

IN MEMORIAM

MR. LAWRENCE ARSENAULT

The many friends and relatives of Mr. Lawrence Arsenault of Parkton, N. B. and formerly of St. Gilbert, P. E. I., were shocked to learn of his sudden passing at the early age of 28 years on Sunday, October 12th.

Being a devout member of the Roman Catholic Church, he was administered the last rites. A burial service was held at the Parkton R. C. Church on Tuesday, October 14th at 8:30 A. M. High Mass being celebrated by Rev. Fr. Pellerin, assisted by the Deacon and Sub-Deacon.

Following the service the remains were conveyed to his former home in St. Gilbert, P. E. I., where burial was held Wednesday, October 15th at 9 A. M. Pallbearers were: Messrs Edmond Cormier, Joseph Cormier, Hubert Blanchard, Gerard Arsenault, Joseph Maddix and Gilbert Arsenault.

He leaves to mourn his wife the former Zita Cormier and three children, Una, aged 5 and twins, Norma and Norman, aged three and one-half years; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Arsenault of St. Gilbert; also the following brothers and sisters: Raphael, Bella (Mrs. Ernest LeClair), Caroline (Mrs. Peter DesRoches), Lacey, (Mrs. Joseph Maddix) and Delima (Mrs. Gerard Arsenault), also many sorrowing friends.

Adams - Reeves Wedding

St. Mark's Anglican Church, Kensington, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Friday evening October 10th, at six o'clock, when Doris Amelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves became the bride of Sheldon Keith Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams of Sea View.

The Rev. R. Coupland performed the double ring ceremony. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cobb.

The bride chose for her wedding a street-length gown of mauve net over taffeta with matching hat and wore a corsage of Yanzel yellow gladioli. Mrs. Cobb was attired in a street length gown of turquoise taffeta with black accessories and a corsage of deep pink gladioli.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Reeves was gowned in navy with white accessories, and the groom's mother wore navy also.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where the bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mr. Davis Murray, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast, to which the groom responded.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams left on a honeymoon trip to points of interest in New Brunswick and on return will reside at Sea View, where the groom is associated with his father as general merchant.

The bride's gift to her attendant was a rhinestone necktie and earring set. The best man received a leather billfold.

Previous to the marriage, the bride, who was on the staff of the Island Telephone Company at Kensington, was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents. The bride-to-be was escorted to a decorated seat of honor by Mrs. Don Clark. A beautiful array of gifts was carried into the room by Master Darrell Adams and Miss Donna Hickon, and were opened by the Misses Doris Agnew and Shirley Baglole, and the accompanying verses of good wishes were read by Mrs. Desmond Callaghan. Miss Shirley Bridges arranged the gift on the table. After the bride-to-be expressed her appreciation to her friends, delicious refreshments were served.

WELLINGTON STATION LADIES' AID

The annual meeting of the Wellington Station Catholic Ladies' Aid was held in the French School with an attendance of thirteen members. The president presided and opened the meeting by prayer. The minutes of the previous meeting were adopted as read, and the different committees gave their reports.

The treasurer read the financial report for the past year. Out of proceeds realized through entertainments, a bazaar and fishing-pond, a lottery, etc., the sum of $669.05 was donated toward the church fund and $123.40 was donated to the French School. Cutlery, cups and saucers were bought, a gift was given to the pastor at Christmas, natural flowers were bought for the altar at Easter and $6.00 was donated for Catechism prizes.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring officers for their untiring efforts and they in turn thanked the members for their co-operation at all times. There are twenty-nine members enrolled. The officers elected for the coming year are: President, Mrs. J. Wilfrid Arsenault; vice-president, Mrs. Faustin Richard; secretary, Mrs. Jerry Richard; treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Gallant.

The meeting adjourned by prayer.

Bailey - Manderson Wedding

At a quiet ceremony Wednesday afternoon, September 17th at the home of the bride, the Rev. Capt. J. A. Davidson performed the rites. The bride, Miss Eileen, eldest daughter of Bdr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Manderson, 471 Strange Ave., Victoria, B. C., to Merle Wesley, youngest son of Mrs. Amos Bailey, Orville, Ont., and the late Amos Bailey.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, wearing a ballerina dress of white nylon net over white tulle, long white nylon net mitts, and a beaded halo, with shoulder length veil. Her only piece of jewellery was a gold cross, gift of the groom. She chose for her corsage pink carnations.

As matron of honour, Mrs. June Lachmund wore a frock of pale pink nylon with matching bolero and white gloves, and wore a corsage of white carnations.

The best man was Gnr. Howard Stapler of St. Catharines, Ontario. The bride's mother wore a suit of black rayon bengaline and a corsage of pink rose buds.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to many friends and neighbours. Many beautiful gifts were given to the bride and groom.

The next day they left on a short honeymoon trip to many points of interest in B. C. On their return they are residing in Victoria.

A shower was held on September 24 in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lachmund, when they received many useful and lovely gifts.

The happy young couple was seated in a white and pink carriage which was wheeled in laden with gifts. Pictures were taken while the bride and groom opened their gifts and read the humorous verses, which were enjoyed by everyone.

The living room was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers, bells, and balloons full of confetti, which were broken over their heads. A dainty luncheon was served by the ladies.

On the following Thursday the members of a ladies' club were joint hostesses at a surprise kitchen shower for the bride, held at the home of Mrs. Bob Bennett. A lovely corsage was presented to the bride and she then opened the numerous gifts and thanked everyone for their kindness. Luncheon was served by the ladies of the club.

Key Man in Averagetown, Canada

If you live in an average Canadian community, you can easily see that it's changing. Everywhere you look, new construction tells a story of progress. Here, perhaps, is a handsome new store. There, a new bridge, office building, power plant, highway, housing project — or some other vital development that makes life better for all.

But do you know that many of these developments are made possible by a certain Key Man? And can you guess who he is?

He's the typical life insurance policyholder — representing millions of Canadians.

How can he do all this just by owning life insurance? Because a large part of his premium dollars is invested for him in sound securities which help finance many such projects. Each year, more than 225 million life insurance dollars are put to work in these useful ways from coast to coast!

The life insurance policyholder is a helpful citizen in another way. For the money he puts aside for the future helps safeguard his family from ever becoming a financial burden to others.

All in all, he's an asset to his community and the nation!
