Flyers Take

Allan MacLeod headed the Royals with a pair of beautiful unassisted markers while Kip Ready, Ted Bradley and David MacLeod collected singletons.

Des Burge opened the scoring for the winners at the 7-minute mark of the first period on a 30-foot screened drive on a short pass from Weatherbie. Allan MacLeod tied the count five minutes later on the first of his two goals.

Referee: Frank Udvart; linesmen: Sammy Babcock, Doug Davies.

Red Wings

and George Armstrong tallied for Toronto but these were offset by goals by Vic Stasiuk and Reibel.

After the first period, the Leafs, who finished third at the end of the regular 70-game season, didn't have much of a chance. The Wings led 4-2 going into the third period and outscored the Leafs 3-2 in the final frame.

Only 12 penalties were called by referee Frank Udvart, with Toronto getting seven.

The teams will meet here Thursday, then travel to Toronto for the third and fourth games of the semi-final series.

Everybody is against higher taxes. That's a pretty natural attitude for all of us to have. All consumers are against higher prices for consumer goods.

It is sometimes a bit difficult to draw a line between necessities and luxuries, both in the family circle, and in the municipal sphere.

Adequate educational facilities are scarcely debatable if it can be decided what is or is not adequate. The proper education of a town's young citizens comes pretty close to the top in priority requirements.
