UNITED STATES AND SPAIN.

The Boston Traveller Thinks War Between These Countries a Certainty.

The Boston Traveller announces that in his opinion war with Spain is an absolute certainty.

The London papers very generally comment upon the gravity of the situation between the United States and Spain.

They agree, for the most part, in expressing the belief that President Cleveland will veto the resolution, but that it will be passed by congress over his veto.

Looking to the momentous possibility of the peculiar will overriding President Cleveland and the Cabinet, the Chronicle thinks, that "it is a bad outlook for the relations of all nations with the United States."
