"Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew"

SECOND SECTION — Charlottetown, Wed., May 18, 1966. — PAGE 13

IT'S ABOUT THIS HORSE, OFFICER

Motorists at busy Broadway and Nanaimo intersection in Vancouver were bewildered early Monday morning by the appearance of a horse wandering about in traffic. The horse was finally cornered on the Great Northern Railway tracks, where it ran away from a bucket of oats, offered by a city pound employee (top) and finally succumbed to a crash helmet full of grass, offered by traffic police Sgt. Charlie Ball, who haltered the animal. It was turned over to pound and later claimed.

Romania Is Seeking Revision Of Terms In Red Warsaw Pact

MOSCOW (Reuters) — Romania is pressing for revision of the Warsaw Pact to ensure greater independence for six East European members of the Communist military alliance, Communist sources said Tuesday.

There has been no official confirmation of Romania's reported effort for modernization of the pact mechanism as a tight security screen has been effected by Soviet and Romanian officials.

But Western diplomats said they have gleaned enough to indicate that important backstage moves are under way which could lead to a situation in the Warsaw Pact similar to that created in the West by President de Gaulle's plans to pull French forces out of NATO.

ADD TO STRAINS

They believe the reported Romanian move has added to already existing strains in the Soviet-Romanian relationship, resulting both from Romania's assertion of national independence and from insistence by the Romanian Leader Nicolae Ceausescu on continuing normal relations with China.

Communist sources said, however, Romania's suggestions fall short of any serious threat to quit the alliance.

There was no official denial in Bucharest that Romania has told the Soviet Union she no longer will contribute to the cost of Soviet troops stationed in other East European countries.

This stand was said to have been taken in a document circulated to other Warsaw Pact members, who are expected to meet in Bucharest in July.

WON'T SHARE COST

According to reports, other points made by Romania were:

—Any country wanting Soviet troops should bear the costs itself and make a bilateral agreement with Moscow.

—The post of supreme commander of the Warsaw Pact—until now always held by a Soviet general — should rotate among member countries.

—The Soviet Union should agree to prior consultations with its allies on the use of nuclear weapons.

No Soviet troops are stationed in Romania, but there are believed to be about 20 divisions in East Germany and some in Hungary and Poland.

Observers here thought the Romanian move was one of the main reasons behind Soviet Communist chief Leonid Brezhnev's three-day visit to Bucharest last week.

Parks In N.S. Open Saturday

HALIFAX (CP) — Nova Scotia's 45 provincial camping and picnic parks will open for the season Saturday and will remain open until late October.

Lands and Forests Minister E. D. Haliburton has announced that several parks included in the list are being extended or developed to a greater degree.

Medicare Begins July 1967 Even If Provinces Trailing

OTTAWA (CP)—The government promised Tuesday to be in the medical care insurance business by July 1, 1967, whether all provinces are ready to join or not.

Health Minister MacEachen told the Commons several provinces already have indicated they are ready to join the federal-provincial program.

But in any case the federal government would be ready to start payments July 1, 1967, to any province setting up a medical care insurance program meeting four main standards set by Ottawa.

"... The federal government proposes to proceed with the medical care program in the form, and from the date, originally planned," Mr. MacEachen said.

Newfoundland, New Brunswick, Quebec and Saskatchewan which already has its own provincial plan, have announced they will participate in the federal program. Federal officials say they expect Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, Manitoba and British Columbia to join up before the 1967 target date.

ALBERTA AGAINST PLAN

Ontario membership is considered probable, but Alberta has opposed any plan entailing compulsory insurance premiums.

The four requirements the federal government has set are:

—Coverage of 90 per cent of the province's population from the start of the program, with an increase to at least 95 per cent after three operating years.

—Benefits to cover the full range of medical care by general practitioners and specialists.

—Full portability of benefits from province to province.

—Administration of the plan by a non-profit agency under the provincial administration.

Legislation will be introduced in Parliament to authorize the government to extend payments to participating provinces in time to meet the 1967 deadline, Mr. MacEachen said.

Railway Unions Ask Hours Cut

CHICAGO (AP) — Six shopcraft unions asked railways across the U.S. Tuesday for a 20-per-cent wage boost, Good Friday off and, in effect, a 37½-hour work week.

