In England turns out every two weeks, more soap than is used in the whole of Canada in a year. Sunlight Soap is used largely in all countries of the world, and the demand for it is more than three times as large as for any other brand.—Why? Because it is universally acknowledged to be the best soap made.

Mr. M. McKinnon, M. L. A., was in the city last evening and to-day. He came in from the dairymen's meeting.

Mr. J. F. Aresnault, M. L. A., was in town over night. He was among those in attendance at the agricultural and dairying meetings yesterday.

Mr. C. G. Clairmonte who has many friends in Charlottetown crossed from Pictou on the Stanley yesterday, and came to town this morning.

Sheriff W. B. Robertson returned to town today after taking the prisoners sentenced at the January term of the Supreme Court to Dorchester.

Mr. M. A. McInnis, formerly of this Province, has been elected President of Typographical Union No. 36, Oakland, Cal. Mr. McInnis has been Secretary-Treasurer of the union for several years past.

The Chief Justice, the Master of the Rolls, Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, Attorney-General Macdonald, Mr. Arthur Peters, Q. C., Mr. Neil McQuarrie and Mr. W. H. Crookall returned from Georgetown this morning.

Mr. W. S. McKie, returning from Montreal, and Mr. A. J. Biffin, crossed to Georgetown by the Stanley yesterday morning and drove to town in the afternoon. Mr. McKie brought a horse with him and they hired a sleigh in Georgetown.

THE TIME WILL COME.

SIR,—It is not astonishing to see how men are blinded to party failings. What can we expect from the masses when those who are in positions to advise, to warn and censure are so sullied and lost to all sense of justice, truth and fairplay. That when they see wrong done, justice violated, and truth trampled to earth, instead of using their voice and pen in condemnation of the evil-doers and showing them up to public scorn and contempt, for the sake of patronage, a little filthy lucre, come out boldly and champion the actions of the party, whether right or wrong.

We have examples of this in the Patriot and Guardian newspapers, especially in the present discussion of our mails. Instead of condemning the cheese-paring conduct of those in power, and standing shoulder to shoulder with you, sir, Mr. Dillon and others, in your contention for a better service, they do all they can to belittle your arguments and to cast reflections on the motives of men who are above suspicion, going back for years to scrape up a parallel case from the other party, &c.

Now, sir, we in the country are about sick of reading and hearing such trash. We don't care anything about what the other party have done; that don't help the matter now. It does not deliver our letters and papers at the proper time; and it does not raise the honesty or ability of the editors or the party in our estimation. But a time of reckoning must come, will come, when those in high places will be cast down, their greed and corruption exposed, and receive their reward from a justly indignant and much wronged people.

THE AGRICULTURAL MISSION

tario were provided for. It is to be a subterranean drainage system, which a current of cold water would be taken to prevent the formation of mould, and the use of formaldehyde for the purpose. The shaft was reconstructed for this purpose. The application of whitewash to the outside of the factory would assist in the cooling of the interior. The year's saving in shrinkage should pay for these improvements. He advocated the thorough cleansing of the curing room every spring. After the cream is cured the temperature should be kept at 34 degrees to guard against the butter becoming flat and strong. In a temperature of 40 degrees butter would not be safe. Cold storage had been tried in the northwest, and it had paid for itself five times over. Professor Robertson then answered several questions. In reply to Mr. R. P. Morrison, of Tryon, he said the compressed air system was still in the experimental stages and he would not advise its use. He informed Mr. Robert Jenkins that the Babcock test, in skilled hands, was a safe means of ascertaining the amount of butter fat, but in unskilled hands it was no so sure. One of the duties of the inspector should be to see that its use was understood by the operator. In a test showing 3.5 of butter fat 3.8 of butter should be the yield. Under all the circumstances he believed that an inspector for the province would be a benefit.

Mr. Weeks, of Alberton, was opposed to inspectors in general. The cheese from Alberton factory, where they had no inspector, had taken first prize at St. John. On motion it was decided to have the delegates from each factory report, which was done. The report showed that every factory in the province, excepting Murray Harbor North and O'Leary, was represented.

Upon motion of Mr. John Anderson every delegate on the platform—each factory having one representative—thereon voted in favor of the appointment of an inspector with the exception of two.

Some discussion followed regarding the appointment and duties of the inspector, his salary, etc.

Premier Farquharson said these details might be arranged by a committee appointed for the purpose. Legislation would be necessary. The Government would pay its share of the inspector's salary, one-half if necessary, but he thought a third ought to be sufficient.

The suggestion of the premier was adopted and a committee of seven was struck as follows: Arthur Simpson, Stanley; John Anderson, Kensington; D. P. Irving, Vernon River Bridge; L. McDonald, East Point; Alfred Dewar, Lot 48; James E. McDonald, Cardigan; Wm. Calbeck, Bedouque.

Professor Robertson said he believed that Hon. Mr. Fisher would be favorable to giving $300 towards the inspector's salary.

The matter of organizing a cheese board for the province was then considered, and a motion that such an institution be established was carried. Professor Robertson explained how similar boards were conducted elsewhere, and showed how beneficial they were to the dairymen—both buyers and sellers.

The committee appointed to arrange details regarding the inspector was also given authority to deal with this matter.

The meeting then adjourned after tendering a vote of thanks to the chairman.

The committee of seven appointed to arrange details regarding the inspector and dairymen's board, after a brief consultation, adjourned to meet again at the call of the chairman.
