

MR. GLADSTONE'S health, according to latest accounts received, is improving.

THE coal trade of Nova Scotia is reviving—thanks to the N. P.—and activity in the mining counties of that Province is daily on the increase.

THE Annual Prize Meeting of the members of the Provincial Rifle Association takes place at the Kensington Rifle Range in this city on Wednesday, the 18th inst.

THE MERCHANTS of the Upper Provinces are anticipating an excellent fall business. Ottawa advices say the orders for goods by leading houses in that city are largely in excess of any year since 1874.

SIR GARNET WOLSELEY is likely to be appointed to the chief command of the British forces in India. If the late disaster to the British forces is to be avenged, Sir Garnet is the man for the post.

LATEST despatches inform us that the Irish Compensation Land Bill has been rejected in the House of Lords on a division of 282 to 51.

DR. TANNER will, to-morrow at noon, complete his self-imposed task of fasting forty days. A New York despatch gives the following particulars of how he spent the thirty-sixth day:—From 2 to 3 o'clock Dr. Tanner spent his time dozing on his cot.

A TERRIBLE FALL—A sad accident and one probably fatal in its results, occurred at the Exhibition Building, St. John, on Wednesday. A young man named William A. Osborne, of Portland, was engaged in placing a rafter in position, he missed his footing and fell through the interior of the building to the ground.

The Court House Clock.

Sir,—Last evening about a quarter past ten I was called to go a short distance in the country on account of sickness. Driving down Grafton street to the thoroughfare leading to the Malpeque Road, and wishing to see if my timepiece was correct, I glanced in the direction of the new clock, only to find it in complete darkness.

Yours &c., LIGHT.

Summerside Items.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The Lewis-Potosky Dramatiques performed in Ludlow Hall, here, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights of last week, to fair audiences. They visited Alberton on Monday and Tuesday. On Friday evening they will again perform Uncle Tom's Cabin in Summerside.

A mass meeting of the inhabitants of the town took place in Ludlow Hall on Monday evening last, for the purpose of considering the best method of putting the Canada Temperance Act in proper working order. Rev. J. H. Collins occupied the chair. Short and pointed speeches were delivered by the Rev. Neil McKay, Hon. W. G. Strong, Rev. T. S. Richey, R. R. McC. Stavert, Esq. and Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Kingston. At this meeting a Prince County Temperance Alliance was formed, with some forty-five members.

The members of "Prince Edward" Lodge, I. O. O. F., are making preparations to receive and entertain the brethren attending the session of the Grand Lodge, which meets here on the 11th inst.

The Canada Temperance Act came into force in this County on Tuesday, the 3rd August last. The friends of Temperance are jubilant over the fact, and well they might.

The Fairbairn family will give an entertainment in Ludlow Hall on the 18th inst. Tuesday, the 10th inst., will be observed as a holiday by the Banks in this town.

The FASTER.

DR. TANNER will, to-morrow at noon, complete his self-imposed task of fasting forty days. A New York despatch gives the following particulars of how he spent the thirty-sixth day:—From 2 to 3 o'clock Dr. Tanner spent his time dozing on his cot. He was very excited and refused to talk with any of his visitors. At 3.30 he drank some ice water, and said he felt considerably refreshed. At 4 p. m. the faster was sleeping, but a few minutes later he was awakened by the loud talking of some of his visitors. He appeared to be much annoyed, and refused several persons to talk.
