

TRAWLER ON FIRE AT SEA

TORBAY, Nfld.,—A Portuguese fishing trawler identified only as LX-3-N burns off the coast of Newfoundland, about 100 miles from Cape Race. The trawler was spotted Monday by a U.S. Navy Neptune on a flight from Argentina, Nfld., to the Azores. Later an R.C.A.F. Lancaster plane, from which this photo was taken, reported the crew had abandoned the vessel and had been picked up by other Portuguese trawlers in the area. (CP Wirephoto from National Defence)

King's Co. Potato Growers Suggest Processing Plant

FORTUNE—A meeting of King's County potato growers here last night went on record as asking the parent body—the Potato Growers' Association of Prince Edward Island—to look into the feasibility of having a processing plant for potatoes in King's County.

The meeting suggested the processing plant question be discussed next Friday at the general meeting of the Association scheduled for Prince of Wales College Hall.

The meeting last night, held in the hall here, was attended by only slightly more than a dozen persons.
