NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

OTTAWA, Aug. 7.
A leading lumberman says that there is certainly a perceptible improvement in the demand for lumber, although prices were not much higher.

At the firemen's picnic to-day in the Agricultural Grounds a serious row occurred, caused by a man wearing an orange handkerchief about his neck forcing his way into the crowd and defying any one to remove it. He was quickly assaulted, and a general row followed in which a large number took part. An increased force of police was sent for and went out to the grounds. The disturbance had the effect of cutting short the games. Several persons were beaten but no serious injuries were sustained.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 11.
Thirty-four cases of yellow fever in all, 20 white, 14 colored, were reported to the Board of Health to-day.

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 11.
A very violent storm passed over this vicinity last night. Tobacco crop reported destroyed and corn seriously damaged.

GREAT BRITAIN.
LONDON, Aug. 11.

In connection with the report that Lord Dufferin, present British Ambassador to St. Petersburg, will shortly succeed Sir Austin Layard as Minister at Constantinople, the St. Petersburg correspondent of the "Daily News" says that Lord Dufferin will leave for England in about a fortnight.

LONDON, Aug. 11.
The United States Minister at Monrovia, Liberia, reports the secession of numerous tribes, heretofore supposed to belong to Liberia. They have issued a formidable manifesto in which they declare: "We consider our people under the protection of England, whose flag we will fly, and will also call upon her in our present difficulty."

Shocking Tragedy at Chicago.
A HOT TEMPERED EMPLOYER KILLS HIS FOREMAN AND CUTS HIS OWN THROAT.

About one o'clock a shocking double tragedy occurred at the foundry of Schalto, Cossman & Senn, West Polk street, Chicago, on the afternoon of the 5th inst. Solomon Senn, junior partner, had a dispute last night with the foreman of the foundry, Conrad Engleman, charging the latter with spoiling the casting of an ornamental pillar. To-day the quarrel was resumed, Engleman said he would quit. Senn told him to do so, and ordered the book-keeper to pay him off, at the same time reiterating the charges about the casting. Engleman called him a liar, when Senn rushed into a private office for his revolver and sent a ball into Engleman's brain, from which he died in about an hour. Senn then snatched the pistol at his own head, but it did not go off, and before he could make a second attempt to shoot himself, Mr. Schalto, the senior member of the firm, knocked the weapon out of his hand. Senn then went into his private office, drew a pocket-knife and cut his throat from ear to ear, dying instantly. Mr. Senn was a well-to-do citizen and well liked, except for his hot temper. He was 45 years of age, and leaves a wife and five children. Engleman was an industrious young man, 26 years old, and leaves a wife and child. There was great excitement in the neighborhood, and large crowds collected around the office in which the bodies lay in pools of blood.—Mail.

Movements of the Fishing Fleet.

The seiners continue to meet with good success "Down East," but although the quality of the catch shows an improvement over last years supply, the fishery still fails to produce what is most wanted by the trade—a good proportion of handsome No. 1 mackerel. Several good fares have been reported since our last issue. Schooner John W. Bray hails for 400 bbls., the Isaac B. Chapman for 370, and several other vessels for 300 bbls. and over, while the minimum catch reported is 200 bbls. The number of arrivals for the week has been 21, and the receipts 3,950 barrels. The news from the Bay is not of an encouraging character. Schooner B. D. Haskins arrived home on Tuesday, the third arrival this season, with a fare of 260 bbls. The halibut receipts from Grand Bank continue small, and are taken readily at fair prices. Of the recent arrivals, few report a catch exceeding 30,000 lbs., and several run from 15,000 to 30,000 lbs. The number of arrivals for the week has been 11, and the receipts 305,000 lbs. Four Bank arrivals from codfishing trips have been reported since our last, with 305,000 lbs., schooner Massasoit being high line, with 130,000 lbs. The number of arrivals from the shore codfishing grounds has been 3, and the receipts 78,000 lbs. The Georges fishery continues to employ quite a fleet, and the returns are very good for midsummer trips. Twenty-seven arrivals have been reported the past week, bringing 460,000 lbs of codfish and 19,000 lbs of halibut.—Cape Ann Advertiser.

