Vancouver Stock Exchange Moves To New Site Nov. 30

By JACK BRAUKMANN
 VANCOUVER (CP) — The Vancouver Stock Exchange, now in its new quarters at 1100 Burrard Street, moved today to its new quarters at 1100 Burrard Street, Vancouver, B.C., where it will be in operation by the end of the year.

Montreal's Canadian exchanges as No. 4.
 The move to new quarters three times as big as the present location were preceded earlier this month by record-breaking trading.
 VSE handled 3,212,518 shares Nov. 6 compared with 4,500,000 the same day for the Toronto exchange, which usually handles about eight times the volume of Vancouver.
LARGE FLOOR PLANNED
 The new $500,000 headquarters of the Vancouver exchange will have a trading floor with twice the capacity of the present one and a 118-foot quota floor board to replace the 98-foot one now in use.
 Cooled circuit television cameras will relay board listings to local brokerage offices within 10 seconds of trading—a modern move for a growing exchange that still is small enough to utilize the classical floor board to replace the 98-foot one now in use.
 The VSE had an even dozen members when it opened. It now has filled 50 seats.

Banker Suggests Measures To Ensure Future Expansion

accused changes Pleas At Courtes
 TORONTO (CP) — Business conditions should continue to improve next year, but it is time Canada started considering measures to ensure appropriate future expansion, Mr. William Nicks, chairman and president of the Bank of Nova Scotia, says.
 Writing in the bank's annual report, Mr. Nicks says some business analysts have been suggesting economic expansion in both Canada and the United States may begin slowing down in the last half of next year.
 "Thus, while it may be a little early yet for expansionary fiscal action in Canada, it is not too early to begin considering measures best suited to helping the appropriate expansion we must achieve in the years ahead."
 Mr. Nicks calls for some serious thought about the relation between tax policies—the real motivating forces for our economic growth—and the general desire for more Canadian participation in domestic growth.
 "Whatever we do, we must be careful not to choke off the vital flow of initiative, know-how and investment from whatever source it may come."
FOUND NEW WAYS
 "But we must also, by appropriate tax reductions and other incentives, find ways to enlarge the pools of savings available for equity investment by Canadians in Canadian enterprises."
 Development of Canada's advantages "will not be helped by
