LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

"All Saints Day"—to-day.

A large lot of Waltham Watches, in solid Silver Cases, at $20 and upwards, warranted as usual, by W. W. Wellner.—6 in.

W. W. Wellner has just received a splendid assortment of Electro-Plated Goods, the finest yet offered.—6 in.

Presentation.—While in Virginia City, J. H. Fletcher, Esq., of the Argus, was presented by old Island friends, with a gold-headed cane.

Attention is called to Messrs. McKenzie & Stumbles' Auction of Ladies Furs, Dry Goods, etc., at their sale room, Grafton St., this (Monday) evening, at 7 o'clock.

Sudden Death.—Mrs. Twining, wife of H. C. D Twining, Esq., Clerk of the House of Assembly of Nova Scotia, died very suddenly of heart disease, on Thursday last.

Snow.—A light flurry of snow—the first for the season—fell in Charlottetown, on Friday last. Three inches of snow fell at Quebec, on the night of the previous Wednesday.

Obituary.—We mourn the loss of a fellow printer and journalist. Mr. James McMurtry, of the Summerside Journal is dead. He died on Tuesday last. Mr. McMurtry was generally respected.

A Literary and Musical Entertainment will be given in Y.M.C.A. Hall, on Wednesday evening next. It is understood that Mrs. Robinson, who is well known as a first-class public reader, will assist.

Railway Petitions.—We understand that petitions for the Belfast and Murray Harbor Railway, are being numerously signed and already forwarded to the Clerk of the Executive Council.

Personal.—Hon. John Lefurgey and daughter have returned from a cruise in England, to their home in Summerside. W. S. McNeill, M.P.P., of Rustico, has gone on a pleasure trip to California.

The Street Corner Nuisance continues unabated. How long will loafers be permited to loaf systematically on our street corners—to the terror of passing ladies, the disgust of decent men, and the disgrace of the police?

Mud and Incompetency in the Council.—A resident, jubilant in the belief that the City Council was at last about to repair Water Street, near the Railway Station, felt a sudden depression of spirits when informed by the laborers that they were only "diggin' sand for Morrisey's Foundry."

Fire.—The barn on Rosebank Farm (near Southport) was destroyed by fire, on Monday evening last. It belonged to Mr. W. Stewart, of the firm of George Davies & Co. Mr. James McGee, the tenant, lost his crop—the result of his year's labor, valued at $1,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Water Question.—Mr. Murdoch, C. E., and his son, have been engaged for the past few weeks, in making surveys, etc., with the view of procuring a supply of water for this city. Their report is not yet published. But it is whispered that they pronounce against the "Winter River scheme."

Charlottetown Debating Club.—Members and others wishing to join the Club, will please meet at Scott's Hall, on Friday, 5th November, at 7½ p.m., to elect officers and to reorganise the Club for the ensuing season.

By order,
Thomas May, Secretary

Mr. S. F. Kendall will (D.V.,) deliver a Biblical Lecture in Union Hall, on Tuesday (to-morrow) evening next, at 7½ o'clock. Mr. K. will also preach on next Lord's Day evening, at 6½ o'clock.

N.B.—Bible Reading meeting on Thursday evening, and Lord's Day morning. Meeting for worship and "Breaking of Bread" as usual.

Accident.—An accident happened at the station, on Tuesday morning last. As a train of empty cars was being taken into the yard, one of the large doors at the east end of the station broke loose, and swinging to caught on the end of the first car. From the weight of the cars and engine and the empetus they had at the time, the end of the station was driven out, before the train could be stopped.

The Premier was in St. John on Friday evening. He was feasted and toasted; and he made a speach. We regret to learn that he is not coming to Charlottetown. Mr. Laird has completely failed to explain the "big push' letter which Hon. George Brown was urged to write, or to throw any light whatever, on the "Steel Rail Scandal." Perhaps the Premier would be more accommodating.

Personal.—Mr. William C. Wilson, of London, has arrived at Charlottetown to take his place as third master in St. Peters's Boys' School.—J. H. Fletcher, Esq., of the Argus, returned home on Saturday night. He looks well after his trip to San Francisco. Mr. Angus McLean—lately a student in the office of Hon. W. W. Sullivan—passed a very creditable matriculation examination at Harvard University. He was admitted as a student of the second year.

Our Streets.—Mr. Campbell's book contains the following heavy and timely hit at Charlottetown—its sidewalks and its perfumes:—

One word about Charlottetown. If the city were to represent the intelligence and enterprise of the fair and fertile isle of which it is the capital, it would be celebrated in the Dominion for the excellence of its sidewalks, its copious supply of water, its thorough system of drainage, and the salubrity of its atmosphere. Since our arrival on the island, our head has been more than once in danger of coming into violent contact with the dilapidased wooden structure beneath. "I smell you in the dark," said Johnston to Boswell, as they walked on one of the then unwatered and undrained streets of Edinburgh, and certainly, the redolence of Charlottetown can hardly with truth be said to be elysian.

"Our Best Companions."—The lecture delivered by R. L. Wetherbe, Esq., of Halifax, in the Y.M.C.A. Hall, on Monday last, entitled "Our Best Companions," was short and sweet. He said that our best companions were books,—sensible and instructive ones, not the trash that you get for ten cents. Before the invention of printing, books were very scarce and very dear, costing from two to three thousand dollars each volume. In the fifteenth century, Louis the Ninth of France had four books, which, in those days was considered quite a number. After the invention of printing, however, the case was altered. Books increased rapidly. It is reckoned that there are abut twenty millions of books in Europe; and knowledge, instead of being thought a disgrace, and confined to a few monks, is distributed among all classes, and over the whole continent. The lecturer was warmly congratulated by Hon. Judge Hensley, (who occupied the chair) Chas. Palmer, W. D. Stewart and F. W. Hales, Esquires. The thanks of the audiance were unanimously accorded him.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The Land Commission resumes to-morrow.

Charlottetown Markets.—Oats quiet at 40 cts.; barley 75 cts.; potatoes 25 cts.

Church Burned.—We regret to learn that the fine new Catholic Church at Hope River, was destroyed by fire on Friday night last.

Montreal West Election.—It is reported by telegraph that Mr. Workman was elected on Saturday, by about fifty votes.

Halifax Markets.—At an auction sale by Mr. Edward Lawson, 28th ult., potatoes sold at 35 cents a bushel, oats 50 cents, and turnips 27 cents.

At the Union House, 28 Queen Stree, is the largest and best stock of Meerschaum, Briar and fancy Pipes, wholesale and retail, also fresh Bedeque Oysters. 3in

Referred Back.—The case of the Government vs. James F. Montgomery, Esq., has been, by the Supreme Court, referred back to the Commissioners for reconsideration. The plea was that the Commissioners in making their award, did not take into consideration all the arrears of rent due Mr. Montgomery.

Fire at Cascumpec.—We regret to learn that a large warehouse and forge belonging to Hon J. C. Pope's establishment, at Cascumpec Point—together with all their contents, except a few coils of rope and a few tools—were destroyed by fire, on Sunday morning last. The fire broke out at five o'clock, before many of the men were stirring, and its origin is not yet known. The warehouse contained a complete suit of rigging for the new barque just ready to launch—besides a lot of valuable merchandize. The loss is impossible to estimate. At this late season it is peculiarly embarrassing.
