Tottenham Hotspur Cops Famed Football Ass'n Cup

LONDON (Reuters) — Tottenham Hotspur of London, the glamor team of English soccer, defeated Burnley 3-1 before 100,000 fans at Wembley Stadium Saturday to win the coveted Football Association Cup for the second consecutive year.

Spurs, who have a reputation for winning the games that count, are only the second team this century to win the cup in successive years. Newcastle accomplished the feat in 1951-52.

The Tottenham win once again makes them eligible for the European cup-winners' tournament next year.

Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip watched the match from the royal box and presented the cup to Tottenham captain Danny Blanchflower, who scored Spurs' third goal on a penalty kick.

TAKE EARLY LEAD

Jimmy Greaves, little inside-right with a magic scoring touch whom Tottenham bought for £100,000 from an Italian team earlier this season, put the winners ahead 1-0 only three minutes after the game started.

Burnley's Jimmy Robson tied it shortly after halftime, but Bobby Smith made it 2-1 only a minute later. Blanchflower's goal came 10 minutes before the final whistle.

The game, played on a dry field in sultry weather, was a dream final for English soccer fans and a fitting climax to the English soccer season.

Though neither Tottenham nor Burnley finished on top of the First Division this year, they are generally considered the best teams in England.

Burnley, from the industrial north of England, led the league most of the season and had a chance to equal Spurs' historic feat of last year when they won both the Cup and the league championship.

Burnley was nosed out in the final games by unrated Ipswich for the league title, but the luck of the draw kept them from meeting Tottenham in the Cup competition — run separately from league play — until the final.

Red Wings Blank Edmonton 3-0

GUELPH (CP) — Hamilton Red Wings moved to within one game of their first Memorial Cup championship with a 3-0 win over Edmonton Oil Kings Saturday night in the fourth game of the best-of-seven series. Hamilton now leads the finals 3-1.

Red Wings' power play clicked for a pair of third-period goals just 36 seconds apart to wrap up the decision after Lowell MacDonald, of Thorburn, N.S., had scored in the second frame to give Wings a 1-0 lead. MacDonald with his second and Pit Martin were the third period marksmen.

Buddy Blom registered the first shutout of the series which now moves to Kitchener for the fifth game next Tuesday night.

Wings' checking line of Jimmy Peters, Earl Heiskala and Wayne Rivers tied up Edmonton's line of Butch Paul, Marc Dufour and Norm Beaudin that scored three of Kings' goals in their Thursday win, and the Hamilton penalty killers nullified the Edmonton power play.

SCORES ON SCREENED SHOT

Wings broke the game wide open near the midway mark of the third period when MacDonald whipped in a screen shot while Edmonton was shorthanded. A delayed penalty was called just prior to the goal so the penalty being served remained in effect and Martin ran the count to 3-0 when he broke in off left wing and beat the Edmonton goalie.

Wings went ahead at the 4:38 mark of the second period with the only goal of that period.

MacDonald, who had missed on a couple of great chances, rapped in Martin's rebound at the edge of the crease.

Rare Bowling Victory

One of the high school teachers' rare bowling victories occurred last Wednesday evening, and it was a real cliff-hanger. We beat a combination of town police and mounties by one pin. To be perfectly fair, and also to avoid arguments or parking tickets, we must admit our more generous handicaps were what really downed the forces of law and order. Anyway, it was an instance that proved that the mounties don't always get their man. Shucks, they don't always get their counterpin.

Did you know that softball pitchers in Ontario must wear black so that the batter can more readily see the ball coming at him? When a really fast pitcher is out there, that melon does seem to arrive in a shredded second. (That, folks, is smaller than a split second.) The batter's wits can't hold a summit conference to decide whether the projectile is high, low, wide or in the strike zone. His decision whether or where to swing and his swing are almost instantaneous. It's probably wise to give the batter a break at the expense of the pitcher under the circumstances.

Casey Lacks 'Horses'

We've said it before, and we'll say it again: miracle coaches don't need a magic wand as much as they need a lot of star performers to keep their reputations high. Poor old Casey Stengel is proving that almost every day with his Mets. The question is: can the old fellow take all that exercise going out to the pitcher's mound so often to pep up or remove the faltering pitcher? Casey is a colorful character, and there was always something dramatic about his trudging out to one of his beleaguered Yankee pitchers. The scene loses some of its color when it gets to be a parade.

One of our favorite expressions was: "To be successful, you've got to have the horses", but maybe we've been using the wrong metaphor. Saturday, to make the Kentucky Derby more interesting a group of us put some small change on the several horses, and we were discussing our chances of success. The lady who was on Decidedly wasn't given much of a chance till someone said: "Don't forget Billy Hartack is up on Decidedly." We didn't.