Gunard Y. Larson, a representative of the Machinists Union, estimated that between 100,000 and 150,000 workers are involved.

He said the demands were being sent out Tuesday to the individual railways.

The single contract is subject to reopening now. The unions want the added benefits to go into effect Jan. 1, 1967.

The unions are the machinists, electrical workers, boilermakers, car men, oilers and sheetmetal workers.

Larson said that, under the Railway Labor Act, management of the railways must reply within 10 days. The next step is to set a date for negotiations.

J. E. Wolfe, chairman of the National Railway Labor Conference, termed the demands excessive.

Alcan Aluminum Revenues Higher

MONTREAL (CP) — Alcan Aluminium Ltd. announced Tuesday consolidated sales and operating revenues were $233,000,000 in the first quarter of 1966 compared with $196,000,000 in the same period of 1965.

In a statement to shareholders the company said net earnings were $17,700,000 or 55 cents a share in 1966 against $7,500,000 or 22 cents a share in 1965.

Nathanael V. Davis, president, said first-quarter sales were 266,000 tons of aluminium in all forms in 1966 compared with 211,000 tons in 1965.

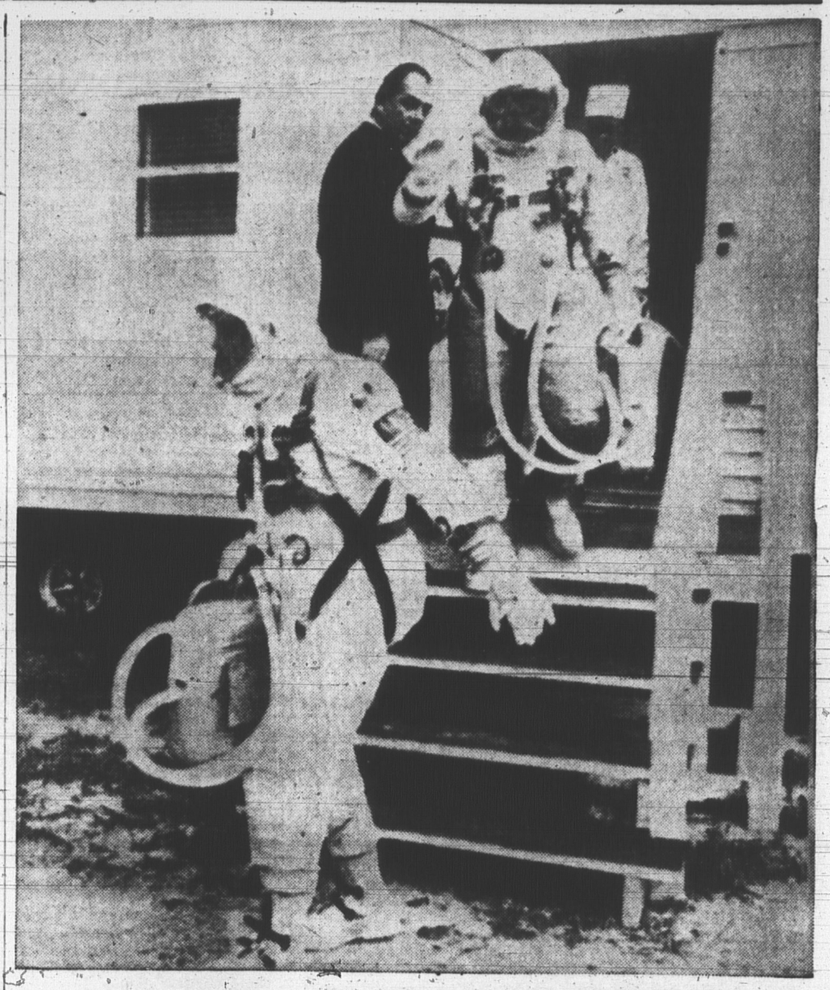
Aluminum Co. of Canada Ltd., whose accounts are consolidated with those of its parent company, said the first quarter of 1966 against $9,500,000 in 1965.

CITIES MOVED EARLY

London, Paris, Glasgow, Budapest and Boston, Mass., all had subway systems before 1900.

