Pearson To Name Cabinet After Return From Holiday

By BEN WARD

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister Pearson said here he plans to end the guessing-game about his cabinet shake-up as soon as he returns from a Caribbean holiday Dec. 16.

The prime minister, who had already reported that an extensive shuffle of cabinet portfolios is in the works told a press conference that he has some "good reasons" for waiting until then to make the announcement. He declined to spell them out.

Three cabinet posts—finance, agriculture and mines—are vacant. Faince Minister Walter Gordon resigned two weeks ago and Agriculture Minister Harry Hays and Mines Minister J. Watson MacNaught were personally defeated in the Nov. 8 election.

In filling the vacancies Mr. Pearson is expected to switch several other portfolios as well. There has been wide speculation about the changes that will be involved.

TO SEE GREY CUP

Mr. Pearson will be in Toronto today for the Grey Cup football classic and plans to fly to Jamaica Sunday for a brief official visit before starting his 14 - day holiday on the tiny French island of St. Bart, near the island of St. Martin.

He will leave St. Bart Dec. 14 for an official visit to Trinidad and Tobago en route home.

Mr. Pearson said he wants to enjoy his seaside holiday in privacy and asked reporters not to tag along. He warned that it is "a very tricky operation" to reach St. Bart.

He assured reporters that the cabinet changes would be announced "immediately after I return," and indicated that he would spend some of his vacation time working them out.

REPORT MOVES

On other matters, Mr. Pearson reported:

—Canada has made new economic moves against Rhodesia, slapping an immediate ban on the import of Rhodesian sugar and tobacco.

—Cabinet has approved a $27,500,000 contribution to the United Nations new three-year food distribution program, up from the $7,000,000 Canada donated to the current three-year program.

—No person in the Quebec government has approached Ottawa about Quebec taking control of family allowance payments in the province.

Montreal Man Is Acquitted In Fake Voting Slips Case

MONTREAL (CP) — Jean-Paul Boisjoly, 45, an east-end Montreal political figure, has been acquitted by Judge Beniot Turmel on charges in connection with a 1962 fake voting slips case.

Four thousand spurious voting slips were found in a locker at downtown Windsor Station 12 days before the Quebec General election of 1962.

Judge Turmel ruled there was "no truth that Boisjoly had participated in any way whatsoever in the printing of the fake certificates, or in the incident at Windsor Staton."

The judge said several witnesses had never mentioned the accused in the numerous and contradictory testimonies they had given and therefore Boisjoly was given the benefit of doubt.

Marcel Sauve, 35, was found guilty on identical charges last June. Sauve sentenced to three years in penitentiary, has entered an appeal.

Each man had faced five charges of conspiracy to mislead police, to fabricate counterfeit and fraudulent documents to obstruct justice, to have a document served in evidence in a judicial matter and to violate the Quebec Electoral Act.

Following the judgment, prosecutor Louis Philippe Landry, said there are two other charges against Sauve and Boisjoly and suggested these be postponed to Jan. 11.

These charges are perjury and incitment to perjury. Boisjoly said he wanted to proceed "immediately" but an immediate hearing was declared unfeasible.

At the time the fake slips were necessary as identification for voters in some urban areas under Quebec election procedures.

MANY GAIN FREEDOM

A total of 17 new African countries gained independence in the peak year of 1960.

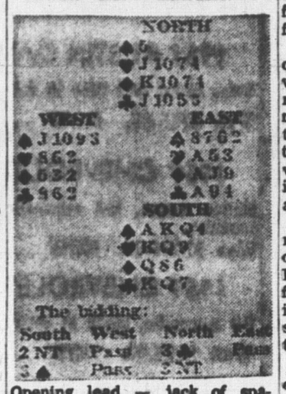
CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

FAMOUS HANDS

South dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.



Opening lead — jack of spades.

Here is an unusual hand played in the team of four knockout event during Los Angeles Bridge Week in 1961. Star of the deal was Bill McWilliams, who had the East cards.

South got to three notrump on the bidding shown and West led a spade. Declarer took the jack with the queen and led the king of hearts, which held, and also held the trick.

South now shifted his attention to clubs, playing first the king and then the queen. McWilliams ducking again each time.

Declarer then played the queen of diamonds, and, for the fifth successive time, East refused to take a trick.

Had McWilliams taken any one of these five tricks, South would have had an easy time making the contract. But his refusal to allow declarer to establish an entry to dummy eventually paid off when South wound up going down one, losing a spade, a heart, a club, and two diamonds.

Certainly this is one of the most extreme cases on record of the value of a holdup play. It is not often that a player refuses to win a trick five times in a row— in three different suits— and gains as a result of the refusal.

Actually McWWilliams knew every high card in South's hand as soon as dummy came down, since North-South were playing an opening bid of two notrump as showing either 21 or 22 points.

McWilliams only real concern from the start was that South might have either four hearts or four clubs, in which case it was clear that the contract could not de defeated.

But as the play progresses, it became obvious that South had only three- card length in the key suits, and all that McWilliams had to do then was hang on to his three aces as long as he possibly could.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X B
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
