MISCELLANEOUS.

President Lincoln's Last Speech.—We find the following highly interesting article in the Richmond Whig of April 13th. Mr. Lincoln was then in the fallen rebel capital, and the Whig relates the proceedings, from which it appears that good "Old Abe" made his last public speech in Richmond, from whose haughty emmences he had torn the standard of rebellion. The Whig says: "The workmen at the Washington Navy Yard, marched in procession Tuesday afternoon to the Executive Mansion, where they were joined by a large crowd, with which was the Quartermaster's Band, and, after a salute had been fired by the howitzers. several national airs had been played by the band, followed by loud and prolonged cheering, the President made his appearance amid tremendous applause. After order was restored he spoke as follows:—

"I am very much rejoiced, my friends, in the fact that an occasion has occurred so pleasurable that the people find it impossible to refrain from giving vent to their feelings. (Applause) I suppose that arrangements are being made for a formal demonstration either this or to-morrow evening. (A voice—That's too late.) Should such demonstration take place, I, of course, will be expected to respond, if called upon, and if I permit you to dribble all out of me now, I will have nothing left to say on that occasion. (Laughter and applause.)

"I observe that you have a band of music with you. I propose having this interview closed by the band performing a particular tune, which I will name. Before this is done, however, I wish to mention one or two little circumstances connected with it.

"I have always thought that Dixie was one of the best tunes that I had ever heard. Our adversaries over the way, I know, have attempted to appropriate it, but I insist that on yesterday we fairly captured it. (Applause.) I referred the question to the Attorney General, and he gave it as his legal opinion that it is now our propersy. (Laughter and applause.) I now ask the band to favor us with its performance."

The band immediately complied amid the cheers of the crowd.

Wiping out their Ancient Grudges.—England and France, unless they are conspiring to throw dust in the eyes of the world, are engaged in the grateful task of wiping out the mutual grudges of former days. This is their jubilee year by the calendar. Fifty years have elapsed since Waterloo. And they seem to be eager to celebrate the epoch of peace in the presence of the world. Nothing can be more proper than this. They had a horse-race the other day at Epsom, at which the French horse Gladiateur, was enabled, by good English jockeyship, to carry off the honors. There was on that occasion a blending of business, sport, science, happy political augury, peace, and politeness, such as is rarely witnessed in the progress of rival nations. Now—in a few days—they are to have a grand mutual naval demonstration, as announced by yesterday's European mail. All the French iron-clads are to sail round the British Islands, from John O'Groat's to Land's End, taking an entirely peaceful survey of the small but valuable piece of property they contain. All the British iron-clads, at the same time, are to sail round the coast of France as far as there is water communication to go by. And then there is to be a general rendezvous of the fleets at Plymouth. Nothing can be more gratifying to the outside world than this. It shows that the empire means "peace"—near at home, if it should happen to mean "war" in Mexico.—New York Times.

How the Rack was Abolished. — Torture, applied to extort confession, was discontinued, it is said, in the public courts in Portugal, in consequence of the following circumstance:—

"A conscientious judge having observed the effects of the rack upon supposed criminals, in making them confess anything to the sacrifice of their lives, to get released from the torture, determined to try an experiment. It is a capital crime, in that country, to kill a horse or mule, and he had one of the former which he much valued. He took care, one night, to have all his servants employed, so that no one but the groom could get into the stable. When all were fast asleep in their beds, he stole thither, himself, and cut the horse so that it bled to death. The groom was apprehended and committed to prison. He pleaded not guilty, but the presumption being strong against him, he was ordered to the rack, where the extremity of the torture soon wrung from him a confession of crime. Upon this confession, he had sentence of hanging passed on him, when his master went to the tribunal and there exposed the fallibility of confession obtained by such means, by owning the fact himself, and disclosing the motives which had influenced him in making the experiment."

True Nobility!—A Momentous Question!—All work, even cotton-spinning is noble. Work is alone noble. "Be that here said and assertde once more," so Carlyle says. But we must remember that there are degrees in nobility. The highest nobility is the nobility of beneficence. An honest man, says the poet, is the noblest work of God. We have no hesitation in extending the apothegm. The noblest work of God is the man who is not only honest, but who does the greatest good. The greatest of all temporal blessings is health. And as the mental condition is controlled by the physical, the effects of health can hardly be regarded as terminating with a mere temporal benefit. Then who is the greatest of all human benefactors? He, obviously, who enables us to restore health that has been deteriorated, and to preserve health that is good. The secret of restoring and preserving health has been the greatest aim of the modern philanthropist, as it was the philosopher's stone of the ancient alchemist.

