Darko-Martin Wedding

A very lovely event took place at Orwell Head Church at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday, August 30th when Annie Joyce, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Martin of Kinross became the bride of Perley Sterling, son of Mr. Francis Drake and the late Mrs. Drake of Vernon. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. A. C. Fraser. The church, beautifully decorated for the occasion with baskets of gladioli, snapdragon and chrysanthemums, was filled to overflowing by relatives and friends of the two families. Guest seats were marked with bows of white satin ribbon. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Stanton Jenkins, sister of the groom, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage; she was the picture of loveliness in her gown of white satin fashioned with nylon lace yoke embroidered with seed pearls, long sleeves and fitted bodice, the skirt ending with full train. Her fingertip veil was of nylon net bound with satin. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white snapdragon baby's breath and maiden hair fern. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. John C. Robbins as matron of honour. The bridesmaid was Miss Opal MacPhee, cousin of the bride, who wore a floor-length gown of pale green lace and net with hat to match and carried a bouquet of yellow snapdragon. Mrs. Robbins was dressed in yellow taffeta with net yoke and shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of pink and white snapdragons. Little Miss Carol Jenkins, niece of the groom, was flower girl and looked most winsome in a floor-length gown of pink organza with matching bonnet. She carried a basket of pink and white carnations. Master Wendall Drake, cousin of the groom, was train-bearer. The duties of groomsmen were capably performed by Mr. Donald Drake, brother of the groom. The ushers were Mr. Winston Drake and Mr. Hugh Robbins. During the signing of the register Mrs. Kate Gillis sang very sweetly, "Because". Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride where a delicious buffet-supper was served to over one hundred and twenty guests. The candle-light table was attractively covered with a beautiful lace cloth, decorated with gladioli and centred with two three-tiered wedding cakes. Tea was poured from two silver tea services by Mrs. Lloyd Robbins and Mrs. Hugh Mackinnon. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Fraser and responded to by the groom. Amidst showers of confetti and good wishes the happy couple left by auto for a honeymoon trip through the Maritime Provinces, the bride wearing a beige suit of wool gabardine with brown accessories and a three-strand necklace of pearls, a gift of the groom. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a set of chateleine pins and to the matron of honour.

Young People Held Conference At Murray Harbour

Representatives of the Young People's Societies of the Church of Christ on Prince Edward Island met at the Murray Harbour Church of Christ on Saturday, Sunday. More than fifty visiting conferees registered on Saturday evening. The ladies of the Murray Harbour church served a buffet lunch to over ninety people. The theme of the conference was "Youth, For Such a Time as This." The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. Murray White and was responded to by Miss Dorothy Linkletter of Summerside. Miss Anna MacLaren, president of the provincial organization presided over the Saturday evening gathering. Mr. Robert Platts, vice-president, had charge of the song service. The meeting was addressed by Mr. W. O. Weale, minister of Central Avenue Church of Christ, Summerside, whose sermon topic was "The Faith Which Makes Us Christian." Special music was provided at this service by the youth choir from Montague. The church was filled on Sunday morning. The service was conducted by a former pastor of the Murray Harbour church, Mr. P. L. Richardson, now minister of New Glasgow Church of Christ. His message was entitled "The Life that Proves us Christian." Miss Anna MacLaren presided over the afternoon session. The devotional service was conducted by Elmer Nicholson, Fredericton. Mr. Edward Bertram led the group in spirited singing of choruses. A discussion on "Our Camping Heritage" was led by Mr. W. O. Weale. A brief business session was held at four o'clock at which time reports of the various committees were presented. The new officers elected were: President, Robert Platts; vice-president, Dorothy Linkletter; secretary-treasurer, Fay Stewart. The Sunday evening service found the church filled again. The song service was conducted by Mr. Weale. Mr. M. D. Dunbar, minister of Central Christian Church, Charlottetown, delivered the message: "The Crown, Our Reward as Christians." This service brought one of the most enjoyable and soul stirring conferences ever held to a close.

Breadalbane and Vicinity

Mrs. Ewen MacDonald, Charlottetown, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex C. MacDonald on Thanksgiving Sunday. Miss Wilma MacKenzie and Miss Mary Gunn, Charlottetown, were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam MacKenzie. Mr. and Mrs. Athol MacLeod, Cambridge, Massachusetts, are guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacLeod. Misses Edith Matheson, Juretta Murray and Eleanor Murray, second year students at Prince of Wales College, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at their homes. Mr. Myron Matheson had his first experience as official relieving agent in the Breadalbane station while the regular station agent, Mr. Kenneth Fraser, had his Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Irene Morrison, teacher of Hazel Grove School, was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Angus Gillis, and was welcomed back by her friends here. Miss Morrison is well known here, having taught in the village school last year. The United Church, Breadalbane, was prettily decorated with maple leaves, scarlet rowan berries and brightly-ripened fruit for the Thanksgiving service on Sunday, October 8th. An appropriate sermon on the topic "O Give Thanks Unto the Lord" was delivered by the pastor, Rev. E. W. MacPhail. Suitable sacred songs were sung and the offertory by the choir was the familiar harvest hymn, "O Where Are The Reapers?" The regular monthly meeting of the Breadalbane Village Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Chappel on Monday evening, October 9th. Mrs. Angus Gillis presided and Mrs. Stanford Glover, secretary, read the report of the previous meeting. It was decided to engage a painter to re-decorate the interior of the school during the autumn holidays. An interesting feature of the evening was a display of beautiful hand made toys. Mrs. William Graham informed the members to her home for the next meeting which will be the annual one.

BIRCH GROVE W. I.

The Birch Grove Women's Institute met on Thursday evening Oct. 12th at the home of Mrs. Brewer Auld with the president, Mrs. Hubert McNeill in charge. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode and Creed. Eighteen members answered the roll call and visitors were welcomed. The visiting committee reported several calls made and school committee gave their report and presented bills for articles purchased for the school. Correspondence received since last meeting was read and discussed. The article on folk dancing created considerable interest as also the report concerning the starting of a Glee Club. Following an appeal for blood donors several expressed their willingness to contribute and also to solicit others to do likewise. The quilt made for the Manitoba relief was displayed and admired. After all business had been dealt with the following programme was presented: An amusing reading by Mrs. John Lewis, "My Wife Gets A Hair-do" and a "Soap" contest conducted by Mrs. Hillard Mosso both of which were very much enjoyed. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by lunch committee.

Railway Station Destroyed By Fire

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Oct. 17 (CP)—Fire gutted the Canadian National Railway station at west coast Stephenville Monday, damaging telegraph equipment and disrupting communications over most of Newfoundland for several hours. The station is the railhead for the United States Air Force base at Harmon Field but it was not known whether any Air Force equipment was stored near the fire.
