IN MEMORIAM

MRS. LYDIA HOWATT
On May 10, the community of Tryon was saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Lydia Howatt. Mrs. Howatt was the widow of the late Frank Howatt, formerly of Carleton. Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Howatt lived at Carleton for a number of years. She then moved to the home of her nephew, Mr. Brent Howatt of Royalty. About a year ago she moved to the home of Mrs. Spurgeon Clark of Tryon. Mrs. Howatt had a kind and lovable nature and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon, May 12, 1951, with a short service at the home of Mrs. Spurgeon Clark, Tryon. During the service at Tryon the hymn
