MES C. MCGUIGAN

There passed peacefully away in the Kings County Hospital, Monague on Tuesday, August 23rd, 1955, Mr. James C. McGuigan, 95, St. Mary's Road, in his 65th year. Mr. McGuigan was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McGuigan, St. Mary's Road. Most of his life was spent on St. Mary's Road except for a few years in his early life spent in the U. S. A. Although having suffered a heart attack two years ago he was able to be about until a little more than two weeks before his death when he entered hospital where he received all possible medical care but God having willed otherwise he died fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church of which he was a devoted member.

Left to mourn the loss of a tender and loving husband and father was his wife the former Annie Murphy, two sons Theodore, St. Mary's Road and George, Oshawa, Ontario; daughters Mildred, Mrs. James McGee, Sturgeon; Margaret, Mrs. Eric Gauthier, Charlotte; Martha and Mary, Oshawa, Ontario; several grandchildren and three brothers Christopher, Ernest and John, all of St. Mary's Road.

The esteem in which he was held was clearly testified by the many friends and neighbours near and far, who came to pay their last respects following his death. His funeral which was very largely attended took place at St. Paul's Church, Sturgeon where Requiem High Mass was sung by his beloved pastor Rev. F. L. Mullaly. Rev. J. W. McCordle was also present in the sanctuary. Rev. F. L. Mullaly conducted the services at the grave where the mortal remains of a devoted husband and father, a beloved brother and grandfather, a man blessed by a host of friends, a true servant of God were laid to rest. Requiescat in Pace.

The pall bearers were Mr. William Daley, James Daley, Jerome McCarron, Hughie MacDougall and his two sons-in-law James McGee and Eric Gauthier.

In Memoriam

MRS. ALDEN GAMBLE

On September 14, 1955, Mrs. Alden Gamble (nee Reta Wallace) of Cascumpec passed from this life after an illness which began more than a year ago and came to an end in the New England Deaconess Hospital, Boston, where she had been a patient for three weeks.

The eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wallace, she was born at Cascumpec twenty-five years ago. In 1952 she was married to Alden Gamble. Besides her husband and her parents, she survived by a little son, Ronald Elmer, aged one year; two brothers, Henry and William; and one sister, Helen Wallace.

Reta loved her home and her church. To each she quietly contributed much that was worthwhile and in doing so she found happiness. During the long months of illness she received affectionate care from her family, comfort from the ministry of the church and the fellowship of friends, and skilled treatment from kind physicians and surgeons.

An unflinching Christian faith gave her an inner peace which manifested itself in patience and good cheer and enabled her to approach the end of her earthly journey with serenity and the hope of all true believers, in her heart.

The funeral from the home of her parents on September 17, was conducted by her minister, Rev. Murray Gardner. Hymns were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "The Sands of Time Are Singing." A duet, "Shall We Meet Beyond the River" was sung by Miss Helen Bryan and Mr. Alvin Ashley. The theme of Rev. Mr. Gardner's message was "The Comfort of God." The text was "Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted." (Matthew 5:4)

MARITIME MINE

MINTO, N.B.—Diesel-engine drag lines lay bare the coalseams of Minto, N.B. Increased industrial activity in New Brunswick has kept bright the otherwise gloomy picture of Maritime coal mines and mine officials predict there will be jobs for 600 miners with the opening of new shafts. Meanwhile the draglines work on the edge of 77-foot trenches as surface miners shove the bared coal into waiting trucks. (CP Photo)

KENSINGTON A.Y.P.A.

The regular meeting of St. Marks A.Y.P.A. was held in the hall Monday evening. Vice president presiding. The meeting opened with a hymn. Bible reading was by Clayton Mill. Prayer was led by the Rector. A report was given concerning the communion breakfast, which was a decided success. It was moved and seconded that all bills be paid.

Card of Thanks

Wife and family of the late James C. McGuigan wish to thank Rev. F. L. Mullaly, Rev. J. W. McCordle, Dr. J. P. McIntyre, nurses of Kings County Hospital all kind friends and neighbours, and all those who helped in any way in our sad bereavement.

PAKISTAN COTTON

KARACHI (CP)—Pakistan's cotton crop in the current year is expected to reach 1,850,000 bales, or about 200,000 bales more than the previous year. Bigger foreign sales were forecast.

WARNING

THE FIRE PREVENTION ACT

The general public, storekeepers in particular, are being warned that the possession of the following fireworks: Jap torpedoes, toy caps, Chinese crackers, rockets and salutes are prohibited.

Police have been instructed to seize and confiscate any such fireworks.
