The Throne Speech

Critics were predicting that the Speech from the Throne delivered by Governor General Vanier yesterday would sound much like the one he read in the same august chamber nine months ago.

Invidious Distinction

Will psychiatric care be paid for under the same arrangements as physical illness in the proposed federal-provincial medical insurance scheme?

Barrow's Victory

Contrary to almost all forecasts, Premier Errol Barrow of Barbados has won a signal legislative victory in his campaign for independence for the lovely little island.

Check On Rain-Making

February first is a red letter day in American history. From that day onwards private enterprise rainmaking is forbidden except by permission of the National Science Foundation.

Our Yesterdays

Hitler and Mussolini conferred. Speculation was that German aggressive action in a new direction, independently or to bolster Italy was imminent.

Car Insurance Issue

The Ontario section of the New Democratic Party has issued a pamphlet setting forth the superior claims of compulsory government car insurance over the commercial policies now on the market.

and provincial superintendents of insurance for this as long as 1957. In the second place, the record of jurisdictions with government-run insurance operations makes a mockery of the NDP view that anything business can do, government can do cheaper.

In New York State, there is a compulsory insurance law—but no government insurance office involved in issuing policies. Yet five years after introducing it, the state motor vehicle department has added 650 employees just to police the program.

OTTAWA REPORT

Would Protect Canada In Water Deal

Non-Alvin Hamilton, our former Minister of Agriculture and now chairman of the Conservative policy committee, described to me his imaginative and far-reaching blueprint for more jobs and more riches for Canadians.

Peaceful New Invasion

Corregidor is being invaded again. This time the intruders carry cameras instead of guns, and wear colorful Philippine shirts instead of khaki.

Removing Blood Clots

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen. Vascular (blood vessel) surgeons can remove clots, ream out hardened plaques, dilate arteries, and by-pass obstructions with plastic grafts.

NOTES BY THE WAY

Veteran beauty contest judge Midge Arthur said in Toronto the other day: "You want a girl who can represent your country and speak for you intelligently."

Viet Nam Bomb Pause

WASHINGTON (CP) — Resumption of American bombing of North Viet Nam will clearly signal the end of the current United States peace campaign, it is assumed here.

Removing Blood Clots

When a clot (embolus) breaks loose in the bloodstream and settles in an artery of a leg, the life of the foot is endangered unless the obstruction is removed.

Removing Blood Clots

Many drugs are used to relax the involved vessel to improve the circulation in nearby arteries, and to prevent the clot from extending.

Removing Blood Clots

No, because heart murmurs are not produced by infected tonsils. The murmur is caused by rheumatic fever, however, taking out infected tonsils may help to prevent recurrence of the original disease.

Removing Blood Clots

Hepatitis is a liver infection and is not caused by the use of alcohol. Nevertheless, when the disease is present, alcoholic beverages should not be taken as they aggravate the condition.

Removing Blood Clots

The liver may be damaged by infection, toxic substances, and malnutrition. Chest pain needs investigation. (NOTE: All correspondence to Dr. Van Dellen should be addressed to: Dr. Theodore Van Dellen, c/o Chicago Tribune, Chicago, Illinois.)

Removing Blood Clots

It wasn't the first time that island defenders had suffered defeat. Armed to its crest during the Spanish-American war, Corregidor was one of the islands which Admiral Dewey was forced to deal with in the 1898 Battle of Manila Bay.

Removing Blood Clots

IS VICE-PRESIDENT OTTAWA (CP)—Fernand L. Girard has been appointed executive vice-president of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters and he is expected to open a new Montreal office of the association about April 1.
