McNally & Dixon capture top athlete awards

UPEI Athletic Banquet review

BY SCOTT MACDONALD

In what was undoubtedly one of the fastest awards banquets of all time, UPEI student athletes got their moment in the sun. Last Tuesday night at the Charlottetown Hotel, the 25th annual varsity athletic honours night was a fast-paced success. The evening the Panthers b'ball team.

Other multiple winners included Soccer's Adrian Tompkins who captured the Offensive and Defensive player of the year, to go along with the MVP for the Varsity soccer team and the Mickey Place Student Union award. Tompkins was also named Allice.

Other team MVP's included Field Hockey-Krista Munroe Women's Soccer-Stella Teoli Volleyball-Kelly Colwill Women's B'ball-Hillary Watson UPEI president C.W.J. Elliot could not resist taking one last shot at the CIAU selection

Dixon has been named All-AUAA first team twice, to go with a second team honour during his first year here at UPEI. He also won the MVP for the Panthers b'ball team.

was a tribute to all those who have donned the green and white of the various UPEI varsity teams in the past year.

The two top trophy winners of the evening were field hockey's Kathie McNally and basketball's Raham Dixon.

McNally, a graduating science student, had her name mentioned many times over the course of the night as she took home prizes for being both the female athlete of the year and the winner of the prestigious Gordon and Murial Bennett award which goes to the student who best combines athletic achievement and academic excellence. McNally also took home not only the CIAU James Bayer Memorial scholarship, but also All-Canadian status in field hockey to go along with her Academic All-Canadian all-star award. If you thought that there must be something that she can't do, think again, because she teaches Sunday school as well as planning for medical school next fall.

Raham Dixon's three years at UPEI have been ones of great personal success, but I know that he would trade it all for an AUAA title and a shot at playing in the CIAU's. Dixon, who came here after two years at Florida A & M, has been the offensive focus of the Panthers basketball team for the past three years. He has been named All-AUAA first team twice, to go with a second team honour during his first year here at UPEI. Dixon also won the MVP for AUAA-- the only thing he didn't win was a door prize, but if there had been one he would probably have captured that as well.

Hockey's K.J. White capped an excellent season with the Panthers as he took home an All-AUAA trophy to fill out his mantlepiece with his other awards, which included: Most Dedicated Hockey Player, Top Scorer, and hockey's MVP. White was one of the most sportsmanlike members of the team this year, and gave 110% every night while he was on the committee; "Tonight has not been marked by any concern of marketability. Tonight athletes have won because they deserve to win."

The night closed with the assembled masses singing (rather off-key) a Happy Birthday wish to President Eliot's wife, who was celebrating her birthday. To all award winners and to those who play, congratulations on another fine season; and to the graduating seniors, the best of luck in your future endeavors.

UPEI Rugby season wraps up

The UPEI Men's Rugby team made a strong showing in league play this season, losing in the final game to UNB, a team which they had beaten, earlier in the season.

The team travelled to Truro for the International Indoor Sevens tournament on March 11-13, losing to the five-time tournament champions 3-2. They later went on to defeat the Loyalist Rugby Club by a score of 1-nil. In the quarter finals the Panthers lost to the Charlottetown Abbies 1-nil.

Fun was had by all in Truro. A fond farewell to retiring prop Mark Costello. He will be missed on and off the field with regards to his leadership, and his beer swilling attitude. Rookie Ian Johnston matured on and off the field this year, becoming one of the most outspoken members of the team.

The 1994 fall season should be successful for the Panthers with a large forward lineup of veterans and newcomers alike. The backs should be tough to beat with returning players Aaron Carr, Chris Buote, Ian Johnston and the speedy Stewart (bank boy) Berry. Congratulations on the nomination of Sean O'Halloran to the position of president taking over from the capable veteran Craig Hanlon. A fond farewell is sent out to veteran Kurt Kimpinski, who will be missed by all for his sense of humour.
