Leafs, Red Wings Shut Out In Saturday Games

TORONTO, Oct. 26—(CP)—Boston Bruins, figured to be around come Stanley Cup time, didn't have much of that polish of champions Saturday but were good enough to wallop Toronto Maple Leafs 4-0 and move into a fourth-place tie in the National Hockey League.

The Bruins' defence held on to give goaltender Jim Henry his first shutout of the 1952-53 season. The win gave Boston a total of seven points for their six games thus far and left them deadlocked with the Leafs—three points off the pace of the leading Montreal Canadiens.

It was a dull game and gave the crowd of 13,397 little to cheer about.

MONTREAL 9, DETROIT 0

MONTREAL, Oct. 26—(CP)—Montreal Canadiens slaughtered Detroit Red Wings 9-0 Saturday night before an amazed but jubilant home-town crowd of 14,538.

The scoring deluge was believed the worst ever suffered by goalie Terry Sawchuk of the Wings, now in his third full season. At the same time Gerry McNeil of Canadiens earned his first shutout of the current campaign.

The runaway win broke a triple tie for first place in the National Hockey League standings but both the Wings and Chicago Black Hawks had a chance to catch up tonight while Canadiens were idle. Sawchuk had 45 shots blasted at him, stopping 36. McNeil made 25 stops. The Wings drew three of the seven minor penalties but none figured in the scoring.

Native Dancer Being Retired

BALTIMORE, Oct. 26—(AP)—Native Dancer is retiring as undefeated two-year-old champion money winner to rest for an assault on racing's triple crown next year. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt announced Thursday.

Pimlico had hoped the outstanding colt would race in its futurity Nov. 1.
 "I would love to run him in the Pimlico Futurity," Vanderbilt said, "but we feel Native Dancer has done everything we need to know. He has established a money-winning record for two-year-olds and shown he can run a distance."
 Native Dancer accomplished these two objects yesterday by winning the 1-16 mile East View Stakes at Jamaica Plain. The victory, his ninth straight, increased his earnings to $230,495.
