter the novitiate of the Precious Blood, Charlotte-town.

During the evening an address was read by Miss Kathleen Macdonald and a purse was presented by Miss Eileen Macdonald. Christelle made a fitting reply thanking one and all for their kindness and generosity.

Lunch was served by the members of C. W. L. Music and dancing were enjoyed by all present. Dear Christelle: "Leave all and follow me." You have heard these words and have answered their call.

It gives us great pleasure to gather here tonight to honor you on the occasion of your departure to become a novice with the Sister Adorers of the Most Precious Blood.

God has blessed our parish with many vocations throughout the years and we trust and pray that He will give you strength to fulfill the duties of your holy calling.

We have always enjoyed your pleasant disposition, and will have fond memories of your sunny smile and cheerfulness. As you kneel before the tabernacle daily, we trust that you remember the parishioners of Little Pond in your prayers.

We ask you to accept this little gift. With it go our fondest wishes that God will bless your labours in His vineyard.

Feel Certain No Canadian Goods Going To China

OTTAWA, (CP)—Canadian trade officials said Thursday they are practically certain no Canadian goods are going to Red China via European Iron Curtain countries.

The reason, they said, is that Canada's sales to Russia and her European satellites are comparatively small—little more than $3,000,000 in the first six months of this year—and does not include war-potential goods.

One official said, however, some Canadian goods may be reaching Red China through smugglers out of Hong Kong. Canada exported almost $4,500,000 worth of goods to Hong Kong in the first six months of this year, mostly wheat flour, newsprint and automobiles. Included in the list was $278,000 worth of Canadian fountain pens.

An external affairs spokesman said he's not surprised at reports from London that Russia and her European satellites are buying war-potential Western goods which Red China could not purchase directly, and then re-selling to the Red Chinese at a profit.

But, he said, it is believed here they are mostly exports by western European countries.

Thoughts For Our Time

By His Eminence Cardinal McGuigan (Copyright)

NOTHING ELSE FILLS VOID IN OUR HEARTS

The popular songs are right. It's love that makes the world go round. Without love, life would not be worth living. We were made to love; but very often the popular songs sing out just one type of love, while there are many kinds. There is the love of parent and child, husband and wife, friend and friend, God and man. The greatest love of this is God's love for man. It is this which has led God to create us and redeem us and give us all the other loves which can make our lives happy.

The beings below man were not made to love. It is knowledge and love which put man above the lower creation. A truly human life is characterized by loving and being loved. Without this a man cannot be happy.

What was not obvious was what and how we should love. For that reason God spoke to us through the patriarchs and prophets and then through His Son to tell us what manner of love would make our lives happy. In both the Old and New Testaments we read: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with thy whole mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment."

It is man's love for God that will make man's life happy, both in this life and in the next. For this reason our Lord added a promise, "Do this and thou shalt live." It is, therefore, necessary and sufficient for happiness, that a man love God.

Words Not Enough

Is it not easy to love God? Don't we just have to tell God now and again that we love Him? Won't He be sufficient to prove that we love God, and sufficient to make our lives happy? Definitely not. I have no desire to stress the difficulty of loving God. But nevertheless to tell God that we love Him is not necessarily a proof that we really do. We seem to be in an age of indulgence when so many think they may do whatever they fancy, and then placate the infinite justice of God with a few half-hearted words of repentance or short-lived attention. They are living in a false security.

God Himself has given us a test whereby we may know whether we love Him. "He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth Me." "This is charity, that we keep His commandments, and His commandments are not heavy." "Let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in deed and in truth."

We must have affection for God. We must tell Him that we love Him. But this is not enough. We must have a love which carries itself out in deeds. If not, it is not sufficient for our salvation. If we said we loved our neighbors, and did nothing for them when they needed help, how much love would we have?

"If a brother or sister be naked and want daily food, and one of you say to them: 'Go in peace, be you warmed and filled, yet give them not those things that are necessary for the body, what shall it profit?"

If we tell God that we love Him and yet, puny insignificant creatures that we are, refuse to obey His omnipotent loving Will, we are in reality insulting the almighty God, and do not love Him at all.

"By their fruits you will know them. Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of Heaven; but he who
