

Bruins Gain First Victory In 2-0 Win Over Leafs

BOSTON (CP) — Winger Lorne Ferguson slammed home goals in each of the first two periods as Boston Bruins gained their first National Hockey League victory of the season with a 2-0 shutout over Toronto Maple Leafs Wednesday night at the Boston Garden.

Ferguson, a 20-goal scorer last season, poked in a rebound of a shot by Bill Quackenbush at 5:29 of the first period, and then tallied unassisted on a 30-foot slap shot at 16:30 of the second session.

Goalie Terry Sawchuk turned in a sparkling performance in the Boston goal to earn his first shutout with the Bruins. The former Detroit netminder made 23 saves, many of them outstanding, while Toronto goalie Harry Lumley tol-led only 11 stops.

Before the game, Sawchuk was presented the Vezina Trophy by NHL president Clarence Campbell. Sawchuk, obtained from Detroit during the off season, won the trophy for allowing the fewest number of goals three of the last four years with the Red Wings.

SHAKE-UP PAID OFF

The Bruins, stung by defeats in their first two games against Montreal Canadiens, shook up their defence and it paid off. Rugged Leo Boivin was outstanding while pairing with Fernie Flaman, and Bob Armstrong played a steady game on the ice with Bill Quackenbush.

Both teams played a close-checking game, resulting in a total of 14 penalties being handed out by referee Red Storey.

The rugged play became heated in the first period as the Maple Leafs attempted to overcome the two-goal deficit and Storey dealt out seven minors to maintain order.

Penalties: Flaman 4:47, Nestereko 9:27, Bolton 13:12, Bonin 13:48, Nestereko 19:44.

Third period: Scoring: None. Penalties: Bolton 5:30, Bonin 5:54, Nestereko 14:04, Boivin 16:33, Bob Armstrong 16:33, Mi-gay 16:33, Boivin 19:33.

Saves: Sawchuk 23, Lumley 11.

"New Look" Saints Meet Acadia Here On Saturday

The men hardest hit at every College graduation are always the football, basketball or hockey coaches.

The Graduation Exercises at Saint Dunstan's University last spring were little different in this respect than usual. They left only three seasoned players around which coach A.J. MacAdam was striving to build a new S.D.U. squad for action in the 1955 competitions.

When the Saints take to the field here on Saturday afternoon against Acadia University they will be practically a whole new team from that which brought the Maritime Intercollegiate Championship and the McCurdy to Saint Dunstan's a year ago.

Gene are the Reardon's, the Gaudel's, the Jay's, the Mooney's the Dorais' and the Ryan's who spearheaded the Saint Dunstan's march to Maritime rugby supremacy during the past several years.

And in their place there will be a new group of players almost half of whom answer to the name of MacDonald. There are no fewer than six MacDonalds on the Saints lineup this year and S.D.U. supporters are crossing their fingers and hoping there won't be another Glencoe.

It is not likely there will be any laughing at S.D.U. football teams. The Saints, as they showed last Saturday against the Nomads are always a tough club to beat.

both of whom have graduated to the senior club from the intermediate team.

Donnie MacDougall at picking quarter and John R. MacDonald the flying quarter will be depended upon to get the Saints back into the top in U.S. College competitions this year not because of their experienced players but because they were still Notre Dame.

Saints coach A.J. MacAdam figures that his players will have to hustle and play heads up all every inch of the way on Saturday to hold Acadia University in their first game of the Maritime Intercollegiate League.

Acadia flashed loads of power last weekend in wallowing Nova Scotia Tech. 31-0. The powerful Acadians, guided by the old master strategist Fred Kelly, played a fast running wide open game. The three Saint Dunstan's holdovers from last year's football team are forwards Lewis MacDonald, Arnold Mullins and backfielder Rodney MacInnis who has been converted into the club's fullback.

MacDonald and Mullins are aggressive forwards who gave a splendid account of themselves last season and last Saturday against the Nomads.

Newcomers to the Saint forward line include Joe Revell, who learned his football at Prince of Wales College; John Paul Russell, who is one of the fastest men on the team; hard tackling Alex MacDonald and John F. MacDonald.

Gordon Pirie Winner Of 10,000-Metre Race

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Gordon Pirie and Ken Norris Wednesday night ran the great Emil Zatopek into the ground on the last lap of a gruelling 10,000-metre race before a crowd of 36,000 at the White City Stadium.

