TO CORRESPONDENTS.—The letter of "Homo" in type, but crowded out, will appear on Monday.

THE Rev. G. W. Hodgson acknowledges the receipt of an anonymous gift to St. Peter's Church of four hundred dollars.

Don't forget to attend the ST. PATRICK'S T. A. SOCIETY PICNIC at St. Dunstan's College on Wednesday next, 17th inst. A first-class time may be expected.—li

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, a temporarily insane man named Edward Ryan, appeared for assaulting his wife. He was remanded to jail for eight days to recover his lost senses; Chas. White, drunk and disorderly, was fined $2 and costs, or 8 days imprisonment.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—About 1 o'clock last night an robbery was made to break into Mr. John Knight's branch store, on Euston Street. The would-be burglars first tried to force a passage through the door; but, failing in that, they broke in the fan-light over the door, and were about entering when discovered. They ran away and were pursued, but escaped. They left behind them a coat, a pocket knife and a pipe.

THE Haverly Jubilee Singers gave an excellent entertainment, to a rather small audience, in the Market Hall last evening. Although the audience in the Hall was small, the troop may claim to have performed to as large an audience as any foreign company, considering that the Square, on each side of the hall, was full of spectators, who listened, with all attention, to the sweet vocal music discoursed by the minstrels. They will give another entertainment this evening, when, we hope, they will meet with great success.

THE Orange Demonstration passed off very quietly in this city. A number of citizens congregated about the Railway Station as the train came in with the Orangemen; but no one, we believe, had the bad taste even to greet them with an insulting expression. The procession was re-formed; and the Orangemen marched back to their hall unmolested. Those whose feelings—it might be supposed—would be irritated by the demonstration, seemed to be perfectly indifferent to it. Remembering the disturbance of last year, the Civic authorities did well to take some precautionary measures. We are pleased to report that the special constables were not required.

THE MEMBERS OF THE BENEVOLENT IRISH SOCIETY will hold their annual Picnic at St. Dunstan's College on Monday next. The Picnic Committee appointed by the society have been at work very energetically during the past week and they have spared no pains to make it the most enjoyable picnic of the season. They have erected large dancing booths, fitted up the spacious college hall for fancy dancing and secured the services of the best musicians in the city, thus all who love to "trip the light fantastic toe" will not fail to attend. Outdoor sports will also be provided in the way of swings, cricketing, quoiting, etc. As the picnic is in aid of the funds of a strictly charitable society we hope it will be patronized by all.

At the meeting of the City Council held last evening, there were present—the Mayor, the Recorder, Councillors Morris, Byrne, Smith, Hertz, Davy, Stumbles and Peake. A By-law for the management and regulation of Victoria Park, was read a third time and passed, and ordered to be sent to the Lieutenant Governor and Council, for their approval. At the next meeting of the Council, he would bring in a By-law, for levying assessment on Real Property in this city, for city purposes, and moved that a special meeting of the Council be held on Thursday, the 18th of July, for the purpose of introducing the same. A motion was carried to the effect, that the Street Committee be authorized to improve the Watering Cart, at present used by the city. A motion was also carried that a slip be placed on Pownall Wharf for the convenience of the public.

THE racing at Amherst, N. S., this week passed off very pleasantly. The bill of fare being rather meagre, several of the races did not fill. Two days racing, however, took place. The three-minute class was the first. For this there were three entries, viz.: Dr. Jenkin's mare "Abdallah Maid" (formerly "Queen") "Mekowah Chief" and "Mic-mac." In this race the "Abdallah Maid" won very easily in straight heats. In each heat she had to be pulled hard in order to prevent her from distancing her competitors. There were four entries for the running race—Mr. Church's colt "Jack of Trumps," "Lightfoot," "Billy Williams" and "Countess." "Lightfoot" won the first heat, and "Jack of Trumps" the second and third. On the second day the free for all was the only race contested. The entries were "Frank Allison," "Nellie Thorne," "Discount" and "Gypsy Queen." The first and second heats were won by "Frank Allison;" the third by "Nellie Thorne;" "Frank Allison" took the fourth, and therefore the first money, "Nellie Thorne" the second and "Gypsy Queen" third—"Discount" being withdrawn. The best time made was 2.36.

