THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JANUARY 11, 1895

THE SUMMERSIDE TRAIN.

It is pleasing to learn that, as a first result of the appointment of the Hon. Donald Ferguson to a seat in the Cabinet, the train between Summerside and Charlottetown is to be restored in the near future—probably about the first of February. This result will be particularly satisfactory to the people of Charlottetown and Summerside, and to all those between the two who come and go by rail. Moreover, it will be beneficial to the railway to continue a paying train. That the Minister of Railways should ever have consented to a change involving the loss of one of the most serviceable and remunerative trains, shows how important it is that members of the Cabinet should have at hand men well acquainted with the circumstances of this Province and able to give them reliable advice.

It is also stated that the Hon. Mr. Ferguson's good offices are likely to result in a material reduction of the rates of passage and freight charged on board the steamship Stanley. At any rate, Senator Ferguson has the matter in hand, and will, we have no doubt, submit cogent arguments in favor of a change calculated to increase the usefulness of our winter steamer.

We have no doubt that all, Grits as well as Tories—even the editor of the Patriot and Mr. L. H. Davies—will be glad when they hear that the new Minister has been successful in respect to these matters.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Most of the Oppositian journals, when declaiming about the public debt, are silent concerning the fact that $109,000,000 was the amount due by the Provinces and assumed by the Dominion at the time of the union. They are silent, too, about the fact that $33,000,000 were added to the public debt while the Grits were in power. Moreover, they fail to point out that the $62,000,000 expended upon the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the $44,000,000 expended upon the Intercolonial Railway, and the $36,000,000 expended in the construction of canals, are in the nature of investments yielding direct and indirect advantages to Canada, the value of which is incalculable.

In point of fact every dollar added to the public debt since the Liberal-Conservative Government attained to power is represented in the public works of the country. While Sir Richard Cartwright was Finance Minister, there was a series of annual deficits on current account, to meet which additions were made to the public debt. But since the advent of the Liberal-Conservatives the deficits of some years have been met, and more than met, by the surpluses of other years.

THE GUARDIAN AND THE TARIFF ISSUE.

We do not at all complain about the Guardian's partial and misleading quotations from The Examiner's courteous replies to its questions. Such tactics convey to the discriminating mind the idea that the advocate resorting to them and to the use of words like "donkey," "sophistry," "whines," etc., is either of weak intellect or has a weak case. The first hypothesis cannot, of course, be assumed in respect to the Guardian; and, therefore, the public are forced to the conclusion that that highly intelligent journal has taken up a cause which cannot be maintained in fair and reasonable argument. As this is the right conclusion—the conclusion that The Examiner desires the people to draw—the Guardian's manner of discussion pleases us well, and we shall proceed to answer its third question:

"Since Protection lowers the price of goods, why do the manufacturers want free trade in the materials they import?"

It is to be remembered that the operation of protection in lowering prices is indirect. A correspondent of The Examiner brought forward a case, the other day, in which the price of certain goods has been reduced more than a half as a result of the 35 per cent. duty imposed on the same class of goods manufactured abroad, thus giving the home manufacturers encouragement to extend their business, enlarge their output and compete with each other. The benefit resulting to purchasers of these goods is very great and very tangible, even though it was brought about in an indirect way, through the operation of the tariff. But a tax upon the raw materials used by manufacturers comes directly out of the manufacturers' pockets, and there is nothing directly or indirectly, to be gained by it, while it may result in the downfall of many factories and a consequent loss to the country. There are no means of avoiding it, and no means of getting it back again except by adding it to the prices which the consumers pay. In this fact we have the reason why manufacturers want free raw materials and why all consumers of home manufactured articles are interested in having free raw materials. That is, we venture to say, the reason why Mr. Laurier will find the manufacturers and the consumers alike arrayed against his avowed policy of taxing raw materials.

—The Watchman calls attention to delay "with respect to the vacant seat in the Peters Government," and asks: "What have the Irish supporters of Mr. Fred. Peters and Mr. Arthur Peters to say about this treatment of Mr. McLaughlan?" It is suggested that the delay is due to a belief that Mr. McLaughlan is not a man to tamely "knuckle down" to the autocratic Premier.

100 pieces Flannellette yet in stock, they have got to go, and so they are going fast. The are the Best Value ever seen in this city.—Prowse Bros.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—The people of Newfoundland are beginning to think whether they had better seek admission into the Dominion of Canada or go back to the position of a crown colony. Some persons propose the appointment of a commission to decide upon the best cause to be pursued.

