Potato Boat To Geo'town Cancelled

A potato boat which was to have called at Georgetown was cancelled. The reason for the cancellation was because of the fact that no shipping company would allow their ships to enter the port after the first week in January, states Mr. Donald A. MacDonald, chairman of the P. E. I. Potato Marketing Board and Selling Agency. Mr. MacDonald reports a slight shortage in refrigerator-cars on the island but it is his belief that this condition is only temporary and will be relieved as soon as ships now loading at Halifax and Saint John have sailed. "The Railway" says Mr. MacDonald, "is doing everything in their power to see that the island demands are met."

Will Attempt To Swim Strait Of Juan de Fuca

VICTORIA, (CP)—Florence Chadwick has decided she will try to swim the 20-mile stretch of chilly Strait of Juan de Fuca water between here and Port Angeles, Wash. Miss Chadwick travelled over part of the course in a tug Friday and then telephoned her chief adviser, Marion Wilcox in San Pedro, Calif., to announce her decision.

The looked over the course and in my opinion the currents can be figured out, so we can get through all right," she said. "It's going to be a question of how much cold water I can take. I'm anxious to try it and I think I can make it." A paint company here has offered Miss Chadwick $7,500 to attempt the swim and another $2,500 if she makes it.

The attempt will be made in late July or August. The actual date will be determined after a study of tide and current conditions.

St. David's Annual Meeting In Geo'town

"At the annual meeting held in St. David's Church hall on January 11, Mr. Seymour Knight informed the people of the congregation that the Church had enjoyed a record year. Not only has there been an increase in all-around effort by all workers, but a marked increase was evident in voluntary giving. The report of all affiliations showed much ground covered in both spiritual and material terms.

The W. A. report was read by Mrs. C. Fraser and the financial report by Mrs. H. Parker. This report previously appeared in the press. The W. M. S. report read by Mrs. W. Paterson showed boxes of clothing, etc., sent to both Korea and the Glace Bay miners. Also a contribution to the Deaconess Training School in Toronto, and a country rally held in Georgetown this past summer. The Mission Band had a membership of 25 young children was reported by Miss Janie Liewellyn. Under her leadership, the children have studied African missions, learned recitations and hymns, assisted in special church services, and sent over $20 to Presbytery for missionary work. The Young Peoples Union and Blue Cross reports were read by Mrs. Paterson.

The Sunday School report read by Miss Liewellyn showed much activity by the 37 scholars and five teachers. Pupils and teachers attended the United Exposition in Charlottetown; a Vacation Bible School was supervised by Rev. Peterson; the teachers held quarterly meetings to plan their work ahead. A White Gift service, a picnic at Brudenell, and a convention in Georgetown rounded out the year's activities. The Cemetery report read by Mrs. S. Walker and the M. and M. report read by Mrs. N. Hanson showed excellent progress. Captain Larsen reported for the M.A. in addition to regular monthly supper meetings, this new affiliation gave donations for the community film projector, and for the Boy's Conference in Sackville. They also sponsored a booth at the annual bazaar which was very successful. Members of this Association have formed a men's choir under the leadership of Mr. H. Yorston which has proved an inspiring addition to the spirit of worship in the Sunday services. The Trustee's report was read by Mr. S. Walker.

A letter was read by Mr. Knight making a donation of $50. The writer requested that the donation be used to start a fund for a new church organ. It was moved that a letter of sincere appreciation be sent to the donor, and that the presidents of the W. A. and M. A. confer on the question of making plans for this worthwhile project. A motion was passed that press notices for church services be financed by the W. A.

Appointments for the year were: Mr. H. Yorston, organist and choir-director; Mrs. E. Easton, assistant-organist; Ushers: Charles Walker, Stuart Hanson, Chester Walker, Guy Hemphill. The secretary-treasurer, Mr. S. Knight, was re-appointed, also the stewards as of last year. Mrs. Hanson moved a vote of thanks to Rev. and Mrs. Paterson for their year's ministry to the Georgetown congregation, which was heartily endorsed by the meeting.

Mr. Joe MacDonald was in the city last week for a medical check-up, suffering from an old back trouble that put him in the hospital in the veteran's section two years ago.

The price of smelts is reported as very low this season by the fishermen and no one knows the reason, as the fish are scarce with the ice-making fast. The bag nets will come into play and large catches may be expected more than a hundred boxes are often taken at one tide with the bag nets.

The price of eggs have gone down to a new time low for the farmers this winter and one man informs us they are getting less than thirty cents for eggs now. They are being sold in the stores for around forty cents. Last winter at this time a merchant said he was selling them for fifty-five.

Miss Florence MacDonald who went to the city to spend a few days with her parents, returned to this vicinity on Monday where she will remain for some time.

