JACKETS

No such a range of Dress Goods was ever seen in our Dress Goods Department. A leaning to roughness is conspicuous. Camel Hair effects mostly in plains and pretty plaids, fuzzy, fleecy and almost lumpy, just the thing for our climate at just the price to suit your purses.

FURS

No such a showing of Furs has ever been seen on Prince Edward Island.

We are the leading Fur store of P. E. Island and we have eclipsed our former reputation.

Any lady that buys a Fur Jacket without seeing our stock is not doing herself justice, over 250 Fur Jackets to select from at P. E. Island's Greatest Fur Store.

MILLINERY

We expect our London and Paris Trimmed Millinery in next week.

Never before was our stock more beautiful—but it's the beauty of quiet richness rather than of glaring prominence. To be brief it's a happy collection of real art wonders whose variety and elegance will surprise, and the low price delight you at Tomorrow night's concert will also be given.

THE BONAVISTA.—The steamer Bonavista, of the Black Diamond Line, arrived from Montreal about nine o'clock last night with a good freight and a large passenger list. She left early this afternoon for St. John's, Nfld, via Sydney. A COMING ATTRACTION.—If there is one word more than another that should be prefixed to the title of Chas. H. Yale's "Forever Devil's Auction" this season, that word is "new" for this season the "Devil's Auction" is not only new in every feature but it is interpreted by new people; in fact, as Mr. Yale tersely expresses it, "You may have seen the Devil's Auction, but you have not seen the Devil's Auction of this season."

PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION.—The first exhibition since 1897 is going to be the best since the beginning of exhibitions. Aside from the exceptionally fine range of exhibits being made, the special attractions will be of a high order. The magnificent pyrotechnic display is laid out elaborately, and will contain such things as a colossal portrait of Lord Roberts; figure of a British soldier with Union Jack and revolver; mammoth terrace of fountains of fire, balloons, Jacob's ladders in mid-air, and many other wonderful sights. The celebrated aerial trapeze-equilibrist Auguste Dewell and Kelly and Ashby, the comedy actors, have been engaged and will add to the excellence of this year's fair.
