36 Donors Register
For Red Cross Clinics

Yesterday's concluding sessions of the Red Cross blood donor clinics held at Zion Church hall in Charlottetown were very busy ones when 36 donors registered to top the day's objective of 270 by 93.

The grand total for the three days was 1,106 which was 45 over the original quota of 1,061, although the actual number of bottles collected was considerably less due to the unusually large number of rejects.

Freemont Archer, chairman of the Red Cross blood donor committee for Charlottetown, stated last night that he was delighted with the overall response, especially in view of the fact that the first day's results had been rather discouraging.

On a charge of illegally having liquor in his possession a quantity of $200 in a place other than a duty-free shop.

Two were sentenced to 30 days with sentences suspended for a period in order to give the men time to leave town, and the other was given the $20 and costs fine or ten days in jail, option.

Seal Hunting
Sets Record

QUEBEC (CP) — More than 25,000 seal pelts worth an estimated $90,000 have been handled on the Magdalen Islands since March 1 in what appears to be a record season.

Seal hunting ends April 30 in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The hunt this year has seen one life lost in a plane crash on the ice. Two other hunters were also wrecked.

Twenty light planes, five helicopters and at least seven sampans have taken part in the hunt. The ships, which have taken an estimated 75,000 pelts, will return with them to Nova Scotia where the processing is done.

Magdalen hunters operated from small boats or the planes, which left them in the seal packs each day and picked up the pelts before ferrying them to shore.

The men make about 50 cents a pelt.

Visitor Sentenced To Term
For Assaulting Magistrate

Loriner Moreman, Alabama, U.S.A., displayed a belligerent attitude in city police court yesterday when he was charged with the assault of James B. Johnston, Queen's county magistrate.

Magistrate A. J. Haslam presided.

He refused to enter a plea to the charge and continuously interrupted the Crown witnesses during their testimony.

Crown witness Constable Charles M. Clark, of the Charlottetown detachment of the RCMP, testified that Wednesday in Queen's county magistrate's court the accused had attacked Magistrate Johnston when the magistrate had ordered him removed from the courtroom because of his shouting. He was appearing on a charge of

On taking the stand in his own defense, the accused admitted he had assaulted the magistrate. He was convicted and sentenced to three months in Queen's county jail.

Queens candidate says
'Liberals Irresponsible'

Charges of "irresponsibility" were hurled at the Liberal party by Queens County PC candidate Keith MacQuarrie, leader of the Progressive Conservative movement in a newly-renovated York Hill hall last night.

Mr. MacQuarrie said the Liberals, in forcing an election at this time, had blocked the passage of "useful legislation" which was to have been introduced by the government.

He said there was now "no talk" by the opposition about the devaluation of the dollar.

Mr. MacQuarrie referred to a speech made before the United Nations Economic and Social Council by Per Jacobsson, who is reported as stating Canada's foreign exchange reserves were in a better condition than before the 1962 monetary crisis.

DENIES INDICATION
Denying Liberal accusations of government indecision, Mr. MacQuarrie pointed to instances of government action with regard to aid to the province, including the Atlantic Provinces grant, roads to resources program, education grants, and the Newfoundland casework.

Hon. J. Angus MacLean, speaking on foreign trade, stated that Canada had reached a favorable trade balance for the second year in succession under the Conservatives, and said economic indicators were all up.

Also present at the meeting were Premier Walter Shaw, Hon. Andrew MacLean, minister of agriculture, and Russell Driscoll, M.L.A. Premier Shaw said P.E.I. had received excellent treatment under the hands of a Conservative federal government, and that this favorable treatment had been extended to both Liberal and Conservative provincial governments.

He appealed to those present to vote on election day, as it was, in his opinion, the only way to get the government out of the Liberal party, which failed to hold seats in every province, was not a national party; it was a party of the Liberal party.

Ministerial entertainment was provided by Mrs. Jack Carr, Mrs. Fred Ford and John Carr, who sang solo; Mrs. Lloyd Vessey on the accordion, and Pauline Currie, step dance. Refreshments were served.

Program Audit Gives
Charlottetown 'Y' Top Rating

The Charlottetown YMCA placed first in the athletics and second in the beginner and intermediate swimming sections of the Canadian YMCA's physical education program audit this year.

The announcement was made in Toronto recently by J. W. MacVicar, director of physical education of the Canadian National Council on YMCA.

The audit was carried out in the areas of leadership, beginner and advanced swimming, and a comparative report with 19 other YMCA's across Canada with the same facilities.

The local association obtained 9033 points and this is nearly double the Canadian average of 4823 points.

The fitness program at the Charlottetown YMCA is meeting with a great deal of success. Such a large number of ladies were attending the "almslamic" classes held on Tuesday and Thursday nights, that this year more classes had to be organized for Monday and Wednesday afternoons.

All the classes, both afternoon and evening, are followed by a swim period where instruction is available for both beginner and advanced swimmers.

Jack Turner, well known local physical education instructor, has been an instructing evening classes for the last six years.
