S'side Ladies Curling Club Annual Meeting

Mrs. Cecelia Campbell was re-elected president of the Summerside Ladies Curling Club and Mrs. Muriel MacArthur was re-elected vice-president at the annual meeting held on Monday evening at the Curling Club.

Other officers also re-elected were Neva Corney as secretary treasurer and Anna Hayes as chairman of the games committee.

It is proposed to open their curling season this year about the last of November. It was also decided to have a special pin for the ladies division and designs were looked over for the selection of a tartan plaid.

BLANCHARD-ARSENAULT WEDDING - A very pretty autumn wedding was solemnized on Oct. 4th at St. Anthony's R. C. Church, Bloomfield, when the Rev. M. J. Rooney officiated in the holy bonds of matrimony.

After Mass breakfast was served at the bride's home in Howland. At noon the bridal party and members of both families accompanied by Rev. Fr. Trainor of Lot 7 were served a delicious goose dinner at the home of the groom's parents.

The bride chose for her evening costume a dress of navy tulle with a white rose corsage with pearl earrings and necklace while the bridesmaid wore rose tulle with a white corsage.

After every one had been served a grand supper, the gifts were opened and the accompanying cards read by Mrs. Henry Perry of Charlottetown, aunt of the bride.

Previous to their wedding the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Perry of Charlottetown where she received many beautiful gifts.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother was gowned in grey with a corsage of lilies of the valley while the groom's mother wore a rust colored dress with a dahlia corsage.

Dr. A.S. Murray of New Richmond, Que. and Dr. A.E. Murray of Halifax are sons. A daughter, Dr. Florence Murray M.D.C.M., recently returned from Korea where she has had a long and distinguished service as a missionary doctor of the United Church.

She will be the special guest speaker in the O'Leary United Church on Sunday morning, Oct. 22nd and in the afternoon at the Richmond Bay East pastoral charge and in the evening at Alberton.

REPORT SOME (Continued from Page 1) deep significance. The Public Works Department alone had some $100,000,000 set aside for wharves, harbours, post offices and other projects in communities from Victoria to St. John's, Nfld.

The curtailment policy will lead to greater availability of materials and labor for much-needed defence construction. It also will exert pressure on prices and discourage inflationary tendencies.

The civilian construction curtailment policy finds favor with the construction industry. In Toronto today the Canadian Construction Association, with 800 member firms urged that all Governments - Federal, Provincial and municipal - cut their civilian public projects by half.

BRITAIN MAKING (Continued from Page 1) erous gifts and loans received by Britain since the war, but the figures nevertheless were very impressive.

Since the devaluation of the pound the United Kingdom has doubled her reserves, and has multiplied her exports five times since the end of the war.

Among evidences of industrial progress is the fact that British jet planes are now the front line airplanes for no less than fifteen nations.

Formerly on the staff of the News Chronicle, London, and a regular contributor to The Economist Mr. Huson is a lawyer by profession. After serving as a Major during the war he was posted to Washington for three years as economic information officer.

Making his first visit to the Maritimes, he is giving a series of addresses on "The Rebirth of Britain" in Halifax, Saint John, Fredericton and St. John's, Newfoundland, under the auspices of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

He expressed the hope that next summer he would be able to return to the Island with his family for an extended holiday.