—If the British should interfere with the progress of the Japanese, the war in the east will ere long be decidedly interesting. The Japanese have made a mistake in declining to make terms of peace; and in butchering thousands of unarmed Chinese citizens of Port Arthur in cold blood they have lost the sympathy and admiration of the civilized world.

—In the Christian Herald of 19th December, 1894, appeared the following beautiful lines, written by the late Rev. Dr. Jenkins, of this city. It is to be regretted that a collection of the venerable Doctor's verses has not been made and published. It is not yet too late to do so.

WHY SHOULD I MOURN?

Why should I mourn the dread decree,
That mortal dust ere long should be
To kindred dust consigned?
Why should I dread that peaceful rest,
Where pains and griefs no more molest,
Or fears distract the mind?

A captive exile here I roam,
Far from my Father's happy home,
Where heavenly spirits dwell;
Where streams of pleasure ever flow,
And bliss alone that saints can know,
Or tongues of seraphs tell.

Teach me, O Lord, whilst here I stay,
To keep in view that awful day,
Which sets my Spirit free;
So may I number all my days,
Apply my heart to wisdom's ways,
And ever live to Thee.

Rev L. C. Jenkins.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

LETTER FROM CYRUS SHAW, M. L. A

Sir,—In reply to "Shareholder," that appeared in the Weekly Patriot of the 10th inst., I may state that no association under the name and title of "The New Perth Cheese Factory Co." is or has been in existence in New Perth, so that the company of which he is a shareholder only exists in the diseased imagination of the writer in Thursday's issue.

In regard to "The New Perth Dairying Company," by the Act of Incorporation the annual meeting takes place on the third Tuesday of January in each year. These meetings have been advertised in the Patriot and Examiner by John Hamilton, Esq., secretary, with the accuracy and punctuality for which that gentleman is distinguished; and if "Shareholder" neither reads the Patriot nor The Examiner, he must be a remnant of the "Dark Ages."

Notwithstanding that the day of the annual meeting last year was very stormy, a considerable number of shareholders assembled at the schoolhouse according to notice. After the meeting was organized it was deemed advisable to adjourn to meet again the same evening at the residence of Mr. Hamilton, where more comfort and greater convenience would be obtained, the meeting being reorganized at Mr. Hamilton's. A statement of the financial operations of the company for the preceding year to the most minute details, was submitted to the assembled shareholders, and was adopted by a unanimous vote.

If "Shareholder" will look over the last issue of the Patriot or Examiner, he will find that the annual meeting will take place at the factory, New Perth, on Tuesday the 15th inst. at 2 p. m. Should he deem it advisable to attend, he will obtain all the information relative to the operations of the Company (that is if he is entitled to a voice in the deliberations of its members). But I would most respectfully request that he will come with an intellect unclouded, and not so mixed as it evidently was when he penned his communication, as appeared in the Patriot of the 10th inst., and also that he will make no attempt to "doctor" our charter, and I can assure him that we will, for his personal and special benefit, spare no trouble or inconvenience in making the financial statement for the present year so plain that a mind of the meanest capacity can understand it.

Cyrus Shaw.

THE IRISH PARTY.

In the course of a recent interview, Timothy Healy, anti-Parnellite M. P. for North Louth, emphatically denied that he intended to found a third Irish party or to oppose the re-election of Justin McCarthy or other national leaders. He further said that he was only trying to prevent the assertion of a calamitous individual domination of the party, which denied the the right of criticism and insisted upon committing the party, without prior consultation, to movements which afterwards it was too late to repudiate. He would persist in opposing every adventurous policy put forward as sanctioned by the whole party when it only emanated from individuals authorized to speak in the name of the party. He favored the greatest latitude wherein individual pronouncements were personal opinions. Healy concluded by declaring that he had always supported, and would continue to support, Mr. McCarthy's chairmanship of the anti-Parnellite section of the party and would cordially resist any attempt to defeat the government on the address in reply to the Queen's speech at the opening of the coming session of parliament.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

London, Jan. 9.—The Central News hears from Cairo: "Reports of serious fighting in the vicinity of Kassala continues persistently. Italians under General Baratteri, are said to have defeated 15,000 Mahdists, although they sustained heavy losses. No confirmation of the account can be obtained. It is stated that Egypt contemplates helping the Italians by making a strong attack upon Dongola. No final decision has been reached, however. A despatch from Rome says the government will send 600 new troops to Massowah.

London, Jan. 9.—A news agency is circulating the statement of a traveller who claims to have been in the Sassoun district at the time of the alleged Armenian massacres, and who neither heard nor saw anything of the reported atrocities. Little weight is placed upon his story, which is to the effect that American missionaries are to blame for the state of affairs in Armenia, as they spread dissatisfaction among the natives by inculcating impracticable republican ideas.

