

Highfield W.A.
Presents Show

A screamingly funny "Baby Show" was one of the highlights in the variety concert put on by the Highfield W.A. in Winsloe Station Hall on Thursday evening. The antics of the "babies", in best infant attire, and the efforts of the anxious "mothers" to keep them neat and happy until applause of the convulsed audience elected a winner will long be remembered by those present.

The parts of the "Mothers" were played by Charles MacArthur, Lloyd Gillespie and Alex Robertson with their respective "babies" Frank Thompson, Albert Loughran and Dannie Clark.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was the well known entertainer "Dick" Turpin of Charlottetown, who, in his inimitable style, kept the show moving and his witty remarks added immensely to the enjoyment of the concert.

The program consisted of readings by Dougie MacArthur, Mrs. Donahue of Cornwall and Mr. Turpin; vocal solos by Ena Chown, Eugene Donahue of Cornwall and "Dick" Turpin; Piano solos by Allan Rodd of Milton and Allan Dunbar of Charlottetown; Violin solo by David Thompson; a trio by Wayne and Marvin Gillespie and Preston Jenkins and a darky song by Irving Frizzell, Chalmers Newson, Dannie Clark and John Stearns.

Characters in a one-act play "Mid Service" were Mrs. John Weeks, Mrs. Dannie Clark, Mrs. Irving Frizzell and Mrs. Bentley Creed.

Contributing greatly to the success of the concert were the selections given by the Orchestra comprising, Violins, Ralph Gay, Norma Gay and Janet Gay, Trumpet, John Stearns, Piano, Shirlee Stearns.

The chairman, Rev. Dr. E. A. Betts, introduced the master of ceremonies to the audience and at the close of the performance, on behalf of Highfield W.A., extended heartiest thanks to Mr. Turpin and each and every one taking part. Accompanists for the evening were: Mr. Allan Dunbar, Miss Norma Gay, Mrs. Stillman Frizzell and Mrs. Gordon Macmillan of Cornwall.

God Save The Queen closed the evening's entertainment.
