HAPPENINGS

The November meeting of the Charlottetown Kinetics Club was held at the home of Ann Johnston on Kirkwood Drive West, recently.

The meeting was in the form of a "bring and buy" sale, was largely attended. Dorothy Lockhart acted as auctioneer.

Three new members, Patty Becker, Narina MacDonald and Marjorie Estabrook, were welcomed into the club by the president, Norma Hambly.

Prior to the sale a short business meeting was held. It was decided that due to the large increase in membership and the fact that the next meeting will be held at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Following the meeting lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Norma Hambly, Ruth Brown and Milla Conroy.

The Royal Edward Chapter of the IOOE held their November meeting in the National Film Theatre on Tuesday evening, recent. Mrs. B. Earle MacDonald, president and the meeting opened with a collection for the standard by Mrs. A.W. Rogers.

Mrs. MacDonald thanked Mrs. H.A. MacMillan for placing the wreath at the centaph on Remembrance Day. Mrs. MacDonald also reported on the semi-annual meeting of the National Film Theatre in Toronto recently, and she thanked the members who attended. She said the meeting was beneficial to all who attended.

At the meeting the following resolutions were passed, which included a "thank-you" note from Betty Carol MacMillan, Scarborough, P.S. wife, arrived in Summerside from a former member.

Mrs. Mildred Burnett of Ontario, was the guest speaker.

The educational secretary, Miss Margaret Rivett, reported that the IOOE had been very successful in distributing the services at home and abroad since the meeting. Mrs. MacMillan reported that nursery babies would be sent to Hong Kong in the ship "The Queen".

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richardson were pleasantly surprised on Saturday evening when approximately forty of their friends gathered at their home in Summerside to tender them a home-warming in the form of a "beating" party. A humorous poem, composed for the occasion, was read and presented. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson were the presentation of an electric Sanborn fry pan, which was presented by Mrs. D.R. Morrison. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies.

SOUTH LAKE WI
 On Nov. 7th Mrs. Henry O'Brien was hostess to the members of the South Lake WI for their annual meeting. The meeting opened in the usual manner. Nine members answered roll call.

The minutes of the last annual meeting and of the October meeting were read and approved. In a brief address the president thanked the members for their kindness and cooperation during their term of office. The secretary gave a report of the year's transactions showing a profitable year both socially and financially.

It was decided to send $5 to the St. Vincent's Hospital Fund. The secretary was asked to order four WI cook books and one box of sympathy cards.

A letter was read from Mrs. Myra MacDonald telling us about her home and life in Labrador.

Several pieces of sewing were sold.

Several places of sewing were elected: president, Mrs. Charles MacDonnell; vice-president, Mrs. Norman Bruce; secretary, Mrs. Kermit Bruce; directors, Mrs. Henry O'Brien, Mrs. A.J. Cameron and Mrs. Alfred Fisher; Mrs. Austin Fraser, press reporter, Mrs. Elmer Fraser.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Norman Bruce when roll call will be answered with an exchange of Christmas gifts.

Meeting was adjourned and lunch was served by the hostess.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN L. ANDREWS

Young Couple Pledge Vows In Ceremony At Trinity United

The marriage of Marlene Dale Buell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Buell, Charlottetown to John Leonard Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Andrews, York, took place at Trinity United Church in Charlottetown, recently.

Baskets of mixed flowers decorated the church and the guest pews were marked with sweet peas and white satin bows.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Clayton C. Lewis while Mr. Rossington Lewis officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a full length wedding gown of nylon over taffeta, with lace bodice and lace panels in front and back of the taffeta lined bouffant skirt. She wore a shoulder length veil held in place by a tiara of pearls and net. Her white Bible was covered with tulle and ribbon.

Mrs. William MacDonald, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Miss Linda Andrews, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of pink and blue nylon over taffeta, with shawl collar and lace panels in front, hoods and white accessories and carried white Bibles.

Following the reception a reception was held at the Queen Hotel. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake. Mrs. Louis Howatt, Jr. proposed the toast to the bride, which was responded to by the groom. Mr. George Andrews read two telegrams.

Mrs. Preston Scott, friend of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Following the reception the couple left on a honeymoon trip to points of interest in the Maritime. For travelling the bride chose a beige wool suit beige and green accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Flood of Bright Sunshine Washes November Fields

So lovely a Fall day was this one, which now faces away in the starlight.

We halted happily the sunshine, that in a gentle flood, this morning washed over the November fields. This brightened the kitchen, where in the quiet we watched the worn knees of James' other overalls and darned his workbooks of shagreened gray. And the fire purred, like a cat in a well-contented song. And the plants on the sill luxuriated in its warmth. And the supper-dish cooking in the oven, spread a homely aroma about the house.

Alex had been our visitor, but on a sudden impulsion, which must have been a long visit, but with his mother, he had slipped into the house across the lane.

"Do you think that life is so good?" he asked. "Why do you ask?"

"Oh, I was just wondering. The other day, I heard some body say that it wasn't. And I couldn't quite understand it."

"And how do you find it, now?"

"I find it good. There is so much in it, isn't it?"

But even so, leaving its delights and its peace, to go to his or her turn, the Islands' sons and daughters must go. Most one day turn and go, and alone, "across Jordan" to that always fair land which

St. Veronica's Guild Holds Annual Membership Tea

On Sunday afternoon the members of the St. Veronica's Guild held their annual reunion and membership tea in the social room of the Charlottetown Hospital Nurses' Residence. About 60 nurses attended the affair.

The guests were welcomed by the guild president, Mrs. C. St. Clair Trainor and by Sister Mary Irene.

The beautifully appointed table was centered with a bouquet of flowers flanked by yellow and white tapers.

Pouring were Mrs. William Douglas, Mrs. Alice Trainor, Mrs. George McIsaac, and Miss Eileen McDonald.

Refreshments and serving were Mrs. Elmer Blanchard, Mrs. Will Best, Mrs. M. J. Gaudet, Mrs. R. S. McDonald and Miss Gertrude Kennedy.

During the tea hour, delightful background music was enjoyed. A special feature of the afternoon was a humorous monologue by Mrs. Joseph Donahue. Before the president, the speaker briefly welcomed the nurses, new graduates and the guild. She explained the purpose of the organization and the work of the guild and its association with the Atlantic Council of Canadian Nurses and the Canadian Association of Catholic Nurses.

In her remarks, she pointed out that the St. Veronica's Guild would be hosted to the Atlantic Council in 1964 and she urged all to do their part to help
