THE CRICKET MATCH.

Cabots, 64; Phoenix, 55. The Phoenix and Cabots met in friendly combat Saturday afternoon, and the result was a win for the latter by 9 runs. Close play was the order of the day on both sides, with the Cabots excelling. Their work in the field was of the sharpest kind, each one playing as if it were an assured fact that every ball would come his way. As a consequence almost every chance offered was accepted. At one time it looked as if a much smaller score than that made would be to the credit of the Cabots. At the fall of the sixth wicket the Phoenix had only put together only 20 runs, while in the same time the Cabots had only gone but one better. This state of affairs was all the more noticeable from the fact that several of the best run-getters of both sides had been retired. On the one side it was due to good work in keeping both eyes on the ball and gathering it in before it touched ground, and on the other to effective trapping. The manner in which Cabot wickets fell in the opening stages of their innings was a surprise alike to both clubs. It was only when Carvell partnered J. Nicholson that anything like a stand was made. The features of the game were Cotton's catch at square leg and Trainor's at mid off. Both catches were of the hottest nature, but the boys held on to them. The score was as follows: CABOTS.
