R.C.A.F. Flies 2 Island Residents For Treatment At Halifax Hospital

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

Aircraft from RCAF Station, Summerside, made two mercy flights yesterday taking injured and ill Island residents to hospital in Halifax for treatment.

Carmen Dawson, 18-year-old North Tryon youth, was flown to the Nova Scotia capital yesterday morning where he was reported by hospital authorities last night to be in serious condition.

Dawson suffered serious head injuries when his head became jammed by a freight car door while he was helping to load potatoes Monday afternoon at Port Hill Station.

The air force made another special trip last evening carrying Mrs. Myrtle MacKay of Stanley Bridge who was suffering an undisclosed illness. It was reported she was taken to Prince County Hospital yesterday morning in an unconscious state. Her condition last night was not available.

Mrs. MacKay, about 70, is the widow of the late John S. MacKay of Stanley Bridge.

Yesterday's flights marked the first time that the RCAF at Summerside had made two mercy flights in a single day.

Both trips were made by Dakotas. The aircraft carrying Mrs. MacKay left at 5.40 in the evening with Flight Lieutenant Carl Ross as pilot and Flight Lieutenant Bill Rombotham as co-pilot. Crewman was LAC Warren. The station's senior medical officer Flight Lieutenant R. P. Werner also made the trip.

Piloting the craft that took young Dawson to hospital in the morning was Flying Officer C. D. Eakin. His co-pilot was Flight-Lieutenant Carl Ross.

The young man was also accompanied by his father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Keith Dawson and by Dr. J. K. Beer and Mrs. Beer, who is a nurse.

Sharkey Funeral Held At Cardigan

The funeral of the late Patrick Joseph Sharkey was held yesterday morning from the home of his son, Gerald Sharkey, Corraville, to All Saints Church, Cardigan, where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated at 9:30 by his nephew, Rev. Owen Sharkey, Halifax.

Rev. Francis Corcoran was Deacon of the Mass, Rev. Reginald Phelan Sub-Deacon, and Rev. Eric Robin, Master of Ceremonies.

Rt. Rev. P. MacMahon and Rev. M. J. Rooney occupied seats in the Sanctuary.

Interment took place in the church cemetery where the graveside services were conducted by Father Corcoran.

Pallbearers were Harold Redmond, Joseph McAulay, John Ployer, Hugh McEachern, Daniel Wilson and Earl MacDonald.

PROMINENT FARMER

One of the Cardigan district's most prominent and successful farmers, the late Mr. Sharkey died suddenly last Friday afternoon at St. Peter's, where he had been residing the past two years. He was in his 83rd year.

Survivors include his widow, the former Annie Fitzgerald of Morell; five sons: J. Edward, St. Peter's; John C., Morell; James W., Winnipeg; Gerald B., Corraville; and Dr. Patrick, Kitchener, Ontario; and two daughters: Mary, Mrs. Peter Phelan, Morell Rear; and Marguerite, Mrs. Michael MacDonald, De Gros Marsh.

A sixth son, Cletus, was killed in Italy during World War Two.

Other survivors include three brothers: Edward J., Roxbury, Mass.; and Charles M., and Wilfrid, both residing in Winnipeg; and two sisters: Sister Mary Wilfrid, a member of the Order of St. Joseph, Randolph, Mass.; and Margaret, Mrs. Aneas McManus, Vancouver, B. C.

Two brothers, Peter A., and Owen F., and one sister, Mrs. D. J. Mullin, pre-deceased him.

The funeral of the late Mr. Sharkey was one of the largest seen in the Cardigan district in many years.

Borden Man Gets 6 Days

SUMMERSIDE — A Borden man, convicted on a charge of obstructing a police officer in the discharge of his duty, drew a six-day sentence when he appeared in Magistrate's Court here yesterday morning.

Having been in custody since his arrest last Wednesday the accused had already served his six-day term and agreed to leave the province for Ontario.

A Summerside man was fined $50 and costs for driving a motor vehicle without an operator's license. He also pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to register his motor vehicle and was fined an additional $5.

A Summerside man pleaded guilty to failing to have his vehicle's licence plates properly displayed and drew a fine of $5 and costs.

PLANE FORCED DOWN

OTTAWA (CP) — The RCMP reported Monday one of its Otter aircraft, based at Frobisher Bay, on Baffin Island, made a successful forced landing after blowing a gasket in the air. The plane was forced down on Lake Harbor, about 15 miles north of Frobisher Bay. There were eight persons aboard. None were injured.

Award-Winning Cameraman Is Former Alberton Resident

ALBERTON — Lorne Pridham, a native of Alberton now residing in Fredericton, N. B., has achieved considerable success in the field of professional photography since leaving Prince Edward Island a few years ago.

A consistent winner of prizes for photography in Dominion and Provincial competitions Mr. Pridham has recently received the Eaton Award for the outstanding photograph submitted from New Brunswick in the Commercial Press Photographers of Canada Inc. show; also a Globe and Mail trophy for the outstanding photo submitted in the spot news class.

During three successive years 1954-55 and 56 he has won the first award of merit in the T. Eaton competition in Toronto open to all professional photograpers in Canada.