Team Interested In League

Another team besides Holman's and the Bank-Finance group is interested in the "Social" Softball League. "The Mathesons" would like to come in. Elmer, town policeman, and his brother Eric from Slemon Park, members of their families, and a few other relatives have a team they feel could hold its own in the "Social" group.

Jack Fox, manager of MacKenzie's Maritime softball champs, is brimming over with confidence this year. Approximately 40 boys turned out for the first practice session. It might be quite a problem pruning that squad down to 18, but they should be a pretty select group when the process of elimination is completed. The RCAF team should provide stout opposition, and Gaudet's Save-Easies still have hopes of molding a championship team.

Decidedly Shatters Mark In Winning Derby Classic

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Decidedly, a California grey colt trained by Argentine-born Horatio Luro, pulled away from the leaders in the final 16th of a mile Saturday and won the 88th Kentucky Derby by clipping a full second off Whirlaway's 1941 track record.

Jockey Bill Hartack piloted the winner—a son of the 1954 derby winner Determine—to a 2¼-length victory over Roman Line which was closing in at the finish.

Ridan, the heavy favorite of a throng estimated at better than 100,000 finished third in a rousing windup to the $162,150 classic.

Only necks separated Roman Line, ridan and he fourth horse, British-bred Sir Ribot, another West Coast horse.

Decidedly, owned by the El Peco Ranch of George A. Pope Jr., of Maderia, Calif., smashed home in 2:00 2-5 for the gruelling 1¼-mile run. This was the fastest derby since the famous run for the roses was inaugurated in 1875 and it smashed the 2:01 2-5 clocking that had stood since Calumet Farm's famed Whirlaway routed 10 rivals and won by eight lengths 21 years ago.

GREAT SURPRISE

Roman Line, owned by T. A. Grissom of Detroit and ridden by Jimmy Combest, was a great surprise as he was appearing in his fourth race in two weeks. He won at Kenneland April 16, was third behind Ridan and Decidedly in the Blue Grass Stakes April 26, and last Tuesday demolished his competition by winning the derby trial stakes by six lengths over a sloppy track here at Churchhill Downs.

Ridan is owned by Mrs. Moody Jolley of Miami Springs, Fla., E. H. Woods of Birmingham, Ala., and J. L. Greer of Knoxville, Tenn. He was ridden by Manuel Ycaza.

Ridan became the favorite when Sir Gaylord broke a bone in his ankle and was withdrawn.

The winner returned $19.40, $8.20 and $4.20 for the biggest derby payoff since Dark Star upset Native Dancer in 1953 and returned $51.80 straight.

Roman Line paid $19.20 and $7.60 and Ridan $3.

It was the third derby victory for Hartack.

Decidedly never had won a major race but he showed prominence last winter at Hialeah in Florida. He finished second to Sir Gaylord and ahead of Ridan in the Everglades Stakes and then was out of training with a minor injury which kept him from the Flamingo and later the Florida Derby, won by Ridan at Gulfstream Park.

BIG PRIZE

The victory in the 15-horse event was worth $119,650 to the El Peco Ranch. This boosted Decidedly's earnings for the year to $136,580.

At the start of Saturday's race, run under sunny skies in 80-degree weather and over a lightning fast track, the J. V. P. Stable's Lee Town went to the front almost immediately.

With hoofs pounding and the dust flying, the field swept by the stands with Lee Town, Sunrise County, the second choice, Admiral's Voyage and Ridan showing the way.

Lee Town held his lead going into the back stretch as Ridan came up outside and began to challenge. Ridan forced the pace down the back stretch as he fought for the lead and going into the far turn attempted to veer out from the rail. Roman Line, meanwhile, was getting in the act as Lee Town suddenly ran out of gas.

Admiral's Voyage, ridden by Braulio Baeza, and Sunrise County, with Willie Shoemaker up, were joined by Ridan as they whipped around the final bend.

The three horses charged head and head to the head of the stretch where te race ad begun.

But Hartack knew were to find the winner's circle. He brought Decidedly bouncing down on the outside of the leaders and, putting them away one by one, he shoved his nose in front to score a thrilling victory.

'HAD IT'

"We had it, didn't we?" yelled the excited Hartack as he rode back to the victory circle.

Luro, his trainer, aid "we always were confident about this horse. He brought him to win."

Luro was confident all week that Decidedly would be near the top. He came close in the 1960 derby when he trained Canada's three-year - old star, Victoria Park.

