Beer Bros. for Dress Goods
A SURE DOCKET—There are five Scott Act cases to come up for trial at the Police Court on Monday.
THE EXPECTED HAPPENS.—The Nicolet, Que., election trial took place on Thursday. However, the Conservative, retains his seat.

$10, $12 and $14
Are the three lines of Overcoats we are pushing this week. Quite a number were sold last week and every person who seen them was surprised to find such nice goods ready-made. Come and see the coats. You do not have to buy them unless the make, quality and price suits you.
PROWSE BROS.

Equal to Custom Made
The fine blue beaver Overcoat we are selling for $10 is a dandy, and worth much more money. It will pay you to see this line before leaving your measure. Good cloth, fine finish, latest cut, and the price is only $10.
PROWSE BROTHERS

Best on This Part of the Earth.
We have seventeen of those wonderful $12 Overcoats left. Blue black beaver and worsted, cost $13, made to order. Don't throw away $6 those hard times, but drop in and see wonderful bargains; our price is only $12.
PROWSE BROTHERS

AN OBJECT IN VIEW.
Our main object in advertising these fine goods is to show the people of this city that they can get just as nice goods readymade as any other way if they will only pay the price, and in order to introduce those goods, we will offer an extra fine blue black or fawn beaver Overcoat, worth $18.00 to $20.00, for $14.00
PROWSE BROTHERS.

REMEMBER THIS.—Bear in mind that Rev. A. L. Goggin of Truro will lecture Thursday night in Zion basement. A crowded house is expected.

STILL TEST COME.—Bernard Callaghan received a Scott Act summons yesterday afternoon. It charges a first infraction and is returnable on Thursday.

THE FASTEST ARRIVED here this morning about 5 o'clock and will leave again for Halifax, via Souris this evening. The next trip will be her last for this season.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Rev. Donald MacNeill will preach a Gaelic sermon at the Chestnut street Mission House (D. V.) tomorrow (Sunday, Dec. 13) at 4 p. m.

B. C. GOLD FIELDS Co.—Investors in this progressive company will be glad to hear of a further rise in the price of shares from 25 cents to 40 cents after the 1st of January.

COAL LADEN.—The Steamer Elliot and the schooners Corsica, Swift Current and St. Ann have arrived from Sydney, and the Ellen May and the Taurin from Pictou, coal laden for C. Lyons & Co.

GOSSIP MEETING.—Remember the Gossip meeting in the Y. M. C. A. conducted by the Railway Men Sunday evening at 4 o'clock. Strangers always welcome. Lesson—Psalms 23, 1. "The Lord is my Shepherd."

THE Y. M. C. A. of this city has decided to hold a devotional meeting, open to the public, every Tuesday evening. The first meeting will be held by the president on Tuesday evening next at 7:30 o'clock.

A TALL MAN.—There is said to be a young man over seven feet tall living at Quebec. It is considered a disgrace in some localities up that way for a man to be less than six feet in height. —North Sydney Herald.

PHOTOGRAPHS WANTED.—Any persons having photographs of Island scenery, especially views of the North Shore, scenic resorts, suitable for illustrating a book on P. E. Island, would oblige by communicating with THE EXAMINER PUBL. CO.

BASKET SOCIAL.—The Basket Social at Bay Fortune Bridge, on Thursday evening, was a very pleasant affair indeed. The opening address by Rev. J. B. McKay was appropriate and well received. The baskets auctioned off by Mr. Sparrowbridge brought good prices, and everything went forward from beginning to close.

THEY HAVE BEEN RESTING.—The Grit papers are making a good deal of fuss over the fact that some of the Federal Ministers find no difficulty in rising early in the morning. But this is not surprising when it is remembered that most of them have been enjoying a rest during the past eighteen years.

SURPRISE PARTY.—On Thursday evening a score or more of Rev. and Mrs. Egan's Souris friends waited upon them at the parsonage and presented lots of good things. A very enjoyable evening was afterwards spent with the reverend gentleman, his amiable wife and interesting little daughter. All present felt that it was good to be there.

THE NORTHERNBERLAND.—The steamer Northernberland is still making regular trips between Summerside and Point du Cluene, and the probability is that she will continue to run for several days longer. Last year she stopped running in this route on December 4th. After that, however, the weather moderated a little, and the St. Lawrence made two or three trips.—Summerside Agriculturist.