RAZOR BRINGS CASH

WHIMPLE, England (CP)—A Devon stamp dealer pulled off a collector's coup when his local post office ran out of three penny stamps. The postmaster sold him sixpennies cut in half—600 of them, which Doug Watson mailed on postcards. They now are worth up to $45 each.



AND THEN THEIR MISSION WAS SCRUBBED

Gemini 9 Astronauts Thomas P. Stafford, LEFT, and Eugene Cernan head for their spacecraft at Cape Kennedy, Fla., Tuesday, only to have their mission postponed after the target vehicle, an Agena, failed to achieve orbit.

6 Munsinger Document Points Denied, Qualified At Probe

By KEN KELLY

OTTAWA (CP)—At least six points in the "handy document" released at the Gerda Munsinger inquiry last week were denied or outlined in different form in previous testimony.

No mention of this was made at the inquiry at the time Mr. Justice Wishart Spence made it public, stating that its contents weren't evidence but it served as a handy document.

The judge's action in releasing the document, prepared by commission lawyers J. L. O'Brien and J. J. Urie from police reports, is expected to be discussed further before the inquiry concludes. The security inquiry resumes today.

Mr. O'Brien said at an early stage of the inquiry that Mrs. Munsinger was a common prostitute, petty thief and mistress of former Conservative cabinet minister Pierre Sevigny.

The document said that during an interview with the RCMP Nov. 15 and 16, 1960, Mrs. Munsinger "divulged information which strongly suggested that she was the mistress of Associate Defence Minister Pierre Sevigny."

NEVER WAS MISTRESS

The day before the document was released, Mr. Sevigny said on oath Mrs. Munsinger "never was my mistress."

The document said after Mrs. Munsinger's arrest Feb. 3, 1961, for passing bad cheques, the victimized store "was advised that there would be a scandal if this woman was prosecuted."

It also said information was received that political pressure was being brought on the Montreal city police to obtain her release and "it was suggested that, if charges were pressed, an important political figure would be blackmailed."

The document says the charges were withdrawn Feb. 4, 1961, the day before Mrs. Munsinger left Canada.

Former RCMP Commissioner C. W. Harvison and Commissioner George B. McClellan said in testimony the RCMP recommended the charges be withdrawn.

'DOING GREAT THING'

The document said Mrs. Munsinger recounted that at an Ottawa social function the prime minister of Canada told her she was doing a great thing for Canada and Mr. Sevigny had great things to offer Canada.

It also quoted Mrs. Munsinger as saying her relations with Mr. Sevigny were not just an affair but that she would marry him if it were possible for him to obtain a divorce.

Mr. Sevigny testified that Mrs. Munsinger read romantic ideas into the simplest situations.

Commissioner McClellan said the RCMP had been informed that Mrs. Munsinger was "incapable of telling an accurate or truthful story."

The document quotes Mrs. Munsinger as fixing the time she met Mr. Sevigny as August, 1958.

Mr. Sevigny said they were introduced in late September, 1959.

DIFFER OVER NAMES

The document says Mrs. Munsinger called Mr. Sevigny Pete. Mr. Sevigny said she called him Pierre.

The document says Mrs. Munsinger told a "source of doubtful reliability" that Mr. Sevigny gave her $125 a month for apartment rental.

Mr. Sevigny denied paying her rent and said the only things he remembered giving her were a $5 Mexican souvenir ring and $100 after she had been robbed, which she offered to repay.

The document was put before the inquiry in secret session April 6 and Mr. Justice Spence ruled it be kept secret. On April 27, he said at a public session he was "utterly astounded" that portions of it had been published in newspapers. He said he did not want to have to institute a security inquiry into how these portions were obtained.

On May 10, at the request of Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Justice Spence released it for publication and mimeographed copies were distributed to reporters part way through the day's hearings.

Mr. Justice Spence said persons mentioned in the document had a chance to meet any of the statements contained in it.

PREDICTS TRAFFIC TOLL

OTTAWA (CP) — The Canadian Highway Safety Council estimated Tuesday 56 people will die in traffic accidents during the 78-hour Victoria Day weekend, May 20-23. On the same weekend last year, 54 died.