The secret has been discovered, the discoverer proving himself thereby not only the greatest philosopher, but the greatest philanthropist the world ever saw. The question, "Who is he?" has been asked by millions, and answered to them, and they have rejoiced. Professor Holloway has conferred more blessings on humanity than have all the soi-disant social reformers and pseudy-philanthropists the world ever saw. The fame of his Pills and Ointment has penetrated to the remotest confines of the earth, and their use has diffused health and all the happiness that follows health over countless households. From the ice-bound capes of Lapland to the sunny shores of the Mediterranean, from the hoary summit of the Ural mountains to the Eastern shores of the Atlantic, there is not a city, town, or village of note, in which they are not met with. The missionary takes little else in his medicine chest; the sailor never needs a more varied supply for his They are peculiarly adapted to the diseases incidental to all climates. They have never failed here nor elsewhere. Friends, we indulge in no exaggeration; we defy contradiction, because we state what we know to be true. If you are ill, try these medicines, and then say whether our statements are baseless. We are confident of your decision—Boston Bee.

The First Paper Money.—A friend hands in the following interesting facts, which he came across in his reading:—

During the war in Spain, with the Moors, in the year 1485, the Count de Tendilla was besieged in the Fortress Alhama by the Moors. The Count was destitute of gold and silver to pay his troops; the soldiers murmured greatly that they had not the means of purchasing necessaries from the people of the town. In this dilemma he issued little bits of paper, on which he inscribed various sums, both large and small, signed with his own hand and name, promising to redeem them at a future time with silver and gold. Thus by a miraculous kind of alchemy did the Count turn worthless paper into precious gold, and make his impoverished garrison abound in money. The Count de Tendilla redeemed his promises like an honest knight; and this miracle, as it appeared in those days, is the first instance on record of paper money, which has since inundated the world with unbounded wealth.

[Extracts from Newspapers.]
On reference to a return made to Parliament, and ordered by the House of Commons to be printed, 7th June, 1861, it will be seen that the increase of Duty for the year, paid by the "QUEEN," was £2567, being upwards of £1000 more than paid by any other office ever yet established in this City.
[From Gore's General Advertiser, Oct. 24, 1861.]
"Indeed, we believe that we are perfectly justified in saying that no other Company, within the same period, ever attained so large an income in either the Fire or Life Departments as the Queen Insurance Company. In making this statement, we make no exception even in favor of our older local companies, namely, the Liverpool and London, the Royal, and the Lancashire Insurance Companies."
[From the Civil Service Gazette, Nov. 2, 1861.]
"Among these important institutions stands eminent for its solidity, as well as for its success, "the Queen Insurance Company," which last week held its annual meeting of proprietors in Liverpool. A reference to the ample report in another page will fully satisfy every reader of the signal progress made by this association since its foundation. Such success is, indeed, rarely attained, and it attests at once the excellence of its management, and the public confidence in its constitution."
[From the Liverpool Mercury, Nov. 2, 1861.]
"It must be gratifying to the public generally, and especially to the proprietors, to find that its income during the past three years has increased at the rate of £20,000 per annum. We believe that no other Company, within the same short period, ever attained so large an increase either in the Fire or Life Department. This speaks highly for the activity and zeal of the management, while the promptness with which all the claims, arising out of the late disastrous fire in London were met, testifies itto their financial ability and the care and prudence which marked the investment of these funds."

MOUNTAIN HERB
PILLS.
The Manochan or Great Medicine.
THESE PILLS have now been thoroughly tested and have maintained the highest character everywhere; they have the wonderful power of restoring to health persons suffering under all diseases arising from
and as the Blood is the life when pure, so it is when corrupt the source of nine-tenths of the diseases which afflict mankind.
The following are among the distressing variety of diseases in which the Pills are invaluable:
Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints—General Debility, Loss of Appetite and Diseases of Females,—the Medicine has been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description.—King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of this most remarkable Medicine. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.
Dyspepsia, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Langour and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish as a natural consequence of its cure.
Costiveness, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence: all violent purges leaves the bowels costive within two days.
Fevers, of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.
Scurvy, Ulcers and Inveterate Sores, by the perfect purity which this Medicine gives to the blood and all the humors.
Scorbutic Eruptions and bad complexions, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy and other disagreeable complexions.
The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of Salt Rheum, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. Common Colds and Influenza will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.
Mercurial Diseases — Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find this medicine a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.
☞ The Plants and Herbs of which these Pills are made were discovered in a very surprising way among the Tezucans, a tribe of Aborigines in Mexico. Get the Almanac of our Agent, and you will read with delight the very interesting account it contains of the "Great Medicine" of the Aztecs.
OBSERVE—The Mountain Herb Pills are put up in a beautiful Wrapper. Each box contains 40 Pills, and retailed at 25 cents per box. All genuine, have the signature of B. L. Judson & Co. on each box.