Pirie, 10 years younger than the 34-year-old Czech Army colonel, won in 29 minutes, 19 seconds, Norris finished second about 15 yards behind. Then came Zatopek—winner of four gold Olympic medals and holder of a long string of world records—a weak third 50 yards behind the elongated Pirie.

The race was the highlight of a warm but foggy October night with hardly a breath of wind. Pirie was a thrilling contest on a warm but foggy October night with hardly a breath of wind. Pirie was a thrilling contest on a warm but foggy October night with hardly a breath of wind.

Red Strong Man Out In Front

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Vladimir Nikolai Stogov sent Russia away in front in the world weightlifting championships Wednesday night by winning the bantamweight title with a world record lift of 335 kilograms (737 pounds).

The 24-year-old athlete bettered by 20 kilograms the previous official world mark held by Mahmud Namd Jou of Iran.

En route to the title in tonight's only event, Stogov also hung up a new world mark in the two-hand press with a lift of 107 kilograms (235.4 pounds). The lift bettered by one kilogram the seven-year-old previous mark set by Joe de Pietro of the United States.

In 212 1/5 in harness racing here Wednesday night, he finished third to a local entry, Ben Brooke C. in a companion dash. Scotty Dolly of Saint John was the only double winner.

Single victories were scored by Elsie Federal, Monty Budlong and Applejack, all from Saint John; Panama Chief, Union Mills, and Morris Direct, Gagetown.

When the Liverpool Cubs defeated the Salisbury Flyers 8-1 last Saturday to win the Maritime Intermediate Softball championship they scored only two earned runs.

The Salisbury defenses were wobbly, probably due to the long lay-off, and they committed five miscues all of them costly. The Salisbury hitting was also below par. The rest the Salisbury batters could do against the youthful Liverpool pitcher Bud Weifer was collect four singles. Two back to back singles in the third inning produced the lone Salisbury run.

It will be remembered that the Salisbury team defeated the Sunshine Island Dairy Club for the N. B. P. E. I. Softball Championship. The Dairy won the first game at home but then dropped the remaining two contests on the Salisbury field. The results of the Maritime play-offs indicate that City softball players have come a long way during the four seasons the City League has been operating.

The City Softball League had a modest beginning four seasons ago. We remember watching the first game on the Upper Queen Street Diamond and it was anything but a spectacular affair. However an enthusiasm for the game plus keen rivalry and good organization over the years have brought City players to a point where they are about ready to knock on the doors of Maritime Championship. As they used to say in Brooklyn "Wait till next year."

And while still on the subject of softball it might be a good idea to throw a bouquet at Percy Gay, the sponsor of the Sunshine Dairy team. Percy was one of the first to organize a team when the league was formed back in 1952. Led by the pitching of the Ballam Bros. the Dairy were always league leaders but as the old saying goes they were always a bridesmaid but never a bride. They came close to winning a championship every year but never quite made it while suffering a number of heart-breaking losses.

But like Robert Bruce and the spider Percy stuck by the game. Each year he entered a club in the City circuit for as he used to say: "It's great fun for the boys. Why would we do without the league?"

Percy collected his share of the silverware and there were few happier to see him win the honors than the players who had played against his club all season. Every guy in the league desperately wanted to win the softball championship for his team. Yet when the Dairy clinched the championship those players were the first to congratulate Percy and his club. They knew that Percy had spared no effort in his attempt to win the coveted championship. And they knew it couldn't happen to a much nicer guy.

Kellert, part-time Brooklyn Dodger first baseman who was at bat when Robinson stole home on the disputed play, revealed to Sports Illustrated that Yogi Berra really tagged Robinson before his slide reached the plate.

Umpire Bill Summers called Robinson safe. Kellert said he thought that was an error, but he didn't say anything at the time. Kellert, sold to Chicago Cubs Monday, and who lives here, said he had a close-up view of the play. Berra bitterly protested Summers' decision on the play in the eighth inning. Manager Casey Stengel also came out to object. "It was a close play, but I had him easy," Yogi said later in the dressing room.

Robinson said he was safe. "No doubt about it in my mind at all," Kellert said in his mind at all.

And Kellert said he was thanked all around: from Robinson for helping cloak the play by standing in light at the plate and making Berra react across for the tag. And by Berra's smart swinging at the ball and probably whipping the New York Yankee catcher on the head when he lunged for Robinson.