An exchange says:—A speech by Major Walker, ex-Vice-President of the Pacific Railway Company, of 1872-3, condemning Sir John McDonald's scheme; a speech by Mr. Brown denouncing the rising of the election fund; a speech by Mr. McKenzie declaring coalitions, extravagance, jobbery and nepotism; and a speech on Prohibition by Mr. Wiser, of South Granville—these would cool the heated atmosphere like icbergs.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

[The following despatch was received last night, too late for insertion:—

MONTREAL, July 12. The Orangemen assembled in their Hall this morning to the number of four hundred. The Mayor came up with a Police Force of

FIVE HUNDRED SPECIAL CONSTABLES, and entering the Hall, declared that he would not allow them to walk as the procession was illegal. The County Master then submitted to the ARREST OF SIX ORANGEMEN to test the legality of the Mayor's proceedings. The men were marched off to jail, where they remain—bail being refused—until this evening.

The other Orangemen have remained in the Hall up to this hour (3 p. m.) and a crowd of THREE THOUSAND is congregated outside. The Mayor addressed the mob, and asked them to go home quietly, as the Orangemen had consented to give up the procession and go home without regalia, or badge, as private citizens.

The crowd moved off, but the Orangemen still remain in the Hall.

NO TROUBLE of any kind has occurred beyond a few fights on the outskirts of the crowd. But no one was seriously injured. This morning

TWO HUNDRED IRISHMEN arrived from Quebec to assist in preventing the Orangemen from walking. They were searched at the wharf; and only one weapon was found on them.

THREE THOUSAND TROOPS have been under arms all day—including 1,200 from outside. They are posted in different parts of the city, but their services have not been required.

There will be no trouble to-day; but tonight fights are expected to be general. All places of business are closed, and the city wears a holiday appearance.

(From the Patriot.) MONTREAL, July 12.

Rev. Mr. Doudet preached to a large congregation in Stanley Street Church.

Telegrams from Orangemen in Kingston and Toronto were received. The former offered to send four thousand men, and the latter ten thousand men, to support their brethren here in the procession.

One hundred and fifty Orangemen arrived here from Sherbrooke by the train, and marched to Stanley Street Church, where Mr. Doudet preached.

One of the special constables deliberately assaulted with his club a bandsman of the Prince of Wales Rifles, without any provocation, as the regiment was proceeding to the point of rendezvous. The ruffian escaped.

A man named Brennan from Three Rivers was arrested for having a loaded seven shooter in the procession. He was immediately locked up.

Fifty stand of arms were seized by the police in Union Hall, Craig Street, where and Irish Catholic Club meets.

OTTAWA, July 12. The Orange procession passed off quietly, but there is great excitement over the news from Montreal.

The Congress.

(Special Despatch to Examiner.) BERLIN, July 12.

At yesterday's sitting it was resolved that an urgent recommendation, virtually amounting to a command, be made to the Sultan to institute an international financial commission to guard the rights of holders of Turkish bonds and regulate the finances. It was also decided that a commission should immediately proceed to investigate the disorders in the Rhodope districts.

It is thought that Congress will insert in the treaty of peace, and not only in the protocol, a clause concerning Greece. Turkey will thus be obliged to take Greek claims into serious and immediate consideration. The Congress has exempted Servia and Roumania from payment of arrears of their tributes to the Porte. The tribute henceforth will cease.

LONDON, July 12. A Times' despatch from Berlin, states that the treaty of Alliance between Great Britain and Turkey, was confidentially communicated to the Powers shortly before its promulgation.

Various special telegrams from Paris, represent that the irritation there is abating, and is certain to be very short lived.

It is affirmed that England has given France satisfactory explanations. Considerable anxiety is excited about Beaconsfield's illness since it has been known that his private physician has gone to him.