SELF-PRESERVATION.
PRICE WITH ENGRAVINGS AND CASES, 1s 6d., BY POST, 3s. CURRENCY.
SELF-PRESERVATION: A popular Essay on Nervous and Physical Debility, resulting from injurious habits contracted in youth, or excesses in maturity, which, by prematurely exhausting the functions of manhood, destroy the happiness of Married Life, or prevent the fulfilment of engagements that constitute the most cherished objects of existence.
By Dr. La'Mert, 37 Bedford Square, London, Licentiate of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh; Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, England, &c.
The above work contains most useful and interesting information on the physiological changes which occur in the Reproductive System during the periods of youth, puberty, and manhood; and on the due attainment of that degree of functional vigour upon which the hopes of posterity depend. It also points out how all the attributes of manhood can be preserved to an advanced period of life, how they are lost, and how they can be recovered. It is free from the gross exaggerations, alarming descriptions, and dangerous remedies so generally resorted to by persons, who, practising with false medical qualifications, inflict most serious injuries, and render judicious treatment frequently abortive.
The author is the only legally qualified practitioner whose name stands on the 'Medical Register,' (the sole test of medical qualification) who has been exclusively engaged for a series of years in the treatment of the various functional disorders of the nervous and reproductive system, which, owing to the great discoveries of modern science, are rendered subservient to a rational, simple and easy mode of treatment.
At home for consultation daily from ten till two, and from six till eight, either personally or by letter—37 Bedford Square, London, England.
Patients residing in the Colonies can be successfully treated by correspondence, and remedies can be forwarded in secresy and safety to any address.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.
By Royal Letters Patent, under the special sanction of Her Majesty's Government, and the Chiefs of the Faculte de France.
THERAPION:—or CURE OF CURES, This successful and highly popular medicament, as employed in the continental hospitals by Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed. Devoid of taste, odour, and appearance of medicine, it can be left or carried anywhere, and taken from time to time without exciting suspicion Each package contains full instructions for every case.
THERAPION, No. 1, in three days only removes gonnorrhœ, gleet and all discharges, effectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the bowelower, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief, where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.
THERAPION, No. 2, for syphilis, disease of the bones, sore throat, threatened destruction of the nose and palate; impurity of blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth; and ruin of health. Under this medicine every vestige of disease rapidly disappears; and the skin assumes the pleasing softness of infancy.
THERAPION, No. 3, for relaxation, spermatorrhœa, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated. To those who are prevented entering the marriage state by the consequences of early error, it will render essential aid by subduing all disqualifications; and restoring the lost tone to the system. Therapion may be procured at 11s, and 33s per package, through all medicine vendors, or in £5 packages for foreign shipment, direct from London only, by which £1 12s are saved; and £10 packages for the more inveterate cases, by which a still greater saving is effected. In ordering the above, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires.
Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners have graciously permitted the Government stamp, bearing the word "Therapion" in white letters, to be attached to each package; thus insuring the public against fraudulent imitations, and securing to the proprietor the sole right of supply throughout her dominions; and any infringement of which they will prosecute with the utmost severity.
Agents for England, Thomas & Co., 7, Upper St. Martin's-lane, London; Raimes & Co., Liverpool; Apothecaries Comp., Glasgow; Ferris & Co., Bristol; Cornish & Co., Plymouth; Rowe, Devenport; Randall & Co., Southampton; and obtainable through all medicine vendors in the known world, or in case of difficulty, by enclosing a draft or order for £5 or £10, according to the nature of the case, payable in London to Messrs. Thomas & Co., as above, a large package will be sent by return mail, carefully secured from observation or accident.