Mr. Pridham is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Perley Pridham formerly of Huntley now residing in St. John, N. B. He is married to Eleanor Hammond, daughter of a former minister of O'Leary Nazarene Church.

A. W. Nicholson Dies Suddenly

MONTAGUE — The sudden death occurred yesterday of Angus Webb Nicholson, in the Kings County Memorial Hospital. He was in his 57th year.

The late Mr. Nicholson was a well-known farmer of Whim Road where he spent his entire life. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Nicholson and was a member of the Church of Christ.

He leaves to mourn his wife, the former Verna Shaw of Brudenell; four sons, Lyman, Vernon and Cecil at home and Barry, who has been serving with the Royal Canadian Air Force in Germany for the past two years.

Funeral arrangements will be completed later.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD DIES

CORNER BROOK (CP)— Thomas White, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher White of nearby Stephenville, died in hospital Monday, eight hours after he was hit by a car.

DEATH NOTICE

MISS CLARA E. DONALD

The death occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital of Miss Clara E. Donald, who on April 1st, 1959 passed from this life to be at rest in the Heavenly Home of many mansions. The deceased, who was 80 years of age, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas Donald of Malpeque, P. E. I. and was a member of a family of ten — eight sons and two daughters.

She received her education in Baltic School and grew to womanhood in her father's home. In early life she became a faithful member of Princetown Presbyterian Church and was always a regular attendant at divine services. After the death of her parents, and later her brother James, she usually made her home with her brother, Melville.

During her life time it was her lot to be the victim of ill-health. Through all her sickness she had the sympathy of her many friends. For a considerable time before her fatal illness she had been in failing health. On March 29th, she suffered a stroke and passed away three days later without regaining consciousness.

The surviving members of the family are her sister, Minnie, Mrs. Nelson Ramsay, Melville, Alberton and Dr. Stanley K. Donald, Moncton.

The funeral service was held in Princetown United Church and was conducted by Rev. L. M. Murray, Kensington, assisted by Dr. A. S. Weir. The pall bearers were: Keith Donald, William E. Donald, James A. Ramsay, Waldon Davison, Horace Glover and Everett Donald. Interment was in the People's Cemetery, Malpeque.

CD Exercise Is Scheduled On Weekend

A nation-wide 25-hour civil defence exercise will start Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

The exercise will be a test of the national attack warning system, a direct landline communication from Air Defence Command headquarters to provincial and target city headquarters across Canada.

The exercise will run continuously until Saturday noon with approximately 3,000 volunteers from coast to coast participating.

P. E. I. headquarters is in the control room office of civil defence co-ordinator Orin Simons in the Provincial Building. Key workers will assemble there to start the 25-hour watch.

The Island's "ham" radio operators will also play a key role in the exercise.

Clean-Up Work Is Slated Today

SUMMERSIDE — The work of cleaning up debris and excavation will begin today at the site of the new Stedman store here it was learned yesterday.

A representative of the builders, Kenny Construction, arrived in Summerside Tuesday. He said local labor and construction equipment will be employed for the work.

He said actual construction of the buiding should commence in less than two weeks.

Illness Foils Airmen's Bid To Enter Run

SUMMERSIDE — A running temperature cancelled the plans of Corporal Dennis A. Staff, of RCAF Station, Summerside, from running in the 26-mile Boston Marathon on Monday, according to information received in Summerside yesterday.

Corporal Dennis, who went to Boston to compete in the famed cross country run, was not among the 150 starters, because of his illness.

Instead of testing his hopes to be among the leading runners completing the race, he had the disappointing experience of hearing about its conclusion from his hospital bed in Boston.

ELEPHANT'S SIZE

The largest elephant on record stood 13 feet 2 inches at the shoulder, and weighed about 12 tons.

Shipping Service To Start Friday

A shipping service between Prince Edward Island and north shore points is expected to be started Friday with the arrival in Charlottetown of the MV Brion to load general produce.

The service is being directed by the department of industry and natural resources.

The Brion, which has a capacity of 550 tons and can carry 30 tons of chilled and frozen meats, will call at two Island ports on each visit and will pick up cargo wherever a sufficient quantity warrants a stop.

The ship will stop at Charlottetown and Summerside on her first trip, but future visits will include stops at Georgetown and Montague.

A large portion of the first cargo will be made up of potatoes, turnips and other vegetables.

The director of trade, William Partridge, and a number of dealers will be making the first trip. There will be seven ports of call along the St. Lawrence north shore and Gaspe coast. The service will be maintained on a 15-day basis.

The industry department will carry an ad in the press this week to inform dealers of details of shipping and times of sailing.

Hospital Plan Presentation Slated Soon

Prince Edward Island's Hospital insurance plan will be presented to the federal government the latter part of this month or early in May Hon. M. L. Bonnell, minister of health, said yesterday.

Dr. L. E. Prowse, chairman of the Island Hospital Services Commission, and deputy health minister Dr. O. H. Curtis are now in Ottawa discussing with federal authorities regulaitons pertaining to the Hospital Insurance Act.