The monthly meeting of the Morell sub-division of the C. W. L. was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Rossier on January 10. Reports were heard from the various communities. The members of the league in co-operation with the C. Y. O. are contributing funds towards setting up of small libraries for the purpose of encouraging good reading among the people. The meeting closed with prayer.

A meeting of the Morell C. Y. O. was held at the home of Miss Kay Steele. The business meeting was followed by a sing-song. The C. Y. O. a Young People's organization meets every second week and at present are studying the reading of better books.

The bowling alleys are now in full swing under the capable management of Mr. Walter Coffin. A bowling tournament has been organized as in other seasons and it is expected some seventeen teams will be entered.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie have moved to the village from Souris recently and have taken up residence in the R. F. D. Bennett's house near the river bank. Mr. Leslie is employed on the C. R. N. and the with nylon twine. It appeared very strong, soft and slippery, but very nice to knit. One wonders if the lobstermen will feel highly honored to crawl through into the traps and rest among such grandeur.

The fishermen and some of the wives and children are busy knitting heads these cold evenings. The writer watched a party knitting

Chocolate Bars To Cost More

TORONTO, (CP)—Chocolate bars will weigh less or cost more shortly due to a sharp increase in cocoa beans, Fred Saunders, general manager of the Confectionery, Chocolate and Cocoa Industries of Canada, said Friday. He said cocoa beans have risen in price from seven cents a pound in 1939 to 53 cents at present. He said there is a crisis in the industry over the situation. An international conference is to meet in London shortly to discuss the high cost of imported cocoa beans.

The Week at S.D.U.

To begin to tell you the complete events of the past week in this column would be impossible. However, we will try to give you a picture of the details of Tuesday, January 19, the official opening of our Centennial Year. As usual we arose at 7 a.m. and attended daily Mass. After Mass we had breakfast and then returned to our rooms to prepare for the big event which was to take place at 10 o'clock. By 9:50 all were in the Chapel and at the scheduled time the procession which was assembled in the Oratory, proceeded to the upper chapel where the blessing was conferred by Bishop James Boyle upon entering. The procession then moved into the Sanctuary where Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by Most Reverend Maurice Roy, Archbishop of Quebec. The choir, under the direction of Rev. Lawrence Landrigan, performed beautifully in singing the Mass "Te Deum Laudamus" by Lorenzo Perosi. After the Gospel was sung an eloquent sermon was preached by Rt. Rev. J. A. Murphy, which was later delivered over the radio. After Mass we returned to our rooms to await dinner which was coming up next and we expected the best. When we entered the dining-hall at 12:30 the sight was indeed impressive. Throughout the room long red and white streamers were flowing and huge signs bearing the number 100 were set up in conspicuous places. When everyone was seated from the Archbishop down to the students we heard several speeches appropriately worded for the occasion and eloquently delivered by masterful speakers. The speakers, in order, were Bishop James Boyle, who acted as Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Justice M. R. McGuigan, Archbishop Maurice Roy and Rt. Rev. R. V. MacKenzie. These speeches have since appeared in the press, so we feel it is unnecessary to expound on them again. Following the speeches the assembly broke up and we rushed to our rooms for our skates as a skate was scheduled from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. The skate turned out to be a very enjoyable evening. Rosary followed by supper at 8 p.m. we all gathered in the gymnasium to see the climax of a joyous day, the presenting of T. S. Elliot's two act drama, "Murder in the Cathedral," which was under the capable direction of Rev. Adrian Arsenault. A special word of praise is in order for Father Adrian who designed and executed the settings and costumes which were used in the play. Following the play we retired for the night well pleased with the day's activities and proud to be students at St. Dunstan's for such a joyous occasion.

"The Week" would at this time like to congratulate the good Sisters and the chef who gave generously of their time in preparing such a delicious meal and for decorating the building so fittingly for the occasion.

On January 31, Mary Farmer and John Walsh will uphold the resolution Resolved that increased immigration would be beneficial to Canada, against Arthur Pendergast and Wilfred Gillis in preparation for their debate against St. Thomas College February 9. This debate which is to be held in our gymnasium will be the second Intercollegiate Debate staged here since college opened last fall. In November Dick Wedge and Charlie Roche won a unanimous decision over King's College. Although Mary and John are first year debaters, we feel sure they are capable of bringing St. Dunstan's another victory in the field of debating.

800 CNR Employees To Be Laid Off

OTTAWA, (CP)—The Canadian National Railways hopes that 800 employees to be laid off next week will be rehired, Leopold Langlois, parliamentary assistant to Transport Minister Chevrier, said Friday. Replying in the Commons to a question from Howard Green (P.C.—Vancouver Quadra), Mr. Langlois said the employees are being laid off because rail traffic is declining and staff adjustments are necessary as a result. "It is hoped, though, that traffic levels will soon be restored and the railway company will soon require again the services of those who are to be laid off," he added.