Paris, Jan. 9.—The government, in a note officially communicated to the various foreign representatives to-day, reiterates its former statement that the foreign military attaches in Paris were absolutely ignorant of the treasonable act of Captain Dreyfus. La Patrie asserts that Lieut.-Col. von Schwartz Hoppen, military attache to the staff of the embassy, returned to his post to-day with instructions to silence the newspapers which since the arrest of Captain Dreyfus had revealed Germany's hand in inciting French military officers to treason.

Berlin, Jan. 9.—Emperor William gave a reception at the palace last evening, to which were invited prominent politicians of the parties in the reichstag. The Emperor, in an address to the guests, urged the importance of further increasing the strength of the German navy, and especially called attention to the necessity of augmenting the fleets of the South American, African and East Indian stations. The Kaiser denied the report that it was at his wish the words "to the German nation" were omitted from the inscription over the portal of the new reichstag building. The presence of Count von Hompesch, clerical leader, was generally commented upon, as it is the first time he has visited the palace since the Kulturkampf.

London, Jan. 9.—It is reported that the Russian grand duke is about to bring a suit against Col. North, the nitrate king. The suit grows out of the sale by Col. North of the famous greyhound Simonian, brother of Fullerton, for £1,000, the action arising especially from a dispute on the part of the plaintiff as to the correctness of defendant's warranty of the animal's soundness.

Defiance, Ohio, Jan. 9.—The Merchant's National bank, of this city, was broken into by burglars Monday evening and about $20,000 secured. The burglars battered the lock on the vault door and the bank officials could not get it open next day. The bank people thought the lock was out of order and sent to Cincinnati for an expert. He opened the safe today, when the true condition of affairs became apparent.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The state department has published an official report from United States Consul Robertson at Victoria, B. C., upon the seal catch of the British Columbian seal fleet last year. The figures were compiled by Collector King. The consul says they show the catch to be the largest ever made in any single year, and the fear once entertained that the hunters would be seriously handicapped from the compulsory use of the spear has been overcome.

Vienna, Jan. 9.—Despatches from Erzinghan describe the trial of fifty-eight Armenians there Dec. 16th. Twenty four of the prisoners were sentenced to death, five to penal servitude for life and others to imprisonment for from three to six years. Fifteen were condemned for political offences. Sixteen of those condemned to death were charged with assisting in the murder of a Mussulman. Bishop Vartan, of Kamach, was sentenced to three years of imprisonment at hard labor.

Rio Janeiro, Jan. 9.—One hundred and twenty persons were either drowned or burned to death and many others terribly injured by an explosion aboard a steamer on the bay. The boat was the excursion steamer Port Nitheroy. She had taken a good sized party up the shore, and when returning, and just off the city whose name she bore, her boilers exploded with a frightful force, scattering death-dealing steam and living coals from the furnaces among the gay pleasure seekers. Many were killed outright, others jumped overboard and were drowned, while yet others shared a more painful fate and were cremated alive as they lay maimed and helpless on the deck of the crippled craft, which burned to the water's edge.

Priestley's Cravenettes may be had in all the newest fabrics. Absolutely rain-repelling they are not to be distinguished from the same goods not waterproofed. This is their great merit. Cravenette includes serges and all dress fabrics. They are perfectly porus, non-odorous, and they never change in appearance. These are merits which no other waterproofing process has been able to demonstrate. They are rolled on "The Varnished Board" like all Priestley's dress goods.

ANOTHER GREAT FIRE.

Toronto Again the Scene.

The Loss Upwards of $1,000,000,

Toronto, Jan. 11.

Another fire broke out at an early hour last night and when the firemen arrived at the scene of the conflagration, it was at once realized that they were in for harder work than when the Globe building crumbled before the devouring element. Last night's fire represents a loss of over $1,000,000. It started a short distance west of the Globe ruins on Melinda Street and was probably caused by hidden fire working through. Thirteen buildings were destroyed, among them Osgoodby building, six stories, Robert Darling & Co., Buntin, Reed & Co., John D. Ivy & Co., Hunter, Rose & Co., K. Kilgour Bros., Boisseau & Co., B. H. Gray & Co., A. G. Anderson & Co., Corticelli Silk Company, Dunnet & Co., Brockton & Manning, Park Brothers, the Williamson Rubber Co., Bastello & Co., Williamson & Partners, J. W. Allan & Son, Wyld, Grasset & Co's. building escaped. The insurance companies will lose at least $300,000.
