Grand River Wins From Wellington

On Sunday afternoon the Wellington Dodgers went down to defeat to the Grand River Cardinals by the score of 7-5. Lefty MacDougall showed good form for the winners by allowing three hits in the first four innings and also Ralph McLellan who relieved him in the fifth and seemed to baffle the visiting batters with his variety of curves by only issuing two hits for the remainder of the game. The Wellington hurler, Vernon Fitzgerald went the route for the losers. The only home run of the game was hit by Jimmy MacDougall with the bases loaded. Those two teams are members of the Prince County Baseball League.

Mother of S'side Man Killed In Traffic Accident

—Word was received on Mondaynight by Charles Linkletter of the tragic death of his mother, Mrs. (Rev.) C. S. Linkletter, in a car accident which occurred near the Ontario-Minnesota border about six o'clock that evening.

Rev. Mr. Linkletter and Mrs. Linkletter were returning to their home at Atlantic, Iowa, after attending a Church conference in Winnipeg. They had called at Kenora, Ontario, to visit Rev. Mr. Linkletter's brother, Everett, and had left Kenora that morning. Shortly after crossing the border into Minnesota their car apparently went out of control on slippy pavement, and as far as is known Mrs. Linkletter was killed instantly, while her husband received injuries, which, while not of a critical nature, consisted of a broken ankle, several broken ribs and shock.

The late Mrs. Linkletter was the former Enid Pauline Schurman, daughter of the late M. F. Schurman and Mrs. Schurman of Summerside.

Rev. Mr. Linkletter is a native of Linkletter Road, and at present pastor of the First Christian Church, Atlantic, Iowa. Harry Linkletter of Linkletter Road is a brother, and Mrs. Wilfred MacDonald, of Brudenell, is a sister.

Mrs. Linkletter was born at Kensington May 21, 1896, and received her early education at Kensington and Summerside schools. She was a graduate of Acadia Seminary, Class of 1916, of which she was President. On August 27, 1918, she married Rev. Charles Stewart Linkletter, and during the ensuing years they lived in Chicago; Bellflower, Ill.; Boulder, Col.; (16 years); Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Atlantic, Iowa. During those years the late Mrs. Linkletter was an active worker in most of the organizations of her Church and community.

She is survived by her husband, her mother, one son, Charles; one daughter, Ethel Jean (Mrs. Wendell K. Muttart) both of Summerside; one sister, Ethel (Mrs. Edwin N. Estey), Moncton, N. B.; and one brother, Harold, Summerside.

Charles and Ethel Jean left yesterday morning by plane to be with their father.

Harold, who received the tragic news of his sister's death while in Montreal, left that city yesterday by automobile for Atlantic, Iowa. Everett Linkletter lelt Kenora immediately on hearing of the tragedy, to be with his brother who is in hospital at Bemidji, Minn.

Funeral arrangements were not definitely known last evening.—S.

S'side Golf Season To Open Officially

—The golf season will officially get under way at the Summerside Golf and Country Club today with mixed two-ball foursomes. The games will take place between 1 p. m. and 6.30 p.m. and the best men players will be paired off with inexperienced lady players, and vice versa, to insure interesting competition. There will be no draw, and those wishing to take part will be classified as they come out to the club house.

The day's events will be open to all men and women members of the club, and the activities will close with a bean supper.

District Convention

Of Women's Institutes of County Line Number One, will be held at Clinton Hall, Monday, June 29. Meetings at 2:00 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. Supper served, 65c. Evening meeting, guest speakers, Mrs. J. E. Lawson and Mr. W. S. McMurtrey, B.Sc.

Daks Defeat Andy's Aces 3-1

—In one of the best ladies' softball games of the 1953 season, the Air Force Daks defeated Andy's Aces by the score of 3-1 at the Queen Elizabeth diamond last evening. Both Joe Thomas and Marie Peters pitched fine ball games, the Daks getting five hits off Peters, and the Aces getting to Thomas's slants for four safe bingles.

Peters struck out seven to four for Thomas The teams committed only three errors apiece. Baribeau led the Daks' attack with two hits and Perry was on top for the Aces with a like number of safe blows. There were no particularly spectacular plays in the field, but the defensive work was steady, the Daks especially presenting a tight infield to the sea-food girls' attack.

Hits—MacMillan 1, Wheeler 1, Baribeau 2, Thomas 1. Aces—Enman 1, Perry 2, Peters 1. Errors—Daks, Reeder 3, Aces—Peters, Perry, LeClair.

Lineups:

Daks—MacMillan 1b; Pelletier rf; Wheeler 3b; Baribeau lf; Reeder ss; Chase 2b; Thomas p; Schiffner c; Andreanopolous cf.

Aces—Gibson, 2b; Enman cf; Perry 3b; Kilpatrick 1b; Rogers ss; Cahill rf; Gaudet c; LeClair lf; Peters p.

Umpires—Plate, DesRoches, bases S. Richard.

SUMMERSIDE W.M.S.

—W.M.S. of Central Christian Church, Summerside, met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Harding on Monday, June 8. The devotional, led by Miss Evelyn MacLure, included the hymn "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind", the Scripture lesson from 1st Corinthians 13, read by Mrs. Frank Linkletter and meditation with plea for more love and understanding in the world given by the leader and prayer offered by Mrs. W. O. Weale.

Regular business session was conducted by Mrs. Harding, vice-president. Roll call was answered with a Bible verse containing the word "clean." Two new members and one visitor were welcomed.

During the study period, Miss Olive Murray gave an excellent review of the chapter from "African Hertiage" dealing with Communism and Christianity in Africa, painting a vivid and challenging picture of conditions in that important field. Meeting closed with the missionary benediction.—S