Ycaza, who was aboard the favorite Saturday, rode Victoria Park on that occasion and the Canadian colt owned by Toronto's e. p. taylor finished third as Hartack steered Venetian Way to victory over Bally Ache.

Sunrise County finished fifth, followed by Crimson Satan, Green Hornet, Good Fight, Admiral's Voyage, Royal Attack, Touch Bar, Lee Town, Mister Pitt, Sharp Count. Prego pulled up in the final eighth of a mile.

4 Countries Clinch Davis Cup Victories

LONDON (AP)—Russia, Germany, Denmark and Finland clinched first round victories Sunday in the European zone of the Davis Cup tournament.

The tennis players of the four nations joined eight other teams who had sewed up triumphs Saturday, and four who had received first round byes.

The Russians, making their debut in the Davis Cup competition followed up their two singles victories Saturday with a double triumph Sunday for an unbeatable 3-0 lead over The Netherlands at The Hague.

The final two singles matches will be played today.

This appears to be the end of the line for the Russians, however. They will meet Italy's European zone champions in the second round in Italy, May 18-20. Italy, France, Britain and Sweden drew the first round byes.

Germany defeated Spain 3-2 at Madrid, Denmark eliminated New Zealand 4-1 at Copenhagen and Finland beat Lebanon 4-1 at Beirut in matches that were decided Sunday.

INDIA WINS EAST

India swept the final two singles contests from the Philippines at New Delhi to complete a 5-0 rout of the eastern zone finals.

In the other European zone series, the victors, who had assured their advancement by taking 3-0 leads in the best-of-five competitions, went through the formality of playing out the final two singles contests.

Brazil defeated Monaco 5-0 at Monte Carlo; Hungary defeated Luxembourg 5-0 at Budapest; Romania defeated Israel 4-1 at Bucharest; South Africa defeated Switzerland 4-1 at Lausanne; Belgium defeated Chile 4-1 at Brussels; Austria defeated Ireland 4-1 at Dublin, and Czechoslovakia defeated the United Arab Republic 4-1 at Prague. Poland leads Norway 3-0 at Oslo where rain forced a postponement of Sunday's last two singles contests.

Elliott Runs Poor Race; May Retire

CAMBRIDGE, England (Reuters)—Australian Herb Elliott, former world record miler, trailed the field throughout in an 880-yard race today and finished 35 yards behind the winner Les Armstrong of England. Armstrong's time was 53.5 seconds.

Elliot, who ran for Cambridge University, later said he was not in condition, and it would probably be his last race of the season, and possibly of his career.

Elliott, who has never been beaten over one mile or 1,500 metres, announced last month he was retiring from international athletics.

Cards Acquire Bobby Shantz

CINCINNATI (AP)—St. Louis Cardinals acquired veteran left-handed pitcher Bobby Shantz from Houston Sunday in a trade for righthanded pitcher John Anderson and outfielder Carl Warwick. No cash was involved.

The much-travelled, 36-year-old Shantz had been picked up by Houston from Pittsburgh in the National League's expansion draft. He had a 1-1 record for Houston. Shantz had played with Philadelphia Athletics, Kansas City, New York Yankees and Pittsburgh before coming to Houston.

Warwick, 25, was used mainly in pinch-hitting roles this year. He has a .348 batting mark on eight hits in 23 at bats. Anderson, 29, was used in relief. He was 0-0 for the season. The Cards had drafted Anderson from Rochester of the International League.

Bid Made Smokies

TRAIL, B.C. (CP)—A chance to represent Canada in the 1963 world amateur hockey championships in Stockholm was offered Saturday to Trail Smoke Eaters.

The offer to the newly-crowned Allan Cup champions was made by Gordon Juckes, secretary-manager of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association.

Executives of the Trail team said decision on whether to accept the invitation will be made near the end of the month by the new team officers.

Smoke Eaters, who captured the Allan Cup Friday night by defeating Montreal Olympics in the fifth game of the best-of-seven final series, have twice held the world crown.

Palmer Wins Rich Tourney

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Arnold Palmer holed a 25-foot putt for a birdie on the final hole Sunday to win the $58,000 Tournament of Champions golf show and defeated Billy Casper in a spectacular head-to-head duel.

The two former U.S. Open champions came to the final hole all even.

But Palmer, putting from the edge of the green while a gallery of more than 9,000 watched, sank his last putt to win the $11,000 jackpot. Palmer got a birdie three for a four-under-par 68 and a 72-hole total of 276.

Casper got a par four on the hole, also a 68 for the day, and a total of 277 for second-place money of $5,800.

Stewart came out with a 68 for 279. Sanders had a 70 for 280.
