Stresses Value Of Doing At King's 4-H Club Rally

MONTAGUE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
"Learn To Do By Doing" was the theme of an address by Mr. David Peacock, Director of Field Work, P.E.I. Dept. of Agriculture, at the first 4-H Club Rally to be organized in Kings County and held at the Cardigan Legion Hall, Saturday, August 23rd. Over three hundred 4-H Club members attended and participated in the program organized by Mr. David Peacock, Kings County Agricultural representative.

The chairlady of the rally, Miss Yvonne Gallant, Souris 4-H Garment Club who was introduced by Peacock, told the members of the important role they were playing in their community by becoming better citizens through the co-operative work and training of 4-H work.

The morning program consisted of a "mixer", conducted by Miss Jeanie Gillis, Dept. of Agriculture, Charlottetown, a singing contest, in which seven members between the ages of 14 and 20 participated. The winner of the division was Elmer Hynes, Summerville, who spoke on "Credit Unions". Mr. Hynes also won the silver tray, donated by the P.E.I. Dairymen's Association for the best speaker for the day. The tray was presented by Mr. Peters

Look For Top Attendance At Cardigan Blood Donor Clinic

According to a report just received from Mr. Albin Brothers, Chairman of the Red Cross Blood Donor Committee for the Cardigan Branch of the Canadian Legion, a very large attendance is expected at the Blood Donor Clinic to be held at the Cardigan Legion Hall this Wednesday afternoon. Members of the Women's Institutes, Catholic Women's League and Legion Ladies Auxiliary have met with an enthusiastic response.

Cardigan held its first Blood Donor Clinic last summer when the objective of 100 was exceeded by a considerable number at an afternoon clinic. This year's Clinic is again in the afternoon, and the objective is the same, but Mr. Brothers feels quite confident that the results will be even more successful than last year and that Cardigan will be "in the running" for the coveted "Manning Trophy".

Legion-Sponsored Clinic At Souris Reported Promising

Arrangements are now finalized for the annual Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic to be held in St. Mary's Hall at Souris on Wednesday evening, August 27th, between 8 and 10 o'clock. This clinic is again being sponsored by the Souris Branch of the Canadian Legion under the chairmanship of the President, Mr. Joseph Hennessey.

This year's objective for the Souris Clinic is the same as last year's - 175 and Mr. Hennessey yesterday ventured an optimistic guess that this year's results will be as good - if not better than last year - when the objective was somewhat exceeded.

The later hours of this year's clinic which do not begin until 8 and go on until 10, should make it more convenient for the donors in rural areas who find it difficult to get out earlier in the evening.

Retired Peter's Road Man Dies

PETER'S ROAD — There passed away at the home of his sister at Peter's Road on August 23rd, William Archibald Johnston, in his 77th year.

Mr. Johnston spent the most of his life in Northern Ontario and after his retirement some five years ago, returned to his native province.