A little boy named Duncan McInnes has died from lock-jaw at London Ont., caused by "stubbing" his toe against a stone.

India.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE KYBER TRIBES.

Her Majesty has received telegrams from numerous Indian Princes, congratulating her on the peaceful termination of operations in Afghanistan, and expressing the loyal sentiments of the senders, and their anxiety at all times to serve in the British cause. It has been decided that as soon as the British troops have returned to India through the Kyber, the political officer at Jellalabad and Dakka shall be withdrawn, and the control of the Kyber tribes placed directly under the Government of the Punjab.

Rival Claims to Honors.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: "St. Louis is at present the greatest primary wheat market in the world, the daily receipts being three times the combined receipts of Chicago and Milwaukee. Let the dwellers by the lake put this fact in their pipe and smoke it." The Toledo Blade says, "Every day sees more wheat coming into Toledo than is received in any other two cities in the world." And the Chicago Tribune commenting on these professions itself tempted to say: "Bless you, my children; though I am little surprised to see twins!"

Rev. W. H. H. Murray Indignant.

Boston, Mass., August 6.—A special despatch to the Traveller from San Francisco to-day, says that the Rev. W. H. H. Murray is registered at the Grand Pacific Hotel in that city. The first intimation of his alleged financial failure reached him by telegraph yesterday. He utterly repudiates the insinuation that he has disappeared or is in anyway seeking to evade his liabilities. He came here on business for the buckboard company, and will return as soon as he has concluded it, which he will probably do by the last of this week. He is surprised and not a little indignant at the slanderous stories circulated during his temporary absence.

John Bright on India.

Mr. John Bright spoke at Willis' lately on the government of India. He said if it was necessary, for the purpose of maintaining our authority, to expend on the Indian army more than half of the revenue which could be extracted from the population by a burdensome system of taxation, it would be almost better to admit that the government by us of a great empire like India was such a government as was impossible, and that it ought never to have existed. Mr. Bright pointed out the necessity of reform in the Indian Civil Service, both by the increased employment of natives and by a reduced expenditure. He then spoke of the dissatisfaction arising from the license tax and the Press laws; and concluded with a warning. England, he said, had done much by force; now was the time for the action of wisdom and justice.

The Hanlan Club Dissolved.

A Toronto despatch of Monday states that the Hanlan Club had a meeting on Saturday, and, after winding up its affairs, cancelled its engagement with the champion and dissolved. Henceforth Hanlan will have to paddle his own canoe. A report of the English races was read from Col. Shaw, showing the expense and narrating the principal incidents connected with the trip. It was stated that, during the eighteen months the club had been in existence, it had paid over to Hanlan no less a sum than eighteen thousand dollars, not including expenses. A letter was read from the champion, acknowledging the club's liberality and thanking the members for their kindness. A balance of eight hundred dollars remained after refunding to each member $250 advanced by him to defray the expenses of the English campaign, and this it was resolved to present to the champion, along with the properties of the club, consisting of boats, oars, boat-house, etc.

Sir Francis Hincks, President of the Consolidated Book looks wan, careworn and dejected, and will not talk upon the bank's affairs except to old friends. Sir Francis loses $60,000 by the suspension, which will unload him completely. He has, however, a pension of $10,000 annually from the home Government, being ex-Governor of Barbadoes, the Windward Islands and British Guiana. Sir Francis is free from suspicion, and all the directors are believed to have had dust thrown in their eyes by the late manager, a sample transaction being the advance of $1,700,000 to parties who are not worth $100,000.

A few weeks since news was telegraphed of the discovery of a remarkably rich gold lead in Montague district, N. S. Later reports indicate that the lead will prove richer than at first supposed. A bar of gold was exhibited in Halifax the other day weighing 248½ ounces and valued at $4,600, the result of the labour of ten men for four weeks. This gives a profit of $4,000 on the month's operations.

Prof. McEachern, Dominion Government Inspector of cattle at this port, estimates that $948,464 has been received by Canada farmers for cattle exported during the past three months, and that steamships alone have received $316,474 for carrying them
