MIDDLE HEAT
Eula's middle heat erased the former track record held by John R. Braden, 2:07 1/2, by three-quarters of a second. The tracks then were several seconds slower and the performance of Eula II would be better than 2:05 on the Charlottetown track at Old Home Week. The writer knows all about that because when time ceased to be the standard for placing horses and money winnings look over, we remember in 1938 working on the Charlottetown track and Silk Girl, a trotter from Halifax, set up a new record of 2:09 1/2, and it has since been reduced by Watchin to 2:07 1/2, trotting, and Bud Wenger set the pacing record at 2:05 1/2 and it has since been reduced to 2:05.

Eula II was retired to a brood mare ranks when through a dental fall. In the table of dams 10 for 1953, one of her daughters, races and finished second and Direct third twice. Owner Derald Maher found that, instead of liability, Pete had increased his bank account by $9,445. The seven-year-old

Girls Hockey Practice Today

Coach Rolly Roberts and manager Ken MacLean are holding a one hour workout at the Sports Arena this evening at 8:00 p.m. for all girls of the City and surrounding areas interested in playing High School or Senior girls hockey this winter. If enough girls show interest by turning out, officials of the City's Minor Hockey Leagues have stated their willingness to operate a girls league over the winter months. A full attendance is required at this evening's workout.