The Cause and Cure of Premature Decline.
Sold by all the Agents for Dr. De Roos' Medicines, or sent post free, secure from observations direct from the Author, for 2s 6d.
THE MEDICAL ADVISER on the modern treatment of mental and physical incapacity, syphilis, stricture, &c.; with unfailing rules and prescriptions for the speedy cure, by very simple means, of all the more common diseases and supposed incurable maladies of the sexual system. By Dr. W. De Roos, M. D, &c, of the Ecole de Medicine, Paris.
REVIEWS AND NOTICES.
"The MEDICAL ADVISER, by Walter De Roos, M. D., for the class of diseases upon which it treats is undoubtedly the best and most soundly practical book which has come under our notice. The author is a man of most enlarged experience." —North of England Teegraph, June 29th, 1861.
"To those who contemplate marriage its perusal is especially recommended.—Bap. Mag.—"The knowledge it imparts must come some time, and happy they who do not possess it too late."—Politician.—"Cure is certain in every curable case, and few indeed are they which are not so."—Med. Review—"It is calculated to effect a complete revolution in the treatment of these complaints."—Med. Gaz.—"Simple and inexpensive, every sufferer may cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible cost."—Scalpel.
From long practical observation of the treatment pursued in the most famous Institutions of this country and the continent, for those diseases referred to in the above work, the Proprietor has had somewhat unusual facilities for acquiring that uniform success which has hitherto characterized his practice; in which the distressing consequences resulting from the injurious employment of mercury, capivi, sarsaparilla, and similar dangerous medicines are entirely obviated. Lasting benefit in these cases can only be reasonably expected at the hands of those who devote their chief attention to such diseases, and to such only can confidence be safely extended. Dr. De R. refers with pride to the numbers he has been instrumental in restoring to health and happiness, whilst to all who need such aid he offers every assurance of speedy restoration.
Foreign Residents can be successfully treated by correspondence, on sending the detail of their case, with a Bank note or Bill on a London house for £5 or £10, in order that a package of medicines to meet the exigencies of the case, may be sent out by next mail, thus avoiding the protracted suffering and unnecessary loss of valuable time, which must otherwise occur.

DR. DE ROOS' GUTTÆ VITÆ or LIFE DROPS; Protected by Royal Letters Patent of England; Seals of the Faculte de France, Royal College of Prussia, &c, have in numberless instances proved their superiority over every other advertised remedy for Spermatorrhœa, languor, lassitude, depression of spirits, irritability, anger, excitement, needless fear, distaste and incapacity for society, study or business; indigestion, pains in the side, palpitation of the heart, giddiness, noises in the head, impotency, impediments to marriage, &c. This medicine strengthens the vitality of the whole system, gives energy to the muscles and nerves, the speedily removes nervous complaints, renovates the impaired powers of life, and invigorates the most shattered constitution. For skin eruptions, sore throat, pains in the bones, and all those diseases in which mercury, sarsaparilla, &c. are too often employed in vain, to the serious detriment of health, its surprising efficacy has only to be tested to be appreciated.
As these complaints if neglected become chronic or incurable, sufferers will do well before they waste valuable time in seeking aid from instruments, and other absurdities professing to supersede medicine, to make fair trial of a remedy, which concocted on unerring scientific principles, cannot fail, and may be carried about the person, or left upon the toilet table, without exciting a suspicion of its nature. Price, 11s, and four times the quantity at 33s per bottle. The £5 packages containing twelve 11s quantities, by which a saving of £1 12s is effected, will be sent from 25, Bedford Place, only on receipt of the amount per draft on a London house or otherwise.

PAINS IN THE BACK, GRAVEL, LUMBAGO, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &c. DR. DE ROOS' COMPOUND RENAL PILLS are a most safe and speedy Remedy for the above dangerous complaints. Discharges and Diseases of the Urinary Organs generally, which too frequently harass the sufferer for the best years of life, and end only in an agonizing death. They agree with the most delicate stomach, and in three days effect a cure when capivi, cubebs, &c., have utterly failed. 2s 9d, 4s. 6d., 11s, and 33s. per box. The superiority of these celebrated medicines over everything of the kind, is universally acknowledged, and the extraordinary demand for them without precedent.
Many there are, who from natural diffidence or fear of discovery, would silently bear their affliction rather than apply for aid to those from whom they may reasonably expect relief. With the above remedies the sufferer may without the knowledge of a second person, cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible expense.

McCoubrey, Esq., St. John's, Newfoundland; Thomas Walker & Sons, St. John, New Brunswick; Lyman & Co., Toronto; Lyman & Co., Savage & Co, Montreal; of whom also may be had "THE MEDICAL ADVISER," or should difficulty arise in procuring any of the above, enclose the amount by draft or otherwise, to 25 Bedford Place, Bloomsbury Square, London, W. C, and they will be sent securely packed per return.
CAUTION.—Sufferers should guard against the recommendation of useless imitations by dishonest vendors, who thereby obtain a larger profit. The genuine have the words "Walter De Roos, London," printed in white letters on the Government Stamp, by order of Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, to imitate which is felony.
