

A HISTORICAL QUERY

That Goes Back to our Forefather in the Garden of Eden.

Did Adam Suffer from Indigestion?—His Descendants do—But They Have Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets with Which to Cure Themselves. Did Adam suffer from Indigestion? He did not—unless it was after he had eaten the forbidden fruit.

All suffering, all pain is contrary to the Creator's intentions. Man was not intended to suffer, or every babe would be born with a special disease.

But, since men and women, by breaking the laws of Nature, have brought pain and suffering on themselves, the all-wise Creator has put within their reach the means whereby they can escape from the penalty of breaking Nature's laws just as He gives them the chance to escape the consequence of spiritual sin.

Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Flatulence and the other diseases arising from defective indigestion are the most common ailments in America. The means whereby they are cured are Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets acts in the only way that can result in curing these diseases. They remove the cause. They digest the food that the worn-out stomach can't digest, and they put the stomach in condition to carry out its duty properly and promptly.

One or two of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after each meal for a few weeks will positively cure the worst case of indigestion, Dyspepsia, etc. One or two doses give complete relief.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

On Tuesday morning, Oct. 23rd, a goodly number of friends assembled at St. Frances de Sales church to witness the marriage of Miss Mary A. McDonald, of Little Pond, to Mr. William F. McDonald, of Johnston's River. The altars and sanctuary of the church were tastefully decorated for the occasion. The wedding march was played by Mrs. George McDonald who, assisted during Mass by other members of the choir, rendered some choice sacred selections. After the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. J. J. McDonald, of Kinkora, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. J. C. McLean, P. P., the bridal party accompanied by the above-mentioned clergymen repaired to the residence of the bride's brother where about forty guests were invited to dinner and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Before leaving the festive board, both reverend gentlemen spoke in eulogistic terms of the newly wedded pair and extended to them many hearty congratulations. The bride looked very pretty in a suit of gray cloth with white satin trimmings and picture hat of white velvet. She wore a beautiful gold brooch, the gift of the groom, and was attended by her sister, Miss Maggie B. McDonald, whose dress was of blue cloth trimmed with white satin and hat to match, while the groom was supported by Mr. Alex. Fisher, of Fort Augustus. On Wednesday morning, the happy couple drove to the home of the groom at Johnston's River where a number of friends were waiting to receive them. Among the number of costly wedding presents was a set of silver mounted harness presented to the groom by Rev. J. J. McDonald who also presented the bride with a handsome china tea set. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends.

MEETING AT CLIFTON.

A Great Success for Mr. W. S. Stewart.

The public meeting at Clifton last evening was a great one for Mr. Stewart. His clear, convincing arguments, and his able defence of the Liberal-Conservative party were very feebly met by Mr. Horace Hazzard's appeal to the people to support Sir Louis Davies. Sir Louis did not attend the meeting.

Mr. Hazzard ventured to state that the Laurier Government had reduced the duty on farm machinery, but the men whom he addressed were too shrewd to accept such a statement for truth.

The next speaker was Mr. Arthur Simpson, who supported Mr. Stewart in an able and sensible address.

He was followed by Mr. Geo Simpson, who attempted to show those assembled the virtues of Davies politics. But having no use for the speaker or his arguments the audience rose and left the hall.

MR. LAURIER ON RECIPROCITY.

(Toronto Globe report of speech at Cobourg, Ont., March 2, 1891.)

"We will do something to accomplish that result (reciprocity), but instead of adopting a policy of braggadocio we will try a policy of conciliation, and we will see if we cannot do better than Sir John Macdonald. The policy of Sir Charles Tupper was as the blowing tempest and tornado, but we will try the gentle rays of persuasion with our cousins on the other side of the line."

HAS THE GENTLE ZEPHYR WASTED FROM LIBERALISM WARMED THE HEARTS AT WASHINGTON AND INDUCED THEM TO OPEN THEIR GATES TO OUR WARES, OR HAS THE GENTLE BREEZE NOT COMMENCED TO BLOW YET?

NO MEETING AT EAST ROYALTY.

The New Liberals called a meeting in East Royalty for last night. Stipendiary Magistrate Palmer and Mr. Arthur Peters went out to address the meeting. The electors, however, having previously heard who were to speak did not attend, and there was no meeting. Some boys gathered at the door of the building and when Mr. Palmer and Mr. Peters came along they simply looked at them and drove away without getting out of their carriage.

"Take care of the pennies and the pounds will take care of themselves."

Large things are but an aggregation of small things. If we take care of the small things we are in effect taking care of the large things which the small things combine to make.

Take care of what you eat, when you eat, and how you eat, and your stomach will take care of itself. But who takes care of such trivial things? That is why, some day, the majority of the people have to take care of their stomach.

When that day comes, there is no aid so effective in undoing the results of past carelessness as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach and restores the organs of digestion and nutrition to a condition of healthy activity. It cures biliousness, heartburn, flatulence, indigestion, palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities and a score of other ailments which are but the symptoms of disorder in the stomach and its allied organs.

THE SOLDIERS' PURSE.

Additional Contributions Coming In Rapidly.

The steamer Idaho is expected to arrive in Halifax to-day, and a day or so more will elapse before the boys come home. Preparations are about completed to give them the right royal reception they are so deserving of. The record of their trials since the departure of the Sardinian one year ago, is one which they may well be proud of. The magnificent services rendered by them to their mother country and their bravery in coming forward at such a critical time will live as a permanent impression on the minds of all lovers of country. While it is well to display our approbation by marching, band-playing, fireworks, etc., there is a practical way which will appeal to every thoughtful person, that is by giving towards the purse. In doing this we will be aiding the boys in a way that will be of substantial benefit. A year has been spent by them in service for their country, for which they will get almost nothing in the way of remuneration. Their expenses will commence from the moment of landing on Canadian soil, and as the majority will be unable to go to work for some time it will be at once seen that the cash will come in handy. Apart from this a chance is furnished to the masses to testify their loyalty, for although circumstances prevented the great majority from volunteering for the front there is absolutely nothing to prevent those same persons from helping those who did.