PROGRESSION BACKWARDS.—We are living in the close of the nineteenth century and for the first time in the history of this country we have a government which hires men to travel about the country inviting its employees to give evidence against fellow employees which will serve as an excuse for their dismissal on the ground of partisanship! This is progression backwards with a vengeance.—Moncton Times.

RAILWAY TIME TABLE.—The winter arrangement of trains on the Island railway will go into effect on Monday next. Under this time table trains for points west will leave Charlottetown at 8 a. m., and 4:10 p. m., and trains from the west will be due in Charlottetown at 11:10 a. m., and 4:10 p. m. Trains for points east will leave Charlottetown at 8:20 a. m., and 3:30 p. m., and trains from the east will be due in this city at 11:30 a. m., and 5:40 p. m. The foregoing figures are local time.

A STRANGE VERDICT.
SIR.—By your issue of yesterday I observe that the verdict of the coroner's jury in the Dundas tragedy is "that Miss McKenzie came to her death at the hands of some party or parties unknown." Only a short time ago a jury in the same neighborhood decided that a little school girl came to her death through injuries received from a schoolmate, a boy of tender years, but, added they, "the deed was done intentionally." And now we have a verdict that implies that someone else besides the poor unfortunate who has been sent to Falconwood may have committed the deed by which poor Miss McKenzie lost her life. The jury were made, the jury that implies that someone else besides the poor unfortunate who has been sent to Falconwood may have committed the deed by which poor Miss McKenzie lost her life. The jury were made, the jury that implies that someone else besides the poor unfortunate who has been sent to Falconwood may have committed the deed by which poor Miss McKenzie lost her life.

RESIDENT.
Friday December 11th, 1896.

PERSONAL.
Mr. David Watson, jr., the popular young representative of Kerry, Watson & Co., Montreal, was married at Springfield, Mass., on Wednesday evening to Miss Mabel Beatrice Norfolk, daughter of Mrs. Mary Norfolk, of that city. The young couple left shortly after the ceremony for Albany, New York, and the south. The Examiner wishes Mr. and Mrs. Watson a happy journey through life.

The Misses Langworth's sale of Xmas fancy articles will commence on Tuesday, Dec. 16th, at their residence, Water street. 139 51.

Jno. Riley and Tros. Brennan, two blind beggars, arrived hand in hand at Bellevue hospital one day last week. They groped their way into the office and said they were not pleased enough to stay outdoors. Despite their affliction the men appeared to be cheerful, and their good humor was great. They were given one bed between them in the lodging house. One of them wanted to know if they could rely on having coffee and rolls in the morning. He said the keen air had made them ravenous.

When You See anything in the Drug line advertised, and take a notion you would like to get it, remember you can get it at our stores.
If it should happen—which is a rare thing—that we haven't it, we'll get it for you, and send it to your house.
It's our aim to please and be called "the druggists who keep everything in the drug line."
Johnson & Johnson,
Graduates in Pharmacy.

THE WIFE'S PLACE.
The wife who has married for love, yet who has some kind of common-sense and self-control—some kind of knowledge of human life to keep her clear from idealisation on the one hand and disillusionment on the other—accepts the inevitable failings of human nature as things which are and must be, but which do not kill her love nor weaken her respect. Marriage with her is co-partnership, but the man is the predominant partner, and she is his in her own dominion. She administers his fortune with judgment and honorable regard to his social status. She looks after the house and does not neglect the child. She keeps her own individuality sacred, but does not go counter to his wishes. He is neither her master nor slave, neither her playfellow nor her enemy, but her husband and her friend; love thrives round his head, never wholly fades away, even when, hand in hand, they totter down the steep hill, at the foot of which runs the great river of death.—Mrs. Lynn Linton.

If the cold weather continues the Bank will open on Monday evening, Dec. 14. "William" is doing his very best and never at this season has there been so much ice as there now is in the Rink. Rink tickets for sale at all the Drug stores. A long season of skating is now arrived, so secure tickets early and take all the advantage.
A pair of gold or gold filled spectacles or eyeglasses would make a useful present. We have them at prices to suit all.—G. H. Taylor.
